

1 quashing any outstanding subpoenas. For the same reasons, the undersigned RECOMMENDS in this case
2 that all Defendants except Defendant Amanda Barrientos be SEVERED and DISMISSED without 3 prejudice.

4 To the extent any subpoenas remain outstanding in this case, they are hereby QUASHED. Plaintiff
5 is ORDERED to promptly serve a copy of this order on the recipients of any outstanding subpoenas, and 6 shall file a proof of service of the same by June 20, 2017. The recipient(s) of any outstanding subpoenas
7 shall retain the subpoenaed information for a period of at least 60 days from the date of the issuance of this 8 order, so that it will be available if Plaintiff proceeds in a prompt manner against the remaining defendants 9 in new cases and obtains permission to seek early discovery in those cases.

10 Plaintiff is ORDERED to promptly serve a copy of this order and report and recommendation, as 11 well as the order and report and recommendation issued concurrently herewith in ME2 Productions, Inc.
12 v. Bayu, Case No. 2:17-cv-00724-JCM-NJK, on any defendant who has not yet appeared, and shall file a 13 proof of service of the same by June 20, 2017.

14 IT IS SO ORDERED

19 NOTICE

20 Pursuant to Local Rule IB 3-2, any objection to this Report and Recommendation must be in writing
21 and filed with the Clerk of the Court within fourteen (14) days. The Supreme Court has held that the courts 22 of appeal may determine that an appeal has been waived due to the failure to file objections within the 23 specified time. Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 142 (1985). This circuit has also held that (1) failure to file 24 objections within the specified time and (2) failure to properly address and brief the objectionable issues
25 waives the right to appeal the District Court's order and/or appeal factual issues from the order of the 26 District Court. Martinez v. Ylst, 951 F.2d 1153, 1157 (9th Cir. 1991); Britt v. Simi Valley United Sch. Dist., 27 708 F.2d 452, 454 (9th Cir. 1983).
