Case No. 2:17-cv-00648-RFB-NJK

Unopposed Motion to Extend Time for Filing Amended Petition

(First Request)

1 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 Petitioner Max Reed respectfully asks this Court to enter an Order extending 3 his deadline for filing an Amended Petition by 120 days until October 29, 2019.

4 The Washoe County District Attorney’s Office charged Reed with one count of 5 murder with use of a deadly weapon and robbery with use of a deadly weapon in 6 June 2010.¹ The charges stemmed from a death that had occurred over six years
7 earlier, in 2003.² Reed was initially represented by appointed counsel, but the court
8 permitted Reed’s attorneys to withdraw and granted Reed’s request to represent 9 himself.³ There was extensive pre-trial litigation, and the jury trial lasted eight 10 days.⁴ The jury found Reed guilty.⁵ Reed was sentenced to two consecutive terms of 11 20 to 50 years’ imprisonment.⁶

12 This case was launched when Reed filed a § 2254 petition with an 13 accompanying motion to stay proceedings, and an application to proceeding in 14 forma pauperis on March 2, 2017.⁷ On June 19, 2017, Reed filed a pro se motion for 15 leave to conduct discovery. ⁸ He explained the conditions that he had to navigate to 16 file his § 2254 petition, his lack of access to the courts, and his lack of his own file.⁹

17 On June 26, 2017, the Court entered an order noting that Reed had not 18 provided the required financial certificate or inmate account statements with his

1 IFP application and gave him 30 days to do so or pay the $5 filing fee.¹⁰ Reed moved 2 to extend the deadline, and later filed his financial certificate.¹¹

3 On October 19, 2007, Reed sought a status update noting that he couldn't file 4 "any claims (based on) the state trial record, and district court proceeding, and the 5 evidence in this case...without receiving replacement of his last/destroyed criminal 6 case discovery materials and access to the trial transcripts prior to amending his 7 federal habeas petition."¹²

8 This Court responded with an order dated October 25, 2017.¹³ There, this 9 Court noted that Reed's petition "failed to set forth any grounds for relief."¹⁴ It
10 acknowledged Reed's accompanying motion to stay, but said that Reed couldn't stay 11 a petition without first filing the underlying petition.¹⁵ It gave Reed leave to file an 12 amended petition with claims within 60 days, but denied his motion for leave to 13 conduct discovery.¹⁶ Reed did so, filing his first amended petition on December 15, 14 2017.¹⁷ On the same day, Reed file a motion for leave to file additional pages with 15 his first amended petition and asked for permission to refile his discovery motion.¹⁸
16 Reed followed this motion up on August 7, 2018 with a request for a status update.¹⁹
17 On August 14, 2018, this Court vetted Reed's first amended petition under Rule 4,

1 ordered it served on the warden, and entered a scheduling order.²⁰

2 On February 8, 2019, the warden filed a motion to dismiss.²¹ The 3 accompanying exhibits providing the state court record total over 6,000 pages.²²

4 The Court appointed the Federal Public Defender on February 27, 2019, and 5 undersigned counsel made their appearances on March 29, 2019 and May 2, 2019.²³

6 Counsel have spoken with Reed on the phone several times and met with him
7 in person for several hours on one occasion. Counsel have scheduled a second visit 8 with Reed for the end of July.

9 As is the FPD's practice, counsel have ordered records from the available
10 courts and all prior counsel associated with the case. Reed has provided counsel 11 with the media in his possession, but as detailed in his discovery motions, he does 12 not have a complete copy of the discovery that he can provide. The media Reed 13 provided is on VHS and cassette tapes, and counsel are making arrangements to 14 obtain the tools to watch and listen to the media in its original form or to have it 15 digitized.

16 In an effort to avoid this Court's intervention, counsel have been in touch 17 with the Washoe County District Attorney's Office to obtain a complete copy of the 18 discovery. The prosecutor agreed to pull Reed's file, evaluate it, and get back to us 19 within a week, about whether she can provide us with that copy. Given the age and 20 size of Reed's case, counsel expects the discovery to be extensive.

21 Counsel are also in the process of obtaining and reviewing a co-defendant's
22 case, a co-conspirator's case, and a third-party suspect's case. Additionally, counsel

²³ ECF Nos.

1 have identified other civil litigation that Reed spearheaded in state and federal 2 court related to his access to the courts. Counsel are in the process of obtaining and 3 reviewing those files as well.

4 The fact that two lawyers have been assigned to this case, rather than one as 5 is traditionally done, is related to the size and complexity of the case. Counsel are 6 diligently working on this matter. The requested time will allow counsel to obtain 7 outstanding records, and review them.

8 This is Reed's first request for an extension and is not made for the purposes
9 of delay, but rather in the interest of Reed.

10 On June 27, 2019, undersigned counsel spoke on the phone to the warden's 11 counsel, Deputy Attorney General Michael J. Bongard, about this request. He 12 reported that he did not have any objection, with the understanding that his lack of 13 objection did not constitute a waiver of any available procedural defenses.
14 Accordingly, Reed respectfully asks this Court to grant this motion and enter an 15 order giving him until October 29, 2019 to file his amended petition.
