CONFIDENTIALITY AND PROTECTIVE ORDER

PETERSON BAKER, PLLC
 10001 Park Run Drive
 Las Vegas, NV 89145
 702.786.1001

18 This Confidentiality and Protective Order (this "Protective Order") is stipulated to by and 19 between Plaintiff H&H Pharmaceuticals, LLC ("Plaintiff") and Defendants Cambrex Charles City, 20 Inc. and Cambrex North Brunswick, Inc. ("Defendants") (each referred to herein as a "Party" and 21 collectively, the "Parties").

22 WHEREAS, given the nature of the claims and defenses at issue in this case, the Parties 23 anticipate that confidential information related to pharmaceutical materials and processes, among 24 other things, will be exchanged during discovery and, further, the Parties agree that such 25 information should be protected and remain confidential.

26 THEREFORE, the Parties, by and through their undersigned counsel, hereby stipulate and 27 agree, subject to the Court's approval, as follows:
 28

1 I. DEFINITIONS

2 The following definitions apply to this Protective Order:

3 1. Party. Any Party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, 4 consultants, Experts (as defined below), and Outside Counsel (as defined below).

5 2. Disclosure or Discovery Material. All items or information, regardless of the 6 medium or manner generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, 7 transcripts, or tangible things) that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to 8 discovery in this matter.

9 3. Confidential Information or Items. Information (regardless of how generated, 10 stored or maintained) or tangible things that the Designating Party has a good-faith basis for 11 believing contains information that: (a) is confidential under federal or state law or regulations; (b) 12 constitutes confidential trade secrets, including information related to drug development; (c) was 13 subject to the Parties' Confidentiality Agreement dated October 19, 2007, attached to Plaintiff's 14 Complaint as Exhibit 1; (d) contains personal information regarding individuals, including Social 15 Security Numbers, dates of birth, and information in which a person would have a reasonable 16 expectation of privacy; or (e) other sensitive personal, financial or professional information that is 17 generally unavailable to the public and that, if made available to the public, may be injurious to 18 that party's personal, financial, or professional interests.

19 4. Receiving Party. A Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material or 20 Confidential Information from a Producing Party.

21 5. Producing Party. A Party or third-party that produces Disclosure or Discovery 22 Material or Confidential Information in this action.

23 6. Designating Party. A Party or third-party that designates information or items that 24 it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as "Confidential".

25 7. Protected Material. Any Disclosure or Discovery Material or Confidential
26 Information that is designated as "Confidential."

27 8. Outside Counsel. Attorneys who are not employees of a Party but who are retained 28 to represent or advise a Party in this action.

1           9.     In-House Counsel. Attorneys who are employees of a Party.

2           10.    Counsel (without qualifier). Outside Counsel and In-House Counsel (as well as their 3 support staff).

4           11.    Expert. A person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to 5 the litigation retained by a Party or its Counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in 6 this action. This definition includes, but is not limited to, a professional jury or trial consultant 7 retained in connection with this action.

8           12.    Professional Vendor. Person or entity that provides litigation support services (e.g., 9 photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, organizing, storing, 10 retrieving data in any form or medium, etc.) and its employees and subcontractors.

11           13.    The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural, and vice versa.

12     II.     SCOPE

13           The protection conferred by this Protective Order covers not only Protected Material, but 14 also any information copied or extracted therefrom, as well as all copies excerpts, summaries, or 15 compilations thereof, testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or Counsel to or in Court 16 or in other settings that might reveal Protected Material.

17     III.    DURATION

18           Even after the termination of this action, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this 19 Protective Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a 20 court order otherwise directs.

21     IV.    DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

22           1.     Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided herein, or as 23 otherwise ordered, material that qualifies for protection under this Protective Order must be clearly 24 designated before it is disclosed or produced. Designations in conformity with this Protective Order 25 require the following:

26           a.     For information in documentary form: The Producing Party shall affix the 27 legend "Confidential" on each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions 28 of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the

1 protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate makings in the margins or redacting protected 2 portions). A Producing Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection 3 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material 4 it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the 5 material made available for inspection shall be deemed "Confidential". After the inspecting Party 6 has identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine 7 which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Protective Order, and,
8 before producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the appropriate legend 9 on each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a 10 page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected 11 portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriated markings in the margins or by redacting protected 12 portions).

