23501867v1 0994902

1 The Parties' proposed order is intended to permit and restrict the exchange of confidential 2 information and documents during discovery. For example, the Parties seek to protect 3 discoverable documents and materials relating to items such as (1) the materials, policies and 4 procedures Defendant uses to comply with applicable credit reporting-related laws, and training 5 of employees and agents with complying with such laws, (2) Defendant's internal reports and 6 notes, (3) Plaintiff's consumer information, (4) Defendant's internal logs, and (5) other trade 7 secret information maintained by the Parties (collectively "Confidential Information"). The basis 8 for this Motion is several fold: 1) to protect confidential and sensitive consumer information as 9 this matter deals with alleged credit reporting issues, 2) to protect confidential and sensitive 10 personal and/or business information, and 3) to protect disclosure of trade secrets and other 11 confidential information resulting from Defendants investment of millions of dollars from the 12 public and/or competitors. Such confidential and trade secret information is generally not known 13 to competitors and not made available to the public.

14 Should Defendant's confidential information become available to the public, it would 15 result in a windfall for other businesses involved in providing similar services. In addition, it 16 would place Defendant at a disadvantage competitively because Defendant would lose the edge 17 it has over other similar businesses that have not made similar investments in training, systems, 18 and procedures. Defendant's Confidential Information include private information on how 19 Defendant organizes and documents activity on the subject account that is the result of 20 Defendants investments of thousands of dollars. Public disclosure of these materials would place 21 Defendant at a disadvantage competitively because its competitors would be aware of 22 Defendant's Confidential Information. That type of knowledge could reasonably negatively 23 impact Defendants business.

In light of the above, the Parties respectfully request the Court enter the proposed Protective Order.

For the purposes of this Order, the following definitions shall apply: 19 Confidential Information: Generally, information subject to disclosure a. 20containing personal information, financial information, trade secrets or other confidential 21 22 research, including, but not limited to, formulas, methods, or development plans, confidential 23 business information such as marketing plans, customer lists, financial information, sales figures, advertising expenditures, pricing plans, and balance sheets, supplier identities, business plans, 24 license agreements, or other information which could put the producing person or entity at a 25 competitive disadvantage if the information became known to the receiving party or other 26 information reasonably believed to be confidential. Information, the whole of which is publicly 27 available, should not be designated as "Confidential" or "Attorneys Eyes Only." 28

b. CONFIDENTIAL Designation: Documents not previously disclosed to the public should be designated "Confidential" when such documents contain confidential information that may be reviewed by the Receiving Party, but must be protected against disclosure to third parties.

c. ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Designation: Documents not previously disclosed to the public should be designated "Attorneys' Eyes Only" when such documents contain confidential information that 1) may only be reviewed by counsel for the Receiving Party who, or 2) may only be reviewed by agreed upon named representatives of the Receiving Party and their counsel and must be protected against disclosure to third parties.

10d.The "Producing Party" is the Party that provides CONFIDENTIAL /11ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information;

e. The "Receiving Party" is a Party that receives CONFIDENTIAL / ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information; and

f. An "Inadvertently Produced Document" is a document that a Party to this litigation provides to the opposing Party in this case, but that should have been withheld by the Producing Party, in whole or in part, based on a claim of privilege, work-product protection, confidentiality or other restrictions on disclosure, and for which the Producing Party provides the notice required in this Order.

19 2. When used in this Order, the word "document" means all written, recorded, or 20 electronically stored material of any kind, and copies thereof (whether identical or not identical) 21 including, but not limited to, interrogatory answers, production responses, requests to admit and 22 responses thereto, documents, as defined in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or in the 23 discovery requests in this action, or physical items produced by any Party or non-party in this 24 action whether pursuant to subpoena, court order, discovery requests, or by agreement, 25 deposition transcripts and exhibits, and any portions of any court papers which quote from or 26 summarize any of the foregoing.

