POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Plaintiff commenced this lawsuit on December 16, 2016, by filing his pro per Complaint (ECF No. 1). The Complaint spans 75 pages, asserts 16 causes of action, and includes 236 separate factual allegations that require individual response. The Complaint identifies as defendants: Ocwen Financial Corp. ("Ocwen"), Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc. ("MERS"), MERSCorp Holdings Inc. ("Merscorp"), among the 26 separate individual and entity defendants named.

Defendant Ocwen was served with the Complaint on January 11, 2017, making its deadline to respond to the Complaint February 1, 2017. It is currently unclear when or even if all the other defendants have been served. Defendant Ocwen first retained counsel on January 24, 2017 and will defend on behalf of all named defendants pursuant to its pre-existing agreements with the various defendants. By this Motion, all named Defendants jointly request an extension of time to respond up to and including March 1, 2017. This request is being made pursuant to F.R.C.P. 6(b)(1)(A) as the time period to respond to the Complaint has not yet passed for any of the Defendants.

Good cause exists to extend the time to respond to the pro per Complaint because of the length of the 75 page pleading, the complexity presented in its 16 causes of action, and the investigation and research necessary to respond to the separate 236 paragraphs of allegations. The requested time is needed to investigate the facts and analyze the applicable law in order to prepare a response. Moreover, multiple defendants will need to review and approve the response before it can be filed. Defendants submit that the additional time requested is reasonable, particularly in light of the above listed factors.

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Defendants respectfully request an extension of the time to respond to Plaintiffs' Complaint until March 1, 2017.