13 b. For testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings:

14 Before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, the Party or non-party offering or 15 sponsoring the testimony shall identify on the record all protected testimony and further specify 16 any portions of the testimony that qualify as "Confidential". When it is impractical to identify 17 separately each portion of testimony that is entitled to protection, the Party or non-party that 18 sponsors, offers, or gives the testimony may invoke on the record (before the deposition or 19 proceeding is concluded) a right to have up to thirty (30) days to identify the specific portions or 20 the testimony as to which protection is sought. Only those portions of the testimony that are 21 appropriately designated for protection under the standards set forth herein within the thirty (30) 22 days shall be covered by the provisions of this Protective Order. Upon request of a Designating 23 Party, transcript pages containing Protected Material must be separately bound by the court 24 reporter, who must affix to the top of each such page the legend "Confidential" as instructed by the 25 Party or non-party offering or sponsoring the witness or presenting the testimony.

26 c. For information produced in some form other than documentary, and for any 27 other tangible items: The Producing Party shall affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the 28 container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend "Confidential". If only

1 portions of the information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent 2 practicable, shall identify the protected portions.

3 2. Inadvertent Failure to Designate. Inadvertent failure to identify documents or things 4 as "Confidential" pursuant to this Protective Order shall not constitute a waiver of any otherwise 5 valid claim for protection, provided that the provisions of this paragraph are satisfied. If the 6 Designating Party discovers that information should have been but was not designated 7 "Confidential" or if the Designating Party receives notice that would enable the Designating Party 8 to learn that it has disclosed such information, the Designating Party must immediately notify all 9 other Parties. In such event, within thirty (30) days of notifying all other Parties, the Designating 10 Party must also provide copies of the "Confidential" information designated in accordance with this 11 Protective Order. After receipt of such re-designated information, the "Confidential" information 12 shall be treated as required by this Protective Order, and the Receiving Party shall promptly, but in 13 no event more than fourteen (14) calendar days from the receipt of the re-designated information, 14 return to the Designating Party all previously produced copies of the same unlegended documents 15 or things. The Designating Party and the Parties may agree to alternative means. The Receiving 16 Party shall receive no liability, under this Protective Order or otherwise, for any disclosure of 17 information contained in unlegended documents or things occurring before the Receiving Party was 18 placed on notice of the Designating Party's claims of confidentiality.

19 V. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

20 1. Meet and Confer. A Party that elects to initiate a challenge to a Designating Party's 21 confidentiality designation must do so in good faith and must begin the process by conferring with 22 counsel for the Designating Party. The challenging Party must give the Designating Party an 23 opportunity of not less than ten (10) calendar days to review the designated material, to reconsider 24 the circumstances, and, if no change in the designations is offered, to explain in writing the basis 25 for the confidentiality designation.

26 2. Judicial Intervention. A Party that elects to challenge a confidentiality designation 27 after considering the justification offered by the Designating Party may file and serve a motion that 28 identifies the challenged material and sets forth in detail the basis for the challenge. Until the Court

1 rules on the challenge, all Parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of 2 protection to which it is entitled under the Designating Party's designation.

3 VI. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

4 1. Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or 5 produced by another Party or by a third-party in connection with this case solely for the limited 6 purposes of prosecuting, defending, attempting to settle, or settling this action. Such Protected 7 Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in 8 this Protective Order. Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a 9 location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under 10 this Protective Order.

11 2. Disclosure of "Confidential" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the 12 Court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any 13 information or item designated "Confidential" only to:

14 a. The Parties to this action and the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of 15 record in this action, as well as employees of said Counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to 16 disclose the information for this action. Outside Counsel shall be responsible for advising all of 17 their staff of the existence of, and their confidentiality obligations under, this Protective Order, and 18 shall be responsible for any non-compliance with this Protective Order by members of their staff 19 that have not signed the "Agreement to be bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A);

20 b. The officers, directors, and employees of the Receiving Party to whom 21 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this action and who have signed or have agreed under oath 22 and on the record to be bound by the "Agreement to be bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A);