3. Information produced by any party or non-party in this action may be designated by the producing party(ies) as "Confidential" or "Attorneys Eyes Only." Information designated

1 "Confidential" or "Attorneys Eyes Only" may be used only in connection with this litigation, and 2 not for any other purpose. Such information may not be disclosed to anyone except as provided
3 in this Order and the parties shall exercise due care regarding storage, custody, and use.

4 4. The protections of this Order may be used by third parties that are called upon to 5 provide documents, information or testimony in this case by following the provisions of this 6 Order.

7 5. Discoverable documents protected under this order and shall be designated as 8 CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY and/or may be redacted. Relevant and 9 discoverable documents that are protected under this order and designated as CONFIDENTIAL 10 or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, and/or may be redacted, include items such as materials, 11 policies and procedures of Defendant, Defendant's internal reports, notes and logs, Plaintiff's 12 consumer information maintained by Defendant, trade secret information, and medical records 13 and personal information, and may include other documents as determined by the designating 14 party not specifically addressed herein. Nothing herein shall be construed as an agreement or 15 requirement by the parties to produce specific types of documents, and the parties specifically 16 reserve their rights to challenge any request for documents that may also contain Confidential 17 Information.

- 6. Any Party producing documents or other materials in this action may designate such materials and the information contained therein subject to this Order by typing or stamping on the front of the document, or on the portion(s) of the document for which confidential treatment is designated, "CONFIDENTIAL" or "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" if the Party has a reasonable and good faith belief the material contains Confidential Information.
- 7. Any Confidential Information not reduced to documentary, tangible or physical form or which cannot conveniently be designated in the manner set forth in paragraph 6, including data contained in any electronic form, shall be designated CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY by informing the Receiving Party in writing that all of the information is either CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY. If any Party produces Confidential Information stored electronically, including but not limited to production of magnetic diskettes or downloaded or uploaded files transferred by any method including electronic mail, then all of that information retains its CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY nature regardless of whether the information is manipulated or converted to any other media, including, but not limited to, the creation of print-outs or other hard copies and conversations, or manipulation of data for conversation or manipulation for processing by any other computer hardware or software.

7 8. In the instance of deposition testimony, the witness under deposition or his or her 8 counsel shall invoke the provisions of this Order in a timely manner and designate the level of 9 restriction. During the deposition, unauthorized persons shall be excluded from testimony 10 designated "CONFIDENTIAL" or "ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY" as applicable under this 11 Order. The witness under deposition or his or her counsel shall have the right to designate or 12 change the level of restriction within a thirty (30) day period after the deposition. Any part of 13 deposition testimony in this case may be designated CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES 14 ONLY by advising the reporter and all Parties of such fact, or by notifying the reporter and all 15 Parties in writing within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the transcript by the deponent or 16 deponent's counsel. Deposition testimony marked CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES 17 ONLY shall be given to no one other than people described in paragraphs 11 and 12. Any 18 CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY testimony must be marked, treated, used 19 and/or disclosed only as provided in this Order.

20 9. If opposing counsel objects to the designation of certain information as 21 CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, or dispute concerning who may view such 22 information, he or she shall promptly inform the other Parties' counsel in writing of the specific 23 grounds of objection. Counsel shall then, in good faith and on an informal basis, attempt to 24 resolve such dispute. If after such good faith attempt, counsel are unable to resolve their dispute, 25 opposing counsel may move for a disclosure order consistent with this order. Any motion for 26 disclosure shall be filed within fourteen (14) days of providing written notice of the objection, 27 and the information shall continue to have CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY 28 status from the time it is produced until the ruling by the Court on the motion.

