Pro se plaintiff Ray Sharpe is a prisoner in the custody of the Nevada Department of Corrections. Sharpe brings this civil-rights action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against private individual Alisha Grundy and a Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Officer, alleging that the officer allowed Grundy to "remove and take" Sharpe's property from his house without his consent. Because civil-rights actions are only available against state actors, and Grundy is merely a private citizen, and because officers have no constitutional duty to protect Sharpe's property from Grundy, the magistrate judge recommends on screening that I dismiss Sharpe's case with prejudice and without leave to amend. Having reviewed the report and recommendation de novo, I find it accurate and adopt it in full. And "no review is required of a magistrate judge's report and recommendation unless objections are filed," and Sharpe's February 14, 2019, deadline to object passed without any objection having been filed. Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

- The Report and Recommendation [ECF No. 10] is ADOPTED in full;
- This case is DISMISSED with prejudice;
