Case No.: 2:16-cv-02473-GMN-CWH

ORDER

Pending before the Court is the Motion for Attorney's Fees, (ECF No. 34), filed by Plaintiffs Trustees of the Operating Engineers Pension Trust, Trustees of the Operating Engineers Health and Welfare Fund, Trustees of the Operating Engineers Journeyman and Apprentice Training Trust, and Trustees of the Operating Engineers Vacation-Holiday Savings Trust (collectively "Plaintiffs"). Defendant Western Explosives Systems Company ("Defendant") filed a Response, (ECF No. 35), and Plaintiffs filed a Reply, (ECF No. 36). For the reasons stated herein, Plaintiffs' Motion for Attorney's Fees is GRANTED.

I. BACKGROUND

This action concerns claims for unpaid benefit contributions under ERISA and the Labor Management Relations Act ("LMRA"). (Am. Compl. ¶ 1, ECF No. 13). In their Motion for Summary Judgment, Plaintiffs alleged that Defendant granted a "proxy" to the Nevada Contractors Association ("NCA") for purposes of collective bargaining with Local 12. (Ramos Decl. ¶ 8, Ex. 1 to Pls.' MSJ, ECF No. 17-1); (Notice of Proxy, Ex. 1-B to Pls.' MSJ, ECF No. 17-2). As a result of this proxy, Plaintiffs argued that Defendant bound itself to the Master Labor Agreement ("MLA") for Southern Nevada, which was negotiated between Local 12 and

1 the NCA. (Pls.’ MSJ 2:6–12, ECF No. 17). Based on this agreement, Plaintiffs argued that 2 Defendant was required to pay contributions for all “covered work” by its employees, which 3 totaled $55,881.06 in unpaid contributions, $5,588.10 in liquidated damages, and prejudgment
4 interest at a rate of three percent. (Id. 12:3–7). On March 29, 2018, after full consideration of 5 the record, the Court granted Plaintiffs’ Motion for Summary Judgment and ordered that 6 Defendant pay Plaintiffs $61,469.14 plus any applicable prejudgment interest. (Order, ECF No.
7 32). Plaintiffs now move for attorney’s fees and costs.

8 II. LEGAL STANDARD

9 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(d)(2) allows a party to file a motion for attorney’s 10 fees if it: (1) is filed within 14 days after judgment is entered; (2) identifies the legal basis for 11 the award; and (3) indicates the amount requested or an estimate thereof. In determining 12 whether a fee is reasonable, the Court "multiplies the number of hours reasonably expended by 13 a reasonable hourly rate." Tallman v. CPS Sec. (USA), Inc., 23 F.Supp.3d 1249, 1256 (D. Nev.
14 2014) (citing Mendez v. Cnty of San Bernardino, 540 F.3d 1109, 1129 (9th Cir. 2008)). The 15 resulting figure is referred to as the “lodestar figure,” and this amount is a presumptively
16 reasonable fee. Id.

17 III. DISCUSSION

18 A. Entitlement to Attorney’s Fees and Costs

19 In the instant Motion, Plaintiffs seek $71,683.00 in accrued fees and $804.79 in costs
20 associated with litigating this action. (Mot. Atty. Fees 7:18–21, ECF No. 34). Plaintiffs assert 21 that they are contractually entitled to such fees and costs pursuant to the labor and trust 22 agreements between the parties. (Id. 4:21–22). Additionally, Plaintiffs assert that they are 23 entitled to these fees and costs pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 1132(g)(2). (Id. 5:3–20).

24 Under 29 U.S.C. § 1132(g)(2)(D), trustees are entitled to an award of attorney’s fees in 25 successful actions to collect unpaid contributions. See Kemmis v. McGoldrick, 706 F.2d 993,

1 997 (9th Cir. 1983); San Pedro Fisherman's Welfare Trust Fund v. DiBenardo, 664 F.2d 1344
2 (9th Cir.1982) (holding the damages specified in 29 U.S.C. § 1132(g)(2), 3 including attorneys' fees, must be awarded whenever an ERISA trust fund obtains a judgment 4 for unpaid contributions against an employer). Defendant does not oppose the applicability of 5 Section 1132 to this action. The Court therefore finds that under the terms of the collective 6 bargaining agreement and pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 1132(g)(2), Plaintiffs are entitled to their 7 attorney's fees and costs.