1	10.	Nothing in this Order shall prevent any Party from objecting to discovery that it
2	believes is improper.
3	11.	Any documents and/or other information designated as "CONFIDENTIAL," as
4	well as any copies or excerpts thereof, or analyses or reports that pertain thereto, may be made

3		matter, except for any persons with a present ownership or other financial
4		interest in one or more parties or in the outcome of this litigation;
5	b.	Judges, the Court and jury, law clerks and other clerical personnel of the
6		Court before which this action is pending.
7
8	с.	Independent experts not associated directly or indirectly with a party
9		whom the receiving party identifies to the Producing Party at least ten
10 11		(10) days prior to disclosure. Such independent experts must sign a
11		document in the form of Exhibit A , stating that he or she has read and
12		understands this Order and agrees to be bound by its terms, before seeing
14
15		ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY documents. No such entity or person may
16		be a former or present employee of, or have had or currently have any
17		ownership interest in any of the parties to this action. If the producing
18		party has any objection to the proposed independent expert, it shall so
19		notify the receiving party within the ten (10) day period. The parties shall
20		attempt to resolve any differences concerning such independent experts,
21		but if they are unable to do so, the receiving party may seek relief from
22		the Court as provided in paragraph 9 above. No disclosure of the 23		information shall be made to the proposed independent expert until after
24		the Court has ruled upon the issue.
25	d.	Except as provided herein, deponents at their depositions shall not be
26		given access to confidential information designated "Attorneys Eyes
27		Only" by any party or third party, other than the party who has made the
28		designation. In the event a party intends to provide "Attorneys Eyes

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	Only" documents to a deponent during a deposition and such deponent otherwise does not have access to such documents, the party shall give a ten (10) day notice to counsel of the designating party. If there is no objection, the deponent shall comply with paragraph 13 below and be allowed to review such documents. If the designating party objects to the disclosure, the receiving party may seek relief from the Court as provided in paragraph 9 above. 13. Each person permitted by this Order to have access to Confidential Information, other than the parties' counsel, shall, prior to being given such access, be provided with a copy of this Order for review. Upon receiving this Order, each person shall sign a statement in the form of Exhibit A hereto indicating that he has read the order and agrees to comply with its terms. See order issued concurrently herewith.
 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 	15. Nothing contained in this Order shall preclude a Party from using its own CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY material in any manner it sees fit, or from revealing such CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY material to whomever it chooses, without prior consent of any other Party or of this Court.

4 17. Upon request of the Producing Party and within sixty (60) days after the final 5 disposition of all aspects of this case by settlement, judgment, or expiration of time to appeal, all 6 documents designated CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, including any 7 reproductions of such documents, must be destroyed or returned to the producing Party or its 8 counsel. At the Producing Party's request, if the documents are destroyed, the Party who has 9 destroyed the documents must furnish an affidavit attesting to same.

10

18. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to require the production of any 11 document or ESI that a Party contends is protected from disclosure by the attorney-client 12 privilege and/or the work product doctrine.

13 19. Pursuant to the agreement of the Parties under Federal Rules of Evidence 502(e) 14 and by Order of this Court under Federal Rules of Evidence 502(d), no disclosure, production, or 15 exchange of documents or information in this case shall constitute a waiver of any applicable 16 attorney-client privilege or of any applicable work product protection in this or any other federal 17 or state proceeding. This Order applies to any documents or ESI disclosed, exchanged, produced, 18 or discussed-whether intentionally or inadvertently-among the Parties, their counsel and/or any 19 agents (such as vendors and experts) in the course of this litigation.

2020. This Order applies regardless of whether the Documents or ESI describe or relate 21 to actions taken in this litigation, or in prior or separate litigations.

22 21. Upon learning of any Inadvertently Produced Documents, the Producing Party 23 shall promptly give all counsel of record notice of the inadvertent production. The notice shall 24 identify the document, the portions of the document that were inadvertently produced, and the 25 first date the document was produced. If the Party that produced a document claims that only a 26 portion of the Inadvertently Produced Document was inadvertently produced, the Party shall 27 provide with the notice of inadvertent production a new copy of the document with the allegedly 28 privileged portions redacted.

