12 INSURANCE PARTNERS, INC.
13 Third-Party Defendant.

14 PROPOSED PROTECTIVE ORDER

15 To adequately protect information the parties are entitled to keep confidential, ensure that 16 only materials the parties are entitled to keep confidential are subject to such treatment, and 17 ensure that the parties are permitted reasonable necessary uses of such materials in preparation 18 for and in the conduct of trial, it is hereby ORDERED THAT:

19 1. Scope. All documents and information produced, adduced, or disclosed in the 20 course of discovery in this matter, including initial disclosures, responses to discovery requests, 21 deposition testimony and exhibits, shall be subject to this Protective Order. This Protective 22 Order is subject to the Local Rules of the District of Nevada and the Federal Rules of Civil 23 Procedure on matters of procedure and the calculation of time periods.

24 2. Confidential Information. As used in this Order, "Confidential Information" 25 means documents or information designated "CONFIDENTIAL" by a party that produces or 26 discloses material within one or more of the following categories (the "Producing Party"): (a) 27 information prohibited from disclosure by statute, (b) information that reveals trade secrets, (c) 28 research, technical, commercial, financial, or other proprietary information that the party has maintained as confidential, (d) medical information concerning any individual, (e) personal identity information, (f) tax returns, including any related schedules and forms, and (g) personnel

1 or employment records of a person who is not a party to this litigation. Confidential Information 2 expressly excludes any publicly-available documents and information.

3 3. Designation. A Producing Party may designate Confidential Information by 4 placing or affixing the word “CONFIDENTIAL” on the document and on all copies in a manner
5 that will not interfere with the legibility of the document. As used herein, “copies” includes 6 electronic images, duplicates, summaries or descriptions that contain the Confidential 7 Information. The “CONFIDENTIAL” designation shall be applied prior to or at the time of 8 production or disclosure. Designating a document “CONFIDENTIAL” constitutes a certification 9 by counsel¹ that the document contains Confidential Information, but it does not mean that the 10 document has any status or protection by statute or otherwise except to the extent and for the 11 purposes of this Protective Order.

12 4. Designation of Deposition Testimony. Unless all parties agree on the record at 13 the time a deposition testimony is taken, all deposition testimony shall be treated as Confidential 14 Information until the expiration of the following: No later than the fourteenth day after the 15 transcript is delivered to any party or the witness, and in no event later than 60 days after the 16 testimony was given, Within this time period, a party may serve a Notice of Designation to all 17 parties of record as to specific portions of the testimony that are designated Confidential 18 Information, and thereafter only those portions identified in the Notice of Designation shall be 19 protected by the terms of this Protective Order. The failure to serve a timely Notice of 20 Designation shall waive any designation of testimony taken in that deposition as Confidential
21 Information, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

22 5. Inadvertent Failure to Designate. A Producing Party’s inadvertent failure to 23 designate a document “CONFIDENTIAL” does not, standing alone, waive the right to so 24 designate the document provided other than as provided in Paragraph 4 above. If a Producing 25 Party designates a document as Confidential Information after it was initially produced, then on 26

27 ¹ An attorney who reviews the documents and designates them as “CONFIDENTIAL” must be 28 admitted to the Bar of at least one state, but need not be admitted to practice in the District of Nevada unless the attorney is appearing generally in the case.

1 notification of the designation, the party that received the material (“Receiving Party”) must 2 make a reasonable effort to assure that it is treated in accordance with the provisions of this 3 Protective Order. No party shall be found to have violated this Protective Order for failing to 4 maintain the confidentiality of material during a time when that material has not been designated 5 Confidential Information.

6 6. Challenges to Designation as Confidential Information. The designation of 7 any document or information as Confidential Information is subject to challenge by any party 8 and the procedure outlined below in subparagraphs (a) and (b) shall apply to any such challenge.

9 (a) Meet and Confer. A party challenging the designation of Confidential
10 Information must do so in good faith and must begin the process by notifying 11 counsel for the Producing Party, identifying the designation(s) it intends to 12 challenge and requesting to meet and confer. The Producing Party must respond 13 to the request within five (5) business days. In conferring, the challenging party 14 must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not 15 proper and must give the Producing Party an opportunity to review the material, 16 to reconsider the designation and, if no change in designation is offered, to 17 explain the basis for the designation.

18 (b) Judicial Intervention. A party that elects to challenge a confidentiality 19 designation may file and serve a motion that identifies the challenged material and 20 sets forth in detail the basis for the challenge. Each such motion must be 21 accompanied by a declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the 22 meet and confer requirements of this procedure. The burden of persuasion in any 23 such challenge proceeding shall be on the party claiming confidentiality. Until the 24 Court rules on the challenge, all parties shall continue to treat the materials as 25 Confidential Information under the terms of this Protective Order.

26 7. Limited Disclosure to Third-Parties. The parties and their counsel shall not 27 disclose or permit the disclosure of any information, document or thing designated 28 “CONFIDENTIAL” to any third party except as set forth in sub-paragraphs (a) – (h) below.

