1 To expedite the flow of discovery, facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes over 2 confidentiality, adequately protect material claimed to be confidential, and ensure protection is 3 afforded only to material so designated, it is, pursuant to the Court's authority under Federal Rules of 4 Civil Procedure 26(c), ORDERED this Protective Order shall govern the disclosure, handling and 5 disposition of documents in this litigation as follows:

6 1. Application.

7 1.1 This Protective Order shall govern any document, information or other material 8 that is designated as containing "Confidential Information" as defined herein, and is produced in 9 connection with this litigation by any person or entity (the "producing party"), whether in response to 10 a discovery request, subpoena or otherwise, to any other person or entity (the "receiving party") 11 regardless of whether the person or entity producing or receiving such information is a party to this 12 litigation.

13 1.2 The party who asserts that particular information should be treated as 14 Confidential Information under this Protective Order has the burden of proof to establish that the 15 information or document is entitled to such protection.

16 2. Definitions.

17 2.1 Confidential Information. "Confidential Information" shall mean and include, 18 without limitation, any non-public information that concerns or relates to the following areas: 19 confidential proprietary information, trade secrets, practices and procedures, personal financial 20 information, commercial, financial, pricing, budgeting, and/or accounting information, information 21 about existing and potential customers, marketing studies, performance projections, business 22 strategies, decisions and/or negotiations, personnel compensation, evaluations and other employment 23 information, and confidential proprietary information about affiliates, parents, subsidiaries and third-24 parties with whom the parties to this action have or have had business relationships.

25 2.2 Documents. As used herein, the term "documents" includes all writings, 26 records, files, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, e-mails, video tapes, audio tapes, compact discs, 27 electronic messages, other data compilations from which information can be obtained and other 28 tangible things subject to production under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

1 3.3 Interrogatory Answers. If a party answering an interrogatory or other discovery
2 demand believes that its answer contains Confidential Information, it shall state so in the interrogatory 3 response, and that portion of the response will be entitled to the protections of this order.

4 3.4 Inspection of Documents. In the event a party elects to produce files and 5 records for inspection and the requesting party elects to inspect them, no designation of Confidential 6 Information needs to be made in advance of the inspection. For purposes of such inspection, all 7 material produced shall be considered as Confidential Information. If the inspecting party selects 8 specified documents to be copied, the producing party shall designate Confidential Information in 9 accordance with subparagraph 3.2 at the time the copies are produced.

10 3.5 Deposition Transcripts. The party asserting confidentiality shall state on the 11 record the portions it deems confidential. The failure to designate testimony on the record as 12 confidential shall be a waiver unless the designating party notifies all other parties and files a motion 13 to designate the testimony as confidential within 5 days of the notification.

14 3.6 Inadvertent Failure to Designate. Inadvertent failure to identify documents or 15 things as "Confidential" pursuant to this Protective Order shall not constitute a waiver of any 16 otherwise valid claim for protection, provided that the provisions of this paragraph are satisfied. If the 17 designating party discovers that information should have but was not designated "Confidential" or of 18 the designating party receives notice that would enable the designated party to learn that it has 19 disclosed such information, the designating party must immediately notify all other parties. In such 20 event, within thirty (30) days of notifying all other parties, the designating parties must also provide 21 copies of the "Confidential" information designated in accordance with this Protective Order. After 22 receipt of such re-designated information, the "Confidential" information shall be treated as required 23 by this Protective Order, and the receiving party(ies) shall promptly, and in no event more than 24 fourteen (14) calendar days from the receipt of the re-designated information, return to the designated 25 party all previously produced copies of the same unlegended documents or things. The designating 26 party and the parties may agree to alternative means. The receiving party(ies) shall receive no 27 liability, under this Protective Order or otherwise, for any disclosure of information contained in 28

1 unlegended documents or things occurring before the receiving party was placed on notice of the 2 designating party's claims of confidentiality.

3 4. Designations by Another Party.

4 4.1 Notification of Designation. If a party other than the producing party believes 5 that a producing party has produced a document that contains or constitutes Confidential Information
6 of the non-producing party, the non-producing party may designate the document as Confidential
7 Information by so notifying all parties in writing within fourteen (14) days of service of the document.