1 22. Upon receiving notice of an Inadvertently Produced Document, or upon 2 determining that a document received is known to be privileged, the Receiving Party must 3 promptly return, sequester or destroy the specified information and any copies it has, and shall destroy any notes that reproduce, copy or otherwise disclose the substance of the privileged 4 5 information. The Receiving Party may not use or disclose the information until the claim is 6 resolved. If the Receiving Party disclosed the information before being notified, it must take 7 reasonable steps to retrieve and prevent further use or distribution of such information until the 8 claim is resolved.

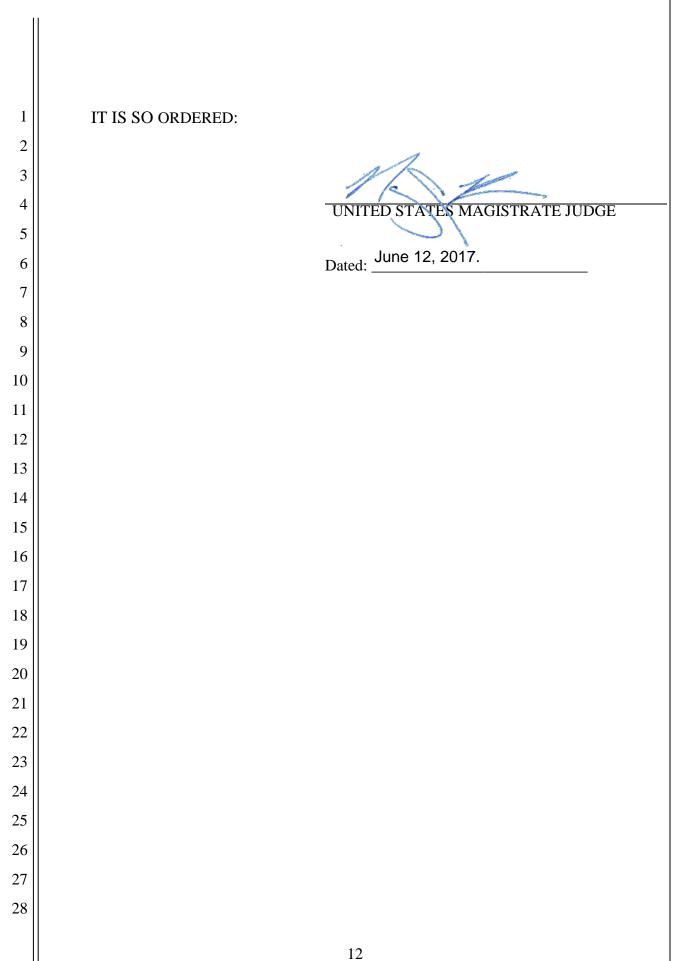

9 23. A Party receiving documents produced by another Party is under a good faith 10 obligation to promptly alert the Producing Party if a document appears on its face or in light of 11 facts known to the Receiving Party to be privileged.

12 24. To the extent that any Party obtains any information, documents or 13 communications through Inadvertently Produced Documents, such information, documents and 14 communications shall not be filed or presented for admission into evidence or sought in 15 discovery by that Party in any action.

16 25. If the Receiving Party challenges a claim that a Inadvertently Produced Document 17 is properly privileged, the Receiving Party may in connection with a good faith challenge, make 18 reference to the contents of the document in any paper submitted to the Court, so long as such 19 filing is made under seal. If requested by the Receiving Party, the Producing Party shall provide 20 such Inadvertently Produced Documents to the Court for in-camera review.

21 26. If the Court sustains the claim that an Inadvertently Produced Document is 22 properly a Produced Privileged Document, the Receiving Party shall, within two (2) days of the 23 Court's order, return the Inadvertently Produced Document and any copies it has and destroy any 24 notes relating to the Produced Privileged Document and advise the Producing Party in writing of 25 the destruction.
