UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

JOHN TURNER,

Plaintiff,

v.

POLO TOWERS MASTER OWNERS
ASSOCIATION, INC., et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:17-cv-02042-APG-CWH

SCREENING ORDER

This matter is before the court on the screening of Nevada state-prison inmate John Turner's amended complaint (ECF No. 1, Ex. A) under 28 U.S.C. § 1915A.

I. BACKGROUND

Turner filed his amended complaint in state court on June 13, 2017. (Notice of Removal (ECF No. 1), Exs. A-B ["Am. Compl."].) The handwritten amended complaint is on what appears to be the state court's form for civil rights complaints under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. (Id.) Turner lists Polo Towers Las Vegas, LVMPD Joe Lombardo, LVMPD Officer #5781, and Clark County as defendants. (Id. at 7-8.) Although the handwritten portions of the amended complaint are mostly illegible, it appears Turner alleges civil rights claims related to an incident resulting in his arrest at the Polo Towers resort hotel. (Id. at 9-10.) Defendant Polo Towers Master Owners Association, Inc. removed the case to this court on July 26, 2017. (Notice of Removal (ECF No. 1).) Based on the removal statement and what the court deciphered from the amended complaint, it appears at this time that removal to federal court was proper. The court now screens Turner's amended complaint under 28 U.S.C. § 1915A.

1 II. ANALYSIS

2 Federal courts must conduct a preliminary screening in any case in which a prisoner seeks
3 redress from a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity. See 28 U.S.C.
4 § 1915A(a). In its review, the court must identify any cognizable claims and dismiss any claims
5 that are frivolous, malicious, fail to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or seek
6 monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(b)(1), 7 (2).

8 Dismissal for failure to state a claim under § 1915A incorporates the standard for failure to 9 state a claim under Rule 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Nordstrom v. Ryan, 762
10 F.3d 903, 908 (9th Cir. 2014). To survive § 1915A review, a complaint must “contain sufficient
11 factual matter, accepted as true, to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Id. (quoting
12 Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009)). The court liberally construes pro se civil rights 13 complaints and may only dismiss them “if it appears beyond doubt that the plaintiff can prove no
14 set of facts in support of his claim which would entitle him to relief.” Id. (quoting Iqbal, 556 U.S.
15 at 678).

16 In considering whether the complaint is sufficient to state a claim, all allegations of material
17 fact are taken as true and construed in the light most favorable to the plaintiff. Wylar Summit
18 P’ship v. Turner Broad. Sys. Inc., 135 F.3d 658, 661 (9th Cir. 1998) (citation omitted). Although 19 the standard under Rule 12(b)(6) does not require detailed factual allegations, a plaintiff must 20 provide more than mere labels and conclusions. Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555
21 (2007). A formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action is insufficient. Id. Unless it is 22 clear the complaint’s deficiencies could not be cured through amendment, a pro se plaintiff should 23 be given leave to amend the complaint with notice regarding the complaint’s deficiencies. Cato v.
24 United States, 70 F.3d 1103, 1106 (9th Cir. 1995).

25 When evaluating a complaint under Rule 12(b)(6), a court also reviews compliance with 26 Rule 8. See Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555-63. Illegible allegations do not satisfy Rule 8(a), which 27 requires a complaint to contain a “short” and “plain” statement of the claim. See, e.g., Shuster v.
28 Oppelman, 962 F. Supp. 394, 396 (S.D.N.Y. 1997) (stating that a partially illegible pro se

1 complaint does not comply with Rule 8); Knutson v. Lucky Store, Inc., No. CIV S-07-0981-LKK-
2 EFB-P, 2008 WL 4167076, at *1 (E.D. Cal. Sept. 5, 2008) (dismissing a pro se complaint that was
3 mostly illegible and did not comply with Rule 8).

4 Here, even liberally construing the amended complaint in Turner's favor, it fails to state a
5 claim upon which relief can be granted. Turner's handwriting is mostly illegible, making it
6 impossible for the court decipher all of his allegations. To the extent the amended complaint is
7 legible, Turner appears to seek damages related to his arrest following an incident at the Polo
8 Towers. But given the extreme difficulty in reading Turner's handwriting, the court is unable to 9 determine exactly what claims Turner is attempting to allege against which defendants and cannot 10 evaluate whether Turner states claims for relief. The court therefore will dismiss the amended
11 complaint without prejudice for Turner to file a second amended complaint.

12 If Turner chooses to file a second amended complaint, it must be clearly printed or typed.
13 To the extent Turner is attempting to bring a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, Turner must allege
14 facts indicating that: (1) a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States was 15 violated, and (2) the alleged violation was committed by a person acting under color of state law.
16 See West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988). Turner must ascribe particular conduct to particular
17 defendants. All defendants must be identified in the caption of the pleading and all defendants
18 must be named in the section of the second amended complaint designated for that purpose.
19 Although the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure adopt a flexible pleading standard, Turner still must 20 give the defendants fair notice of his claims against them and of his entitlement to relief.

21 Furthermore, Turner is advised that if he files a second amended complaint, the amended
22 complaint no longer serves any function in this case. As such, if Turner files a second amended
23 complaint, it must be complete in and of itself without reference to prior pleadings or other
24 documents. The court cannot refer to a prior pleading or other documents to make Turner's second 25 amended complaint complete.

26 Finally, the court will deny without prejudice all other pending motions in the case. The 27 court cannot determine its jurisdiction in this matter or evaluate these motions until it determines 28 which claims and parties are at issue in this case.

1 III. CONCLUSION

2 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Turner's amended complaint (ECF No. 1, Exs. A-B)
3 is DISMISSED without prejudice for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, with 4 leave to amend. If Turner chooses to file a second amended complaint, he must do so by April 13,
5 2018. Failure to comply with this order will result in a report and recommendation to the assigned
6 United States district judge that this case be dismissed.

7 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of Court must send to Turner the approved
8 form for filing a § 1983 complaint, instructions for the same, and a copy of the petition for removal
9 (ECF No. 1), which includes a copy of Turner's amended complaint for his reference.

10 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all other pending motions (ECF Nos. 6, 9, 15, 17, 21, 22, 11 26, 28, 31) are DENIED without prejudice.
