Declaration of Joshua L. Mallin, Esq. In Support of Motion

1. I am a partner at the law firm of Weg & Myers, P.C., which has been retained to represent the Plaintiffs Tamares Las Vegas Properties, LLC, Plaza Hotel & Casino, LLC and T-UPR, LLC (“Plaintiffs”) in this litigation. I am a duly licensed attorney in New York, in good standing, and am admitted to this Court pro hac vice in this case.

2. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth below and if called upon to testify to the matters herein could and would be competent and willing to do so.

I. THE JOINT PRE TRIAL ORDER

3. By Decision and Order dated August 9, 2019, the Court granted in part and denied in part Travelers Motion for Summary Judgment and denied Plaza’s Motion for Summary Judgment.

4. In that same Order, the Court referred this case to the United States Magistrate Judge for a mandatory settlement conference. The Court also stayed the parties’ obligation to file their joint pretrial order until 10 days after the settlement conference, which would have been November 8, 2019.

5. By Order dated August 13, 2019, the Court issued an Order requiring the parties to appear before Magistrate Judge Koppe on October 29, 2019, to participate in a mandatory settlement conference. The Court also required that mediation statements be served on Judge Koppe’s mailbox in the Clerk’s Office, on or before October 22, 2019.

6. By Agreement amongst the parties and the Court on October 22, 2019, Magistrate Judge Koppe permitted Plaintiffs to file their mediation statements with the Court on October 23, 2019.

7. All parties appeared for the mediation conference on October 29, 2019. The case did not settle at mediation.

8. By Order dated November 1, 2019, the Court granted the parties’ first joint request to extend the deadline to file the Joint Pre Trial Order by one week, until November 15, 2019.

1 II. REASONS WHY THE DEADLINES CANNOT BE COMPLETED WITHIN
2 THE CURRENT SCHEDULE

3 9. Over the past week, the parties have exchanged numerous emails, together with 4 drafts of the Joint Pretrial Order. The parties have conferred by phone to attempt to resolve
5 disputes regarding those facts to which all parties will agree. The parties also have contacted and
6 firmed up the availability of trial witnesses, consistent with the suggested trial dates being
7 submitted to the Court as part of the Joint Pretrial Order.

8 10. Notwithstanding the diligent efforts of the parties, there remain issues for the 9 parties to resolve prior to submission of the finalized joint Pretrial Order.

10 11. The parties' efforts to resolve these issues were interrupted and delayed by the 11 birth of the granddaughter of Plaintiffs' lead attorney this morning.

12 12. Plaintiffs immediately reached out to Defendant's counsel, requesting an
13 additional one week extension in light of the circumstances. By e-mail this morning, Defendant
14 indicated that it was fully prepared to file the Joint Pretrial Order on November 15, but would not
15 oppose Plaintiffs' motion in light of this unforeseen circumstance and in exchange for the 16 undersigned's agreement, (a) to complete all sections of the Joint Pretrial Memorandum, other
17 than deposition designations, by November 15, and (b) to provide Defendant's counsel with 18 Plaintiffs' remaining deposition designations by the morning of November 18, 2019. The 19 undersigned made that commitment by reply e-mail earlier today.

20 13. In light of the foregoing, good cause exists to extend this deadline despite there
21 being less than 21 days before the Joint Pretrial Order is presently due.