8 B. Reasonableness

9 Once a party has established its entitlement to an award of attorney's fees, the Court
10 must determine the reasonableness of the requested amount. In re USA Commercial Mortg. Co., 11 802 F. Supp. 2d 1147, 1178 (D. Nev. 2011). In assessing the reasonableness of an hourly rate, 12 the Court considers the experience, skill, and reputation of the attorney requesting fees. Webb v.
13 Ada County, 285 F.3d 829, 840 & n.6 (9th Cir. 2002). This rate is calculated at the "prevailing 14 market rate in the relevant community for similar services by attorneys of reasonably 15 comparable skills, experience, and reputation." Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886, 895 (1984).
16 Here, Plaintiffs' counsel requests fees at a rate up to $360/hr. for partner level work, $250/hr.
17 for associate level work, and $110/hr. for paralegal level work. (Mot. Atty. Fees 6:15-16);
18 (Fees Report, Ex. 2 to Mot. Atty. Fees, ECF No. 34-2).

19 Upon review, the Court finds that Plaintiffs' requested fees are reasonable and therefore 20 do not warrant a downward departure. The Court bases this finding on the questions presented, 21 length of the motions, number of hours worked, and the quality of counsel. In particular, the 22 Court recognizes the importance of counsel's litigation experience throughout this matter, 23 which ultimately contributed to Plaintiffs' success at summary judgment. Furthermore, the 24 Court notes that Plaintiffs complied with the applicable provisions of Local Rule 54-16 by 25 providing a detailed itemization and description of the work performed, as well as a summary

1 of the fees charged and the time and labor required. Additionally, the Court notes that 2 Plaintiffs' requested hourly rates are consistent with comparable ERISA actions in this district.
3 See, e.g., Tollen v. Clark Cty. Ass'n of Sch. Admin. & Prof'l Employees, No. 2:15-CV-01096-
4 JAD-NJK, 2016 WL 7451623, at *2 (D. Nev. Dec. 2, 2016) (finding hourly rates of $275-290
5 for associates and $350-360 for partners to be reasonable); Trustees of Teamsters Local 631
6 Sec. Fund for S. Nevada v. Knox Installation - Dismantling & Servs., Inc., No. 2:12-CV-1689-7 JAD-GWF, 2013 WL 4857897, at *6 (D. Nev. Sept. 9, 2013) (finding hourly rates of $300 for 8 partner work, $270-280 for associate work, and $160-165 for paralegal work to be reasonable);
9 Trustees of Const. Indus. & Laborers Health & Welfare Tr. v. B. Witt Concrete Cutting, Inc., 10 685 F. Supp. 2d 1158, 1165 (D. Nev. 2010) (finding hourly rates of $285-310 for an attorney 11 and $160-175 for a paralegal to be reasonable).

12 Defendant does not challenge the general reasonableness of Plaintiffs' rates or hours 13 billed. Rather, Defendant raises two specific objections: (1) Plaintiffs' Motion does not 14 "explain whose initials are 'BRH' on the billing entries and why this third partner would be 15 needed on the matter;" and (2) Plaintiffs' Motion does not explain "why this matter required the 16 oversight and work of even two law firm partners." (Resp. 3:7-15, ECF No. 35). In their 17 Reply, Plaintiffs agree to remove the BRH entries from their fee request, which reduces the 18 requested fees by $1,134.00. (Reply 5:7-8, ECF No. 36). The Court therefore strikes the BRH
19 entries from the billing report as unopposed and reduces Plaintiffs' total to $70,549.00 in 20 accrued fees. With respect to Plaintiffs use of two partners, the Court finds no indication that 21 such work was duplicative or unnecessary such that a departure is warranted. To the contrary, 22 Plaintiffs represent that the second partner brought unique knowledge about both ERISA and 23 these specific plaintiffs that helped achieve a favorable result. (See id. 3:23-25). The Court 24 therefore finds the remainder of Plaintiffs' requested fees and costs to be reasonable.
