

1 foreclosure scheme may be decided by the United States Supreme Court. See Sup. Ct. R. 10(b)
2 (identifying as a compelling reason for granting certiorari that “a state court of last resort has 3 decided an important federal question in a way that conflicts with the decision . . . of a United 4 States court of appeals”). I therefore continue the stay in this case pending a decision on the 5 petitions for certiorari in Bourne Valley and Saticoy Bay.

6 A district court has the inherent power to stay cases to control its docket and promote the 7 efficient use of judicial resources. Landis v. N. Am. Co., 299 U.S. 248, 254-55 (1936);
8 Dependable Highway Exp., Inc. v. Navigators Ins. Co., 498 F.3d 1059, 1066 (9th Cir. 2007).
9 When determining whether to stay a case pending the resolution of another case, I must consider 10 (1) the possible damage that may result from a stay, (2) any “hardship or inequity” that a party 11 may suffer if required to go forward, (3) “and the orderly course of justice measured in terms of 12 the simplifying or complicating of issues, proof, and questions of law” that a stay will engender.
13 Lockyer v. Mirant Corp., 398 F.3d 1098, 1110 (9th Cir. 2005). I find that a Landis stay is 14 appropriate here.

15 The crux of the parties’ dispute is whether the HOA foreclosure sale extinguished the 16 deed of trust. If the HOA sale was void because Chapter 116 is facially unconstitutional, then the 17 parties’ dispute is, in large part, resolved or at least simplified. The Supreme Court’s 18 consideration of the petitions in Bourne Valley and Saticoy Bay thus could be dispositive of this 19 case, or at least of significant issues in the case. As the jurisprudence and the parties’ arguments 20 in this area evolve, the parties file new motions or move to supplement the pending briefs,
21 burdening our already-busy docket. Bourne Valley and Saticoy Bay no doubt will inspire more 22 motions and supplements. Staying this case pending the Supreme Court’s disposition of the 23 petitions in Bourne Valley and Saticoy Bay will permit the parties to present arguments and 24 evidence in the context of complete and resolved precedent, and it will allow me to evaluate the 25 claims in light of this legal authority. Consequently, a stay pending the disposition of the 26 certiorari proceedings will simplify the proceedings and promote the efficient use of the parties’ 27 and the court’s resources.

1 Resolving the claims or issues in this case before the Supreme Court decides whether to 2 grant or deny the petitions could impose a hardship on both parties. A stay will prevent 3 unnecessary or premature briefing on Bourne Valley and Saticoy Bay's impact on this case.

4 The potential damage that may result from a stay is that the parties will have to wait
5 longer for resolution of this case and any motions that they intend to file in the future. But a
6 delay would also result from new briefing that may be necessitated if the Supreme Court grants
7 certiorari. So a stay pending the Supreme Court's decision will not necessarily lengthen the life
8 of this case. Any possible damage that a stay may cause is minimal.

9 Finally, I expect the stay pending the Supreme Court's disposition of the petitions for 10 certiorari to be reasonably short. The petition in Bourne Valley was filed on April 3, 2017. The 11 petition in Saticoy Bay is due April 25, 2017. The length of this stay is tied to the Supreme 12 Court's decision on the petitions for certiorari, so the stay will be reasonably brief and is not 13 indefinite.<sup>1</sup> The stay will remain in place until the proceedings in the Supreme Court have 14 concluded.

15 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that plaintiff Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.'s motion to lift
16 stay (ECF No. 10) is DENIED.

17 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this case remains administratively STAYED. Once the 18 proceedings in the United States Supreme Court in Bourne Valley Court Trust v. Wells Fargo
19 Bank and Saticoy Bay LLC Series 350 Durango 104 v. Wells Fargo Home Mortgage have 20 concluded, any party may move to lift the stay.

21 DATED this 11th day of April, 2017.
