Case No. 2:17-cv-01399-JAD-CWH

STIPULATION AND ORDER TO EXTEND SCHEDULING ORDER
 DEADLINES BY 30 DAYS
 (Fourth Request)

Ballard Spahr LLP
 1980 Festival Plaza Dr., Suite 900
 Las Vegas, Nevada 89135-2958
 (702) 471-7000

18 Pursuant to LR IA 6-1 and LR 26-4, plaintiff David Lucero (“Plaintiff”),
 19 defendant Smith-Palluck Associates Corp., d/b/a Las Vegas Athletic Clubs (“LVAC”)
 20 (together, the “Parties”), by and through their respective counsel of record, stipulate 21 and request that this Court extend discovery and dispositive motion deadlines in 22 the above-captioned case by approximately 30 days. The requested extension will 23 allow the Parties to efficiently address, without the Court’s involvement, scheduling
 24 issues related to LVAC’s Rule 30(b)(6) deposition, as well as issues raised following 25 the TCPA decision from the United States Court of Appeals for the District of 26 Columbia in ACA International v. Federal Communications Commission (“ACA
 27 International”). The Parties have conferred and agree that this brief extension is 28 the most reasonable, most economical, and least burdensome way to proceed with

1 discovery in this case.

2 This is the Parties' fourth request for an extension to the scheduling order
3 deadlines. The Parties make this request in good faith and not for purposes of 4 delay.

5 I. Discovery Completed and Remaining

6 Plaintiff has served written discovery to LVAC, a third-party subpoena, an 7 expert disclosure and supplement thereto, and a notice of deposition of LVAC's Rule
8 30(b)(6) designee. LVAC has served responses and objections to Plaintiff's written
9 discovery. LVAC has served written discovery to Plaintiff and a notice of Plaintiff's
10 deposition. The Parties are in the process of conferring regarding certain pending
11 discovery matters, including scheduling expert and possible third-party depositions.

12 II. Good Cause Exists for the Requested Extension

13 Good cause exists for the requested extension. On March 16, 2018, the D.C.
14 Circuit issued its ruling in ACA International in an effort to clarify the types of 15 calling equipment within the TCPA's restrictions. LVAC's counsel raised certain 16 issues as a result of the ACA International case. Plaintiff's counsel disagreed with 17 LVAC's position. Additionally, due to scheduling issues, LVAC's counsel had to re-
18 schedule LVAC's Rule 30(b)(6) deposition. After productively meeting and 19 conferring, Plaintiff's counsel agreed as a professional courtesy, to allow additional 20 time without Court intervention. The extended time for discovery allows the 21 Parties to efficiently schedule party and expert depositions, and possible third-party 22 depositions, for dates and times that minimize burdens upon the witnesses and 23 counsel. For these reasons, the Parties believe their request for an extension should 24 be granted.

1 III. Proposed Discovery Deadlines

2 The Parties request an order extending the deadlines for disclosure of 3 rebuttal experts, discovery, dispositive motions, and the pre-trial order. This 4 extension is reasonable and necessary given the good cause set forth above.