8 4.2 Return of Documents; Non-disclosure. Whenever a party other than the 9 producing party designates a document produced by a producing party as Confidential Information in 10 accordance with subparagraph 4.1, each party receiving the document shall either add the Confidential
11 Information designation in accordance with subparagraph 3.2 or substitute a copy of the document 12 bearing such designation for each copy of the document produced by the producing party. Each party 13 shall destroy all undesignated copies of the document or return those copies to the producing party, at 14 the direction of the producing party. No party shall disclose a produced document to any person, other 15 than the persons authorized to receive Confidential Information under subparagraph 7.1, until after the 16 expiration of the fourteen (14) day designation period specified in subparagraph 4.1. If during the 17 fourteen (14) day designation period a party discloses a produced document to a person authorized to 18 receive Confidential Information under subparagraph 7.1, and that document is subsequently 19 designated as Confidential Information in accordance with subparagraph 4.1, the disclosing party shall 20 cause all copies of the document to be destroyed or returned to the producing party, at the direction of 21 the producing party. The party may thereafter disclose a copy of the document that has been marked 22 as Confidential Information by the designating party, in accordance with subparagraphs 3.2 and 7.1.

23 5. Objections to Designations. Any party objecting to a designation of Confidential 24 Information, including objections to portions of designations of multi-page documents, shall notify the 25 designating party and all other parties of the objection in writing up to and through trial of the matter.
26 This notice must specifically identify each document that the objecting party in good faith believes 27 should not be designated as Confidential Information and provide a brief statement of the grounds for 28 such belief. In accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure governing discovery disputes,

1 the objecting and the designating parties thereafter shall confer within ten (10) days after the date of 2 such objection in an attempt to resolve their differences. If the parties are unable to resolve their 3 differences, the objecting party shall have twenty one (21) days after the conference concludes to file 4 with the Court a motion to remove the Confidential Information. If an objection is served within 5 forty-two (42) days of trial, the objecting party must file its motion to remove the Confidential
6 Information designation within half of the remaining time before trial, and the meet-and-confer period 7 shall be shortened accordingly. Where a party authored, created, owns, or controls a document, 8 information or other material that another party designates as Confidential Information, the party that 9 authored, created, owns, or controls the Confidential Information may so inform the objecting party 10 and thereafter shall also be considered a designating party for purposes of this paragraph.

11 All documents, information and other materials initially designated as Confidential Information
12 shall be treated as such in accordance with this Protective Order unless and until the Court rules 13 otherwise, except for deposition transcripts and exhibits initially considered as containing 14 Confidential Information under subparagraph 3.5, which will lose their confidential status after 15 twenty-one (21) days unless so designated as Confidential Information. If the Court rules that a 16 designation should not be maintained as to a particular document, the producing party shall, upon 17 written request by a party, provide that party a copy of that document without the designation 18 described in subparagraph 3.2.

19 If an objecting party elects not to make such a motion with respect to documents within twenty 20 one (21) days after the conference, information or other materials to which an objection has been 21 made, the objection shall be deemed withdrawn. The designating party shall have twenty one (21) 22 days to respond to the objecting party's motion. If no response is filed by the designating party within 23 twenty one (21) days, the designating party shall be deemed to have consented to the objecting party's 24 motion pursuant to LR 7-2(d).

25 . . .

26 . . .

27 . . .

28 . . .

1 6. Custody. All Confidential Information and any and all copies, extracts and summaries 2 thereof, including memoranda relating thereto, shall be retained by the receiving party in the custody 3 of counsel of record, or by persons to whom disclosure is authorized under subparagraph 7.1.

4 7. Handling Prior to Trial.

