18 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

19 1. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(c) provides, in relevant that a “district court ‘must 20 appoint a guardian ad litem — or issue another appropriate order — to protect a minor or 21 incompetent person who is unrepresented in an action.’” Robidoux v. Rosengren, 638 F.3d 1177,
22 1181 (9th Cir. 2011) (quoting FED. R. CIV. P. 17(c)).

23 2. The Ninth Circuit has found appointment of a guardian ad litem can be supported by a
24 sworn declaration of the plaintiff, the sworn declaration by another person explaining plaintiff is
25 mentally ill and does not understand the court’s orders, and/or a statement by plaintiff’s
26 physician. Allen v. Calderon, 408 F.3d 1150, 1151-52 (9th Cir. 2005); United States v. 30.64

Acres of Land, 795 F.2d 796, 805 (9th Cir. 1986) (finding that the district court abused its discretion in failing to appoint a guardian ad litem to represent a plaintiff because “the court was clearly on notice that [plaintiff] claimed to be incompetent and his claim was made credible by official documentation.”).

NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to FRCP Rule 17(c), with good cause appearing based on sufficient and credible documentation, the Motion to Appoint Dennis Schaefer as Guardian Ad Litem for Plaintiff Theresa Dunphy in this case only should be and hereby is GRANTED. Dennis Schaefer is designated to make all decisions on behalf of Theresa Dunphy in this civil action in her best interests.