23 c. Experts of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary 24 for this action and who have signed or have agreed under oath and on the record to be bound by the 25 "Agreement to be bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A);

26 d. The Court and its personnel;

27 e. Court reporters, their staffs, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is 28 reasonably necessary for this action;

1 f. During their depositions or at trial, witnesses in the action to whom 2 disclosure is reasonably necessary. Witnesses will not be permitted to retain copies of Protected 3 Material unless they have signed or agreed under oath and on the record to be bound by the 4 "Agreement to be bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A). Upon request of a Designating Party, 5 pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material 6 must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as 7 permitted under this Protective Order; and 8 g. The author of the document or the original source of the information and 9 recipients or addressees in the normal course of business.

10 Notwithstanding the preceding of this paragraph VI(2), a Party that has produced its, his or 11 her own Protected Material may disclose such Protected Material to any persons, with or without 12 any conditions placed upon such disclosure, as the Party deems appropriate.

13 3. Trial and Dispositive Motion Disclosure. For the purpose of trial and/or dispositive 14 motions, the Parties acknowledge that a "strong presumption in favor of access" exists. A Party 15 seeking to seal a judicial record at trial and/or the dispositive motions stage bears the burden of 16 establishing "compelling reasons" by "articulating compelling reasons supported by specific factual 17 findings," that outweigh the public policies favoring disclosure.<sup>1</sup>

18 4. Disclosure of Possession of Confidential Information. All persons described in 19 paragraph VI above shall not under any circumstances sell, offer for sale, advertise, or publicize 20 either the Confidential Information or the fact that such persons have obtained Confidential 21 Information.

22 VII. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN 23 OTHER LITIGATION

24 If a Receiving Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that 25 would compel disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as "Confidential", 26 the Receiving Party must so notify the Designating Party, in writing (by fax or email if possible) 27

28 <sup>1</sup> See Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1178-79 (9th Cir. 2006).

1 immediately and in no event more than seven (7) calendar days after receiving the subpoena or 2 court order. Such notification must include a copy of the subpoena or court order. The Receiving 3 Party also must within ten (10) calendar days inform in writing the party who caused the subpoena 4 or court order to issue in the other litigation that some or all the material covered by the subpoena 5 or court order is the subject of this Protective Order and deliver to such party a copy of this 6 Protective Order. The Designating Party shall bear the burdens and the expenses of seeking 7 protection in that court of its Protected Material – and nothing in these provisions should be 8 construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful 9 directive from another court. Once notice is given, and five (5) business days have elapsed, the 10 Receiving Party shall have no further liability for disclosure pursuant to a subpoena or court order.

11 VIII. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

12 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected 13 Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Protective Order, the 14 Receiving Party must immediately and within not more than seven (7) calendar days: (a) notify in 15 writing (using best efforts to use email or fax) the Designating Party of the unauthorized 16 disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the 17 person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of the Protective 18 Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the " Agreement to be bound by Protective 19 Order" (Exhibit A). The Receiving Party shall promptly notify the Designating Party of the results 20 of its efforts with regards to (b), (c), and (d) herein. After a good faith meet and confer effort to 21 resolve any remaining disputes concerning compliance with this paragraph, Designating Party may 22 seek relief from this Court for non-compliance with this provision. Said relief may include, but is 23 not limited to, preclusion of the Receiving Party's use in this litigation of the Protected Material 24 that was disclosed contrary to this Protective Order, or any other sanction deemed appropriate by 25 the Court.

26 IX. PUBLICLY AVAILABLE OR PREVIOUSLY POSSESSED INFORMATION

27 The restrictions in the preceding paragraphs regarding disclosure of Protected Material do 28 not and shall not apply to information or material that: (1) was, is, or becomes public knowledge in

1 a manner other than by violation of this Protective Order; (2) is acquired by the Receiving Party 2 from a third-party having the right to disclose such information or material; or (3) was lawfully 3 possessed by the Receiving Party before the date of this Protective Order. The Designating Party 4 shall act in good faith to notify the Receiving Party of any change in circumstances that renders 5 Confidential Information or Items no longer "Confidential" within a reasonable time period after 6 the change becomes known to the Designating Party.

