

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Grace Albanese,
Plaintiff
v.
Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department,
Defendant

2:17-cv-01520-JAD-CWH

Order Sustaining Objection to Report and Recommendation

[ECF Nos. 6, 7]

10 Since March 9, 2016, pro se plaintiff Grace Albanese has filed 45 civil cases in this court
11 against a myriad of government and law-enforcement agencies including the Las Vegas Police
12 Department,¹ Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department,² “Homeland Security,”³ Federal 13 Bureau of Investigations,⁴ Department of Homeland Security,⁵ “Las Vegas Metro Police Dept.”⁶
14 Regional Transportation Commision [sic] of Southern Nevada,⁷ “Homeland Security of the 15 United States, LasVegas, NV,”⁸ and the Transportation Security Administration.⁹ In this 16 particular case, Ms. Albanese sues the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department for 17 “[o]bstruction of justice and denying [her] equal protection.” She alleges that when she “call

1 [sic] 311 [sic] for help, Sgt. Johnson cancelled [her] call” and told her that her neighbors in 2 apartments 3 and 9 were not watching her, and that he would not allow officers to respond to her
3 call.¹⁰ She demands $500,000.

4 On June 8, 2017, Magistrate Judge Hoffman denied Albanese’s application to proceed in
5 forma pauperis because it was incomplete, and he ordered her to file a new, completed pauper
6 application.¹¹ Four days later, Albanese filed another application, but it had the same
7 deficiencies as the first, so Judge Hoffman denied it, too.¹² He gave her one more chance to file a 8 completed pauper application or pay the full $400 filing and warned her that failure to do so by 9 July 17, 2017, would result in his recommendation that this case be dismissed.¹³

10 That deadline came and went, and Albanese did not file another pauper application—let 11 alone a completed one.¹⁴ True to his word, Judge Hoffman recommends that I dismiss this 12 case.¹⁵ Ms. Albanese objects to the recommendation, arguing that “a [sic] empty envelope
13 arrived at [her] address from [this court] about 3 months ago” and she had “sent it to the F.B.I.
14 for finger print [sic] analysis.”¹⁶ She believes that the allegedly empty envelope was supposed to 15 contain her pauper application. Accepting Albanese’s story as true, I will give her one final 16 opportunity to file a completed pauper application.

17 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Albanese’s objection [ECF No. 7] to 18 Magistrate Judge Hoffman’s report and recommendation [ECF No. 6] is SUSTAINED and the 19 report and recommendation is REJECTED.

The Clerk of Court is directed to SEND to Albanese a blank application to proceed in forma pauperis by a non-prisoner along with instructions to complete it.

Albanese has until February 8, 2018, to file a COMPLETED application to proceed in forma pauperis. If Albanese fails to comply with this court-ordered deadline, this action will be dismissed with prejudice without further prior notice.

DATED: January 8, 2018.
