1 Pending before the Court is the Motion for Summary Judgment, (ECF No. 68), filed by 2 Plaintiff The Bank of New York Mellon fka The Bank of New York, as Trustee for the 3 Certificateholders of CWALT, Inc., Alternative Loan Trust 2007-12T1, Mortgage Pass-
4 Through Certificates, Series 2007-12T1 (“Plaintiff”). Defendant SFR Investments Pool 1, LLC
5 (“SFR”) filed a Response, (ECF No. 70), or in the alternative, a Counter Motion to Stay Case, 6 (ECF No. 71), or in the alternative, a Counter Motion for Relief under Federal Rule of Civil 7 Procedure 56(d), (ECF No. 72). Plaintiff filed a Reply, (ECF No. 73).

8 Also pending before the Court is Defendant Meister Park Homeowners Association’s
9 (“HOA’s”) Motion for Summary Judgment, (ECF No. 80), and SFR’s Motion for Summary
10 Judgment, (ECF No. 83). Both Motions are fully briefed.

11 I. BACKGROUND

12 Plaintiff filed its Complaint on August 18, 2016, asserting claims involving the non-13 judicial foreclosure on real property located at 292 Ben Johnson Court, Las Vegas, Nevada
14 89183 (the “Property”). (Compl. ¶ 9, ECF No. 1). On March 12, 2007, Sonya Barnes 15 purchased the Property by way of a loan in the amount of $440,000.00 secured by a Deed of 16 Trust (“DOT”) recorded March 15, 2007. (Id. ¶ 14).

17 On May 29, 2013, HOA, through its agent Nevada Association Services, Inc. (“NAS”), 18 recorded a notice of delinquent assessment lien. (Id. ¶ 16). On August 7, 2013, HOA recorded 19 a notice of default and election to sell to satisfy the delinquent assessment lien. (Id. ¶ 17). On 20 January 10, 2014, HOA recorded a notice of foreclosure sale. (Id. ¶ 18). On January 31, 2014, 21 SFR purchased the Property at the foreclosure sale pursuant to NRS § 116.1113. (Id. ¶ 25).

22 Plaintiff asserts the following causes of action against various parties involved in the 23 foreclosure and subsequent sales of the Property: (1) quiet title with a requested remedy of 24 declaratory judgment; (2) breach of Nevada Revised Statute (“NRS”) 116.1113; (3) wrongful 25 foreclosure; (4) injunctive relief; and (5) deceptive trade practices. (Id.).

1 II. LEGAL STANDARD

2 The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provide for summary adjudication when the 3 pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the 4 affidavits, if any, show that “there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and the movant 5 is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(a). Material facts are those that 6 may affect the outcome of the case. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986).
7 A dispute as to a material fact is genuine if there is sufficient evidence for a reasonable jury to 8 return a verdict for the nonmoving party. Id. “Summary judgment is inappropriate if 9 reasonable jurors, drawing all inferences in favor of the nonmoving party, could return a verdict
10 in the nonmoving party’s favor.” Diaz v. Eagle Produce Ltd. P ’ship, 521 F.3d 1201, 1207 (9th 11 Cir. 2008) (citing United States v. Shumway, 199 F.3d 1093, 1103–04 (9th Cir. 1999)). A 12 principal purpose of summary judgment is “to isolate and dispose of factually unsupported 13 claims.” Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323–24 (1986).

14 In determining summary judgment, a court applies a burden-shifting analysis. “When 15 the party moving for summary judgment would bear the burden of proof at trial, it must come 16 forward with evidence which would entitle it to a directed verdict if the evidence went 17 uncontroverted at trial. In such a case, the moving party has the initial burden of establishing 18 the absence of a genuine issue of fact on each issue material to its case.” C.A.R. Transp.
19 Brokerage Co. v. Darden Rests., Inc., 213 F.3d 474, 480 (9th Cir. 2000) (citations omitted). In 20 contrast, when the nonmoving party bears the burden of proving the claim or defense, the 21 moving party can meet its burden in two ways: (1) by presenting evidence to negate an 22 essential element of the nonmoving party’s case; or (2) by demonstrating that the nonmoving
23 party failed to make a showing sufficient to establish an element essential to that party’s case 24 on which that party will bear the burden of proof at trial. Celotex Corp., 477 U.S. at 323–24. If 25 the moving party fails to meet its initial burden, summary judgment must be denied and the

1 court need not consider the nonmoving party's evidence. Adickes v. S.H. Kress & Co., 398 U.S.
2 144, 159–60 (1970).