5 7.1 Authorized Disclosures. Confidential Information shall be disclosed by the 6 receiving party only to the following persons:

- 7 a. Counsel for the parties in this litigation, including their associates, clerks, 8 paralegals, and secretarial personnel;
- 9 b. Qualified persons taking testimony in this litigation involving such 10 Confidential Information, and necessary stenographic, videotape and 11 clerical personnel;
- 12 c. Experts and their staff who are retained by counsel as expert witnesses for 13 a party in this litigation;
- 14 d. Experts and their staff who are consulted by counsel for a party in this 15 litigation;
- 16 e. Parties to this litigation, limited to the named party and, if that party is a 17 corporate entity, a limited number of employees of the corporate entity 18 and its insurers;
- 19 f. Designated in-house counsel and a limited number of assistants, 20 administrative or otherwise;
- 21 g. Outside vendors employed by counsel for copying, scanning and general 22 handling of documents;
- 23 h. Any person of whom testimony is taken regarding the Confidential 24 Information, except that such person may only be shown Confidential 25 Information during his/her testimony, and may not retain a copy of such 26 Confidential Information; and
- 27 i. This Court and this Court's staff, subject to the Court's processes for filing 28 materials under seal.

1 Such disclosures are authorized only to the extent necessary to investigate, prosecute, or 2 defend the litigation.

3 Confidential Information may not be disclosed to persons under subparagraphs (c) or (d) until 4 the receiving party has obtained a written acknowledgment from the person receiving Confidential
5 Information, in the form of the Declaration attached hereto as Exhibit A, that he or she has received a 6 copy of this Protective Order and has agreed to be bound by it. A party who discloses Confidential
7 Information in accordance with subparagraph 7.1 shall retain the written acknowledgment from each 8 person receiving Confidential Information, shall maintain a list of all persons to whom a receiving 9 party has disclosed Confidential Information and identify what documents have been disclosed, and 10 shall furnish the written acknowledgments and disclosure list to opposing counsel as follows: (i) for a 11 person under subparagraph (c), within thirty (30) days after the person signs the Declaration; and (ii) 12 for a person under subparagraph (d), within thirty (30) days after the matter is finally concluded.
13 Disclosure of Confidential Information to this Court, including judicial staff, shall be made in 14 accordance with subparagraph 7.4 of this Protective Order.

15 7.2 Unauthorized Disclosures. All persons receiving Confidential Information 16 under the terms of this Protective Order are under the jurisdiction of the state courts and U.S. federal 17 courts located in Nevada for all matters arising from the improper disclosure or use of such 18 information. If Confidential Information is disclosed to any person other than in the manner 19 authorized by this Protective Order, the party or person responsible for the disclosure, and any other 20 party or person who is subject to this Protective Order and learns of such disclosure, shall immediately 21 bring such disclosure to the attention of the designating party. Without prejudice to other rights and 22 remedies of the designating party, the responsible party or person shall make every effort to obtain 23 and return the Confidential Information and to prevent further disclosure on its own part or on the part 24 of the person who was the unauthorized recipient of such information.

25 7.3 Court Filings. In the event any Confidential Information must be filed with the 26 Court prior to trial, the proposed filing shall be accompanied by a motion to file the Confidential 27 Information under seal that complies with Local Rule 10-5(b) and a proposed order, and the 28 application and proposed order shall be directed to the judge to whom the Confidential Information is

1 directed. This provision is applicable to briefs, memoranda, and other filings which quote, summarize, 2 or describe Confidential Information.

3 8. Care in Storage. Any person in possession of Confidential Information produced by 4 another party shall exercise reasonable and appropriate care with regard to the storage, custody, 5 copying, and use of such information to ensure that the confidential and sensitive nature of same is 6 maintained.

7 9. Handling During Trial. Confidential Information that is subject to this Order may be 8 marked and used as trial exhibits by either party, subject to terms and conditions as imposed by the 9 Court upon application by any party.

10 10. No Implied Waivers. This Protective Order shall not be interpreted as a waiver of the 11 right to object, under applicable law, to the furnishing of information in response to discovery requests 12 or to object to a requested inspection of documents or facilities. Parties producing Confidential 13 Information in this litigation are doing so only pursuant to the terms of this Protective Order. The 14 taking of any action in accordance with the provisions of this Protective Order shall not be interpreted 15 as a waiver of any claim or position or defense in this action, or any other actions.