1 Subject to these requirements, the following categories of persons may be allowed to review
2 Confidential Information:

3 (a) Parties in this action, including the party's employees, but only to the 4 extent that counsel determines in good faith that the employee's assistance is reasonably 5 necessary to the conduct of this litigation;

6 (b) Counsel of record and employees of counsel;

7 (c) Witnesses at deposition and/or trial to whom disclosure is reasonably 8 necessary, provided that such witnesses may not retain copies of Confidential Information unless 9 permitted by other provisions of this Protective Order;

10 (d) The Court and its personnel, including any arbitrator or mediator who is 11 assigned, appointed or approved by the Court to hear this matter;

12 (e) Consultants, investigators or experts employed by the parties or counsel of 13 record to assist in the preparation and trial of this matter, but only after such persons have 14 completed the "Agreement To Be Bound By Protective Order" attached hereto as Exhibit A;

15 (f) Court reporters and recorders; and

16 (g) Professional vendors engaged for the limited purpose of making copies, 17 organizing, or processing documents, provided that a representative of the vendor has signed the 18 "Agreement To Be Bound By Protective Order" attached hereto as Exhibit A.

19 (h) Others persons only by written consent of the producing party or upon 20 order of the Court and on such conditions as may be agreed and ordered.

21 8. Control of Documents. Counsel for the parties shall make reasonable efforts to 22 prevent unauthorized or inadvertent disclosure of Confidential Information and shall maintain 23 the originals of the forms signed by persons acknowledging their obligations under this 24 Protective Order for a period of one year after the termination of the litigation.

25 9. Use of Confidential Information in this Litigation. Unless otherwise ordered 26 by the Court or agreed to in writing by the Producing Party, a Receiving Party shall use 27 Confidential Information only for purposes of this litigation and in accordance with the terms of 28 this Protective Order. Pre-trial and trial proceedings shall be conducted in a manner, subject to

1 the Court's supervision, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and local rules, to protect 2 Confidential Information from disclosure to persons not authorized to have access to such 3 material.

4 10. Filing of Confidential Information. This Protective Order does not, by itself, 5 authorize the filing of any document under seal. See order issued concurrently herewith.

10 11. Material Subpoenaed or Ordered Produced in Other Litigation. If a 11 Receiving Party is served with a subpoena or an order issued in other litigation that would 12 compel disclosure of any information, documents or things designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" in 13 this action, the Receiving Party must so notify the Producing Party, in writing (by email)
14 promptly and in no event more than ten (10) calendar days after receiving the subpoena or order, 15 including a copy of the subpoena or order. The Receiving Party also must immediately inform in 16 writing the party who sent the subpoena or order that some or all the material covered by the 17 subpoena or order is the subject of this Protective Order. In addition, the Receiving Party must 18 deliver a copy of this Protective Order promptly to the party in the other action that sent the 19 subpoena or notice or order. The purpose of imposing these duties is to alert the interested 20 parties to the existence of this Protective Order and to afford the Producing Party an opportunity 21 to protect its confidentiality interests in the court from which the subpoena or order issued. The 22 Producing Party shall bear the burdens and the expenses of seeking protection in that court of its 23 designated material. Nothing in these provisions shall be construed as authorizing or 24 encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful order from another court.

25 12. Unauthorized Disclosure. If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or 26 otherwise, it has disclosed Confidential Information to any person or in any circumstance not 27 authorized under this Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify the 28 Producing Party in writing of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all

1 copies of the designated material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized 2 disclosures were made of all the terms of this Protective Order, and (d) request such person or 3 persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as 4 Exhibit A.

5 13. Duration. Even after the termination of this action, the confidentiality
6 obligations imposed by this Protective Order shall remain in effect unless the Producing Party 7 agrees otherwise, in writing, or a court order otherwise directs.

8 14. Obligations at Conclusion of Litigation. Unless otherwise ordered or agreed in 9 writing by the Producing Party, within 30 days after the final termination of this action, including 10 all appeals, each Receiving Party must destroy all Confidential Information or return it to the 11 Producing Party. However, a condition precedent to this obligation is a reminder notice by the 12 Producing Party to the Receiving Party after the final termination of this action. This obligation 13 applies to all Confidential Information, whether in physical or electronic form, and includes all 14 copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, or any other form of reproducing or capturing any 15 Confidential Information, except that counsel may retain (a) its own attorney work product that 16 refers or relates to the Confidential Information so long as that work product does not duplicate 17 substantial portions of Confidential Information verbatim, and (b) one complete set of any 18 Confidential Information filed under seal. The Receiving Party must submit a written 19 confirmation of the return or destruction to the Producing Party within the 30-day deadline.

20 15. Modification. This Protective Order is entered solely on the agreement of the 21 parties, for the purpose of facilitating discovery, and without prejudice to the right of any Party 22 to waive any of the protections afforded to it, seek or assert other objections not addressed herein 23 or apply to the Court to modify this Protective Order at any time. Nothing herein shall be 24 construed or presented as a judicial determination that any document designated as Confidential 25 Information is, in fact, entitled to protection under FRCP 26(c) or otherwise until such time as 26 the Court has actually ruled on the specific document or issue and, except on privilege grounds 27 not addressed by this Protective Order, no party may withhold information from discovery on the 28

1 ground that it requires protection greater than that afforded by this Protective Order without 2 moving the Court for an order providing additional protection.