3 If the moving party satisfies its initial burden, the burden then shifts to the opposing 4 party to establish that a genuine issue of material fact exists. Matsushita Elec. Indus. Co. v.
5 Zenith Radio Corp., 475 U.S. 574, 586 (1986). To establish the existence of a factual dispute, 6 the opposing party need not establish a material issue of fact conclusively in its favor. It is 7 sufficient that “the claimed factual dispute be shown to require a jury or judge to resolve the 8 parties’ differing versions of the truth at trial.” T.W. Elec. Serv., Inc. v. Pac. Elec. Contractors
9 Ass’n, 809 F.2d 626, 631 (9th Cir. 1987). In other words, the nonmoving party cannot avoid 10 summary judgment by relying solely on conclusory allegations that are unsupported by factual
11 data. Taylor v. List, 880 F.2d 1040, 1045 (9th Cir. 1989). Instead, the opposition must go 12 beyond the assertions and allegations of the pleadings and set forth specific facts by producing 13 competent evidence that shows a genuine issue for trial. Celotex Corp., 477 U.S. at 324.

14 At summary judgment, a court’s function is not to weigh the evidence and determine the 15 truth but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial. Anderson, 477 U.S. at 249. The 16 evidence of the nonmovant is “to be believed, and all justifiable inferences are to be drawn in 17 his favor.” Id. at 255. But if the evidence of the nonmoving party is merely colorable or is not 18 significantly probative, summary judgment may be granted. Id. at 249–50.

19 II. DISCUSSION

20 Plaintiff asserts claims against Defendants for quiet title, violation of NRS § 116.1113, 21 wrongful foreclosure, injunctive relief, and deceptive trade practices. The Court first considers 22 the impact of the Ninth Circuit’s ruling in Bourne Valley Court Trust v. Wells Fargo Bank, NA, 23 832 F.3d 1154 (9th Cir. 2016), cert. denied, No. 16-1208, 2017 WL 1300223 (U.S. June 26, 24 2017), before turning to Plaintiff’s individual claims.

1           A.     The Scope and Effect of Bourne Valley

2           In Bourne Valley, the Ninth Circuit held that NRS § 116.3116’s “‘opt-in’ notice scheme, 3 which required a homeowners’ association to alert a mortgage lender that it intended to 4 foreclose only if the lender had affirmatively requested notice, facially violated the lender’s
5 constitutional due process rights under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Federal Constitution.”
6 Bourne Valley, 832 F.3d at 1156. Specifically, the Court of Appeals found that by enacting the 7 statute, the legislature acted to adversely affect the property interests of mortgage lenders, and 8 was thus required to provide “notice reasonably calculated, under all circumstances, to apprise 9 interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their 10 objections.” Id. at 1159. The statute’s opt-in notice provisions therefore violated the Fourteenth 11 Amendment’s Due Process Clause because they impermissibly “shifted the burden of ensuring 12 adequate notice from the foreclosing homeowners’ association to a mortgage lender.” Id.

13           The necessary implication of the Ninth Circuit’s opinion in Bourne Valley is that the 14 petitioner succeeded in showing that no set of circumstances exists under which the opt-in 15 notice provisions of NRS § 116.3116 would pass constitutional muster. See, e.g., United States 16 v. Salerno, 481 U.S. 739, 745 (1987) (“A facial challenge to a legislative Act is, of course, the 17 most difficult challenge to mount successfully, since the challenger must establish that no set of 18 circumstances exists under which the Act would be valid.”); William Jefferson & Co. v. Bd. of 19 Assessment & Appeals No. 3 ex rel. Orange Cty., 695 F.3d 960, 963 (9th Cir. 2012) (applying 20 Salerno to facial procedural due process challenge under the Fourteenth Amendment). The fact 21 that a statute “might operate unconstitutionally under some conceivable set of circumstances is 22 insufficient to render it wholly invalid.” Salerno, 481 U.S. at 745. To put it slightly differently, 23 if there were any conceivable set of circumstances where the application of a statute would not 24 violate the constitution, then a facial challenge to the statute would necessarily fail. See, e.g., 25 United States v. Inzunza, 638 F.3d 1006, 1019 (9th Cir. 2011) (holding that a facial challenge to

1 a statute necessarily fails if an as-applied challenge has failed because the plaintiff must 2 “establish that no set of circumstances exists under which the [statute] would be valid”).