16 11. No Admission. The designation of any item as Confidential Information shall not be 17 construed as an admission that such material, or any testimony concerning such material, would be 18 admissible in evidence in this litigation or in any other proceeding.

19 12. Inadvertent Disclosure. Nothing in this Protective Order abridges applicable law 20 concerning inadvertent disclosure of a document that the Disclosing Party believes contains attorney-21 client communications, attorney work product, or otherwise privileged information. If a party 22 inadvertently discloses documents or information subject to a claim of privilege or work product 23 protection, such disclosure will not waive otherwise applicable claims of privilege or work product 24 protection under applicable law. Upon discovery by the Receiving Party, or receipt of written notice 25 from the Disclosing Party identifying privileged or protected Documents that were inadvertently 26 produced, the receiving party shall within seven (7) business days either: (a) return or certify the 27 destruction of all such documents, all copies, and any work product or portions of any work product 28 containing or reflecting the contents of the subject materials; or (b) after attempting to resolve any

1 dispute with opposing counsel informally, file a motion to challenge the assertion of privilege and 2 tender the subject documents for in camera review with the motion. The moving party shall do 3 nothing to compromise the privilege claim until the Court rules on said motion and the opportunity for 4 appellate review is exhausted or the issue is otherwise resolved.

5 13. Parties' Own Documents. This Protective Order shall in no way restrict the parties in 6 their use of their own documents and information, and nothing in this Protective Order shall preclude 7 any party from voluntarily disclosing its own documents or information to any party or nonparty.

8 14. Motion by Third Party to Compel Production of Confidential Information. If any 9 third party subpoenas Confidential Information from a party to this action or moves to compel a party 10 to this action to produce any such information, such party shall immediately notify the parties who 11 originally produced and/or designated such information that a subpoena has been served or a motion 12 has been made in order to allow the parties who originally produced and/or designated such 13 information the opportunity to seek a protective order or oppose the motion or application. If, within 14 thirty (30) days after receiving notice of a subpoena seeking Confidential Information from a 15 receiving party, the party who originally produced and/or designated such information fails to move 16 for a protective order, the party subject to the subpoena may produce said information. In addition, if a 17 party is ordered to produce Confidential Information covered by this Protective Order, then notice 18 and, if available, a copy of the order compelling disclosure shall immediately be given the parties who 19 originally produced and/or designated such information. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be 20 construed as requiring the party who is ordered to produce such Confidential Information to challenge 21 or appeal any order requiring the production of such information or to subject himself/herself to any 22 penalty for non-compliance with any legal process or seek any relief from the Court.

23 15. No Effect on Other Rights. This Protective Order shall in no way abrogate or 24 diminish any pre-existing contractual, statutory, or other legal obligations or rights of any party with 25 respect to Confidential Information.

26 . . .

27 . . .

28 . . .

1 16. Modification. In the event any party hereto seeks a Court order to modify the terms of 2 this Protective Order, or seeks a protective order which incorporates the terms and conditions of this 3 Protective Order said party shall make such request by written stipulation or noticed motion to all 4 parties that must be served and filed in accordance with local court rules.

5 17. Handling Upon Conclusion of Litigation. All parties, counsel, and persons to whom 6 disclosure was made agree to return all Confidential Information to the designating party within thirty 7 (30) days of the Disclosing Party’s written request made within sixty (60) days after the conclusion of 8 litigation between the parties, including final appellate action or the expiration of time to appeal or 9 seek further review. In addition, counsel shall certify in writing that all such Confidential Information 10 have been returned. Counsel for each party also shall contact each person to whom that party has 11 provided a copy of any Confidential Information and request the documents be returned. In lieu of 12 returning Confidential Information upon the opposition party’s written request within the time period 13 set forth above, the person or party in possession of such information may elect to destroy it. If the 14 person or party in possession of Confidential Information elects to destroy it rather than return it upon 15 written request, that person or party must notify the designating party in writing of the destruction of 16 the information within ninety (90) days of the conclusion of litigation between the parties, including 17 final appellate action or the expiration of time to appeal or seek further review.
