Stipulated Protective Order

1 WHEREAS, documents and information have been and may be sought, produced
2 or exhibited by and among the parties to this action relating to trade secrets, confidential
3 research, development, technology or other proprietary information belonging to the 4 defendant.
5

6 THEREFORE, an Order of this Court protecting such confidential information
7 shall be and hereby is made by this Court on the following terms:
8

9 1. This Order shall govern the use, handling and disclosures of all documents,
10 testimony or information produced or given in this action which are designated to be 11 subject to this Order in accordance with the terms hereof.
12

13 2. Any party or non-party producing or filing documents or other materials in 14 this action may designate such materials and the information contained therein subject to 15 this Order by typing or stamping on the front of the document, or on the portion(s) of the 16 document for which confidential treatment is designated, "Confidential."
17

18 3. A party wishing to file any document designed as "Confidential" must 19 notify the designating party at least seven days prior to filing the designed document.
20 The designating party must then make a good faith determination if the relevant standard
21 for sealing is met. See Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1180
22 (9th Cir. 2006). To the extent the designating party does not believe the relevant standard
23 for sealing can be met, it shall indicate that the document may be filed publicly no later
24 than four days after receiving notice of the intended filing. To the extent the designating
25 party believes the relevant standard for sealing can be met, it shall provide a declaration
26
27
28

1 supporting that assertion no later than four days after receiving notice of the intended
2 filing. The filing party shall then attach that declaration to its motion to seal the 3 designated material. If the designating party fails to provide such a declaration in support
4 of the motion to seal, the filing party shall file a motion to seal so indicating and the 5 Court may order the document filed in the public record. Counsel shall comply with the 6 requirements of Local Rule 10-5(b) in connection with filing documents under seal.
7
8

9 4. All documents, transcripts, or other materials subject to this Order, and all
10 information derived therefrom (including, but not limited to, all testimony given in a 11 deposition, declaration or otherwise, that refers, reflects or otherwise discusses any 12 information designated “Confidential,” shall not be used, directly or indirectly, by any 13 person, including the other defendants, for any business, commercial or competitive 14 purposes or for any purpose whatsoever other than solely for the preparation and trial of 15 this action in accordance with the provisions of this Order.
16

18 5. Except with the prior written consent of the individual or entity designating
19 a document or portions of a document as “Confidential,” or pursuant to prior Order after 20 notice, any document, transcript or pleading given “Confidential” treatment under this 21 Order, and any information contained in, or derived from any such materials (including 22 but not limited to, all deposition testimony that refers to, reflects or otherwise discusses 23 any information designated “Confidential” hereunder) may not be disclosed other than in 24 accordance with this Order and may not be disclosed to any person other than: (a) the 25 Court and its officers; (b) parties to this litigation; (c) counsel for the parties, whether

2 such counsel in the preparation of this litigation; (d) fact witnesses subject to a proffer to
3 the Court or a stipulation of the parties that such witnesses need to know such 4 information; (e) present or former employees of the Producing Party in connection with 5 their depositions in this action (provided that no former employees shall be shown
6 documents prepared after the date of his or her departure); and (f) experts specifically
7 retained as consultants or expert witnesses in connection with this litigation.
8

10 6. Documents produced pursuant to this Order shall not be made available to 11 any person designated in Subparagraph 5(f) unless he or she shall have first read this 12 Order, agreed to be bound by its terms, and signed the attached Declaration of 13 Compliance.
14

15
16 7. All persons receiving any or all documents produced pursuant to this Order
17 shall be advised of their confidential nature. All persons to whom confidential 18 information and/or documents are disclosed are hereby enjoined from disclosing same to 19 any person except as provided herein, and are further enjoined from using same except in 20 the preparation for and trial of the above-captioned action between the named parties
21 thereto. No person receiving or reviewing such confidential documents, information or 22 transcript shall disseminate or disclose them to any person other than those described
23 above in Paragraph 5 and for the purposes specified, and in no event shall such person
24 make any other use of such document or transcript.
25
26

27 8. Nothing in this Order shall prevent a party from using at trial any 28

1 information or materials designated “Confidential.”

2 9. This Order has been agreed to by the parties to facilitate discovery and the 3 production of relevant evidence in this action. Neither the entry of this Order, nor the 4 designation of any information, document, or the like as “Confidential,” nor the failure to 5 make such designation, shall constitute evidence with respect to any issue in this action.
6

7 10. Within sixty (60) days after the final termination of this litigation, all
8 documents; transcripts, or other materials afforded confidential treatment pursuant to this
9 Order, including any extracts, summaries or compilations taken therefrom, but excluding
10 any materials which in the good faith judgment of counsel are work product materials,
11 shall be returned to the Producing Party.
12

13 11. In the event that any party to this litigation disagrees at any point in these 14 proceedings with any designation made under this Protective Order, the parties shall first 15 try to resolve such dispute in good faith on an informal basis in accordance with Civil 16 Local Rule 26-7. If the dispute cannot be resolved, the party objecting to the designation
17 may seek appropriate relief from this Court. During the pendency of the challenge to the 18 designation of a document or information, the designated document or information shall 19 continue to be treated as “Confidential” subject to the provisions of this Protective Order.
20

21 12. Nothing herein shall affect or restrict the rights of any party with respect to 22 its own documents or to the information obtained or developed independently of 23 documents, transcripts and materials afforded confidential treatment pursuant to this 24 Order.
25
26
27
28

1 13. The Court retains the right to allow disclosure of any subject covered by
2 this stipulation or to modify this stipulation at any time in the interest of justice.