3 Here, the Ninth Circuit expressly invalidated the “opt-in notice scheme” of NRS 4 § 116.3116, which it pinpointed in Bourne Valley, 832 F.3d at 1158. In 5 addition, this Court understands Bourne Valley also to invalidate NRS 116.311635(1)(b)(2), 6 which also provides for opt-in notice to interested third parties. According to the Ninth Circuit,
7 therefore, these provisions are unconstitutional in each and every application; no conceivable
8 set of circumstances exists under which the provisions would be valid. The factual 9 particularities surrounding the foreclosure notices in this case—which would be of paramount 10 importance in an as-applied challenge—cannot save the facially unconstitutional statutory 11 provisions. In fact, it bears noting that in Bourne Valley, the Ninth Circuit indicated that the 12 petitioner had not shown that it did not receive notice of the impending foreclosure sale. Thus, 13 the Ninth Circuit declared the statute’s provisions facially unconstitutional notwithstanding the 14 possibility that the petitioner may have had actual notice of the sale.

15 Accordingly, the HOA foreclosed under a facially unconstitutional notice scheme, and 16 thus the HOA foreclosure cannot have extinguished the DOT.<sup>1</sup> Therefore, the Court must quiet
17 title as a matter of law in favor of Plaintiff as assignee of the DOT.<sup>2</sup>

19 <sup>1</sup> Although SFR seeks to stay the case due to the certified question of whether “NRS 116.31168’s incorporation 20 of NRS 116.107.090 mandates notice to junior lienholders,” the Court denies this request. While applying 21 Nevada law, the Ninth Circuit explicitly answered the question currently pending before the Nevada Supreme 22 Court. Specifically, the Ninth Circuit concluded that “[i]f section 116.31168(1)’s incorporation of section 23 107.090 were to have required homeowners’ associations to provide notice of default to mortgage lenders even absent a request, section 116.31163 and section 116.31165 would have been meaningless.” See Bourne Valley, 832 F.3d at 1159. As such, Bourne Valley expressly answered this question, this Court is bound by the Ninth Circuit’s ruling, and SFR’s Counter Motion to Stay, (ECF No. 71), is DENIED.

24 <sup>2</sup> Additionally, SFR seeks relief from Plaintiff’s Motion for Summary Judgment under Federal Rule of Civil 25 Procedure (“FRCP”) 56(d). Specifically, SFR argues that “SFR requests that discovery be allowed to proceed without restriction, and has filed a separate 56(d) declaration that articulates the: (i) specific facts it will obtain from additional discovery, (ii) types of discovery SFR wants to conduct, (iii) basis for SFR’s belief that the desired facts exist, and (iv) why such facts preclude summary judgment.” (Counter Mot. for FRCP Relief 29:17–

1           B. Plaintiff’s Remaining Claims for Violation of NRS § 116.1113, Wrongful
2           Foreclosure, and Injunctive Relief

3           In its prayer for relief, Plaintiff requests primarily a declaration that SFR purchased the 4 Property subject to its DOT. (See Compl. 13:9–10). The other relief requested—with the 5 exception of the injunctive relief—is phrased in the alternative. (See id. 13:11–21). Therefore, 6 because the Court grants summary judgment for Plaintiff on its quiet title claim, Plaintiff has 7 received the relief it requested. Accordingly, the Court dismisses Plaintiff’s second, third, and 8 fifth causes of action as moot.<sup>3</sup>

9           With regard to Plaintiff’s request for a preliminary injunction pending a determination 10 by the Court concerning the parties’ respective rights and interests, the Court’s grant of 11 summary judgment for Plaintiff moots this claim, and it is therefore dismissed.

12 III. CONCLUSION

13           IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiff’s Motion for Summary Judgment, (ECF No.
14 68), is GRANTED pursuant to the foregoing.

15           IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that SFR’s Counter Motion to Stay, (ECF No. 71), and 16 Counter Motion for Relief under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56(d), (ECF No. 72), are 17 DENIED.

18           IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that HOA’s Motion for Summary Judgment, (ECF No.
19 80), is DENIED.

20           IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiff’s Motion for Summary Judgment, (ECF 21 No. 81), is DENIED as moot.

23 21, ECF No. 72). However, the Court has reviewed the Declaration that SFR attaches in support and finds it
24 unpersuasive to grant SFR’s instant Motion. Accordingly, SFR’s Counter Motion for Relief under FRCP 56(d), (ECF No. 72), is DENIED.

25 <sup>3</sup> Because the Court grants Plaintiff’s Motion for Summary Judgment for quiet title, Plaintiff’s subsequent Motion for Summary Judgment, (ECF No. 81), is DENIED as moot.