7 X. FILING PROTECTED MATERIAL

8 With respect to pleadings and non-dispositive motions, where Protected Material or 9 information derived therefrom is included with, or the contents of such a document are disclosed 10 in, any documents filed with the Clerk or this Court or any other court, the filing Party shall file 11 said document under seal. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties to permit service by some other 12 means such as by email or facsimile, copies of any pleading, brief or other document containing 13 Protected Material that is served on opposing counsel shall be delivered in a sealed envelope 14 stamped:

15 CONFIDENTIAL PURSUANT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER

16 and shall be treated in accordance with the provisions of this Protective Order. Subject to the 17 Court's convenience and needs, all material files in this fashion will be kept under seal by the Clerk 18 of the Court until further order from the Court.

19 XI. FINAL DISPOSITION

20 Unless otherwise ordered or agreed in writing by the Producing Party, within sixty (60)
21 calendar days of a written request, after the final termination of this action, each Receiving Party 22 must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected 23 Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other form of reproducing 24 or capturing any of the Protected Material. With permission in writing from the Designating Party, 25 the Receiving Party may destroy some or all of the Protected Material instead of returning it.
26 Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written 27 certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) 28 by the thirty (30) calendar day deadline that identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the

1 Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and that affirms that the Receiving Party has not 2 retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or other forms of reproducing or capturing 3 any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an 4 archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence or 5 attorney work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any archival copies 6 retained by Counsel that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective 7 Order as set forth herein, but Counsel are not required to affirmatively attempt to destroy cached 8 data in Counsel's possession. In the event of an appeal, "Final Disposition" shall not occur until 9 the conclusion of all appeals.

10 XII. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

11 1. Modification. The Parties may modify this Protective Order by written agreement, 12 subject to approval by the Court. The Court may modify this Protective Order.

13 2. Right to Assert Other Objections. This Protective Order does not affect or waive 14 any right that any Party otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information 15 or item on any ground not addressed in this Protective Order. Similarly, this Protective Order does 16 not affect or waive any Party's right to object on any ground to use in evidence any of the material 17 covered by this Protective Order.

18 3. Privileges Not Waived. This Protective Order does not affect or waive any 19 applicable privilege or work product protection, or affect the ability of a Producing Party to seek 20 relief for an inadvertent disclosure of material protected by privilege or work product protection.

21 4. Third Party Protections. Any witness or other person, firm, or entity from which 22 discovery is sought may be informed of and may obtain the protection of this Protective Order by 23 written notice to the Parties' respective counsel or by oral notice at the time of any deposition or 24 similar proceeding.

25 5. Retention of Completed "Agreement to be bound by Protective Order" Forms 26 (Exhibit A). Completed "Agreement to be bound by Protective Order" forms (Exhibit A) ("Form") 27 shall be maintained by the Party that obtained the completed Form pursuant to this Protective Order.
28 The Party retaining the Form shall produce the Form to resolve any good faith challenge by a Party

1 or Designating Party or dispute concerning whether a person who is obligated under this Protective 2 Order to complete the Form did so properly and complied with the representations in the Form and

EXHIBIT A

AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND BY PROTECTIVE ORDER

I, _____, have read in its entirety and understand the Protective Order that was issued by the United States District Court, for the District of Nevada on _____, 2017, in the case of H&H Pharmaceuticals, LLC v. Cambrex Charles City, Inc., et al. Case No. 2:16-cv-02946-RFB-VCF. I agree to comply with and to be bound by all terms of the Protective Order and I understand and acknowledge that failure to so comply could expose me to sanctions and punishment in the nature of contempt. I solemnly promise that I will not disclose in any manner any information or item that is subject to the Protective Order to any person or entity, except in strict compliance with the provisions of the Protective Order. Further, I solemnly promise that I will not offer to sell, advertise or publicize that I have obtained any Protected Material subject to the Protective Order.

At the conclusion of this matter, I will return all Protected Material that came into my possession from counsel for the party from whom I received the Protected Material, or I will destroy those materials. I understand that any Confidential Information contained within any summaries of Protected Material shall remain protected pursuant to the terms of the Protective Order.

I further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court, for the District of Nevada for the purpose of enforcing the terms of the Protective Order, even if such enforcement proceedings occur after termination of this action.

I certify under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
