UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

ZACHARY TSAMBIS,
Plaintiff,

Case No. 2:17-cv-02482-JCM-CWH

v.

ORDER

CARL ULEPICH, et al.,
Defendants.

Presently before the court is plaintiff Zachary Tsambis’ Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (ECF No. 16), filed on December 20, 2017.

Also before the court is Tsambis’ Motion to Extend Time and for Service by U.S. Marshal (ECF No. 17), filed on December 20, 2017.

Plaintiff argues that he cannot afford the expense of service of process on defendants. He further argues that he does not believe that his attempts to serve defendants will be successful without the assistance of a United States marshal. He therefore requests to proceed in forma pauperis for the purpose of obtaining a United States marshal’s assistance with service of process.

Under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1), the court may authorize the commencement of a civil case “without prepayment of fees and costs or security therefor” if a person submits an affidavit including a statement of all assets that demonstrates the person is unable to pay the fees and costs or give security for them. Under Rule 4(c)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, “[a]t the plaintiff’s request, the court may order that service be made by a United States marshal or deputy marshal or by a person specially appointed by the court . . . if the plaintiff is authorized to proceed in forma pauperis under 28 U.S.C. §1915.”

1 Given that Tsambis paid the $400.00 filing fee in this case, this order only addresses his
2 ability to pay costs. In his declaration under § 1915(a)(1), Tsambis indicates he recently became
3 self employed and does not have any income. (IFP Application (ECF No. 16) at 1.) He states that
4 he has $1,972.00 in cash or a bank account and that he owns stocks valued at $505.29. (Id. at 2.)
5 He further states that his regular monthly expenses are handled by his wife and that his debts and
6 financial obligations are “minimal.” (Id.) Finally, he states that the has three dependent children,
7 but he does not provide the court with any information regrading the amount he contributes for
8 their support, if any. (Id.)

9 Based on this information, the court finds that Tsambis has not demonstrated he is unable to 10 pay costs in this case under § 1915(a)(1). Tsambis already paid the $400.00 filing fee, and the only 11 costs he says he is unable to afford are the costs of service of process, which he does not specify.
12 Although he does not have any income, he indicates that his financial obligations are “minimal,”
13 that his wife pays his monthly expenses, and that he has $1,972 as well as $505.29 in stocks.
14 Further, he does not indicate that he provides financial support for his children. Given his cash on 15 hand and stocks, as well as his lack of documented financial obligations, it appears Tsambis has 16 funds available to pay costs. The court therefore will deny Tsambis’ application to proceed in 17 forma pauperis.

18 Having concluded that Tsambis may not proceed in forma pauperis, the court will deny his 19 motion for service of process by a United States marshal. To the extent his motion for service by a
20 United States marshal requested an extension of time to serve defendants as stated in the motion’s
21 title, the motion is denied because Tsambis does not state the requested length of the extension or 22 demonstrate good cause for the extension under Rule 4(m) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
