Attorneys for Plaintiff

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT OF NEVADA

LYNN MARIE COUSINO, and all similarly situated individuals,

Plaintiff,

vs.

WHOLE FOODS MARKET, INC.; WHOLE
 FOODS MARKET GROUP, INC.; MRS.
 GOOCH'S NATURAL FOOD MARKETS,
 INC., and WFM SOUTHERN NEVADA, INC.,

Defendants.

Case No.: 2:17-cv-02531-JAD-PAL

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

2 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, in accordance with Federal Rule of 3 Civil Procedure 26(c), by and among Plaintiff LYNN MARIE COUSINO (“Plaintiff”) and 4 Defendants WHOLE FOODS MARKET GROUP, INC., WHOLE FOODS MARKET, INC., 5 MRS. GOOCH’S NATURAL FOOD MARKETS, INC., and WFM SOUTHERN NEVADA, 6 INC., (collectively, the “Parties”),¹ by and through their counsel of record, as follows:

7 WHEREAS, documents and information have been and may be sought, produced or 8 exhibited by and among the parties to this action relating to trade secrets, confidential research, 9 development, technology or other proprietary information belonging to the defendants and/or 10 personal income, credit and other confidential information of Plaintiff and Whole Foods’s 11 customers.

12 THEREFORE, an Order of this Court protecting such confidential information shall be 13 and hereby is made by this Court on the following terms:

14 1. This Order shall govern the use, handling and disclosure of all documents, 15 testimony or information produced or given in this action which are designated to be subject to 16 this Order in accordance with the terms hereof.

17 2. Any party or non-party producing or filing documents or other materials in this 18 action may designate such materials and the information contained therein subject to this Order 19 by typing or stamping on the front of the document, or on the portion(s) of the document for 20 which confidential treatment is designated, “Confidential.” Electronically Stored Information 21 (“ESI”) designated as “Confidential” must be so designated by affixing such notice to each 22 electronic document or by marking the media upon which such ESI is produced—i.e., DVD, CD, 23 thumb drive—as “Confidential.” In the event that any documents are produced in native format, 24 documents may be marked “Confidential” by affixing this designation to the slip sheet for such 25 documents. Print-outs of any ESI designated as “Confidential” must be treated in accordance 26

28 ¹ Whole Foods Market, Inc. (WFMI) agrees to this Stipulation in the event it is ordered to proceed with discovery following the Court’s ruling on WFMI’s motion to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction.

1 with the terms of this Order.

2 3. To the extent any motions, briefs, pleadings, deposition transcripts, or other 3 papers to be filed with the Court incorporate discovery materials subject to this Order, the party 4 filing such papers shall designate such materials, or portions thereof, as “Confidential,” and shall 5 file them with the clerk under seal; provided, however, that a copy of such filing having the 6 confidential information deleted therefrom may be made part of the public record if the Court so 7 orders. Any party filing any document under seal must comply with the requirements of Local 8 Rules.

9 4. All discovery materials subject to this Order, and all information derived 10 therefrom (including, but not limited to, all testimony, deposition, or otherwise, that refers, 11 reflects or otherwise discusses any information designated Confidential hereunder), shall not be 12 used, directly or indirectly, by any person, including Plaintiff, Whole Foods Market Group, Inc., 13 Mrs. Gooch’s Natural Food Markets, Inc., and WFM Southern Nevada, Inc., for commercial or 14 competitive purposes or for any purpose whatsoever other than solely for the preparation and 15 trial (and any appeal) of this action in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

16 5. All depositions or portions of depositions taken in this action that contain 17 confidential information may be designated as “Confidential” and thereby obtain the protections 18 accorded other confidential information. The parties shall have thirty (30) days from the date a 19 deposition transcript is received to serve a notice to all parties designating portions (by page and 20 line number) as “Confidential.” Until such time, all deposition testimony shall be treated as 21 confidential information. To the extent any designations are made on the record during the 22 deposition, the designating party need not serve a notice re-designating those portions of the 23 transcript as confidential information. Any party may challenge any such designation in 24 accordance with Paragraph 14 of this Order.

25 6. Except with the prior written consent of the individual or entity designating a 26 document or portions of a document as “Confidential,” or pursuant to prior Order after notice, 27 any document, transcript or pleading given “Confidential” treatment under this Order, and any

1 information contained in or derived from any such materials (including but not limited to all 2 deposition testimony that refers, reflects or otherwise discusses any information designated 3 confidential hereunder) may not be disclosed other than in accordance with this Order and may 4 not be disclosed to any person other than: (a) the Court and its officers; (b) parties to this 5 litigation, including officers, directors, and employees of the named parties participating in the 6 prosecution or defense of this action; (c) counsel for the parties, whether retained counsel or in-7 house counsel, and their legal, clerical, and support staff, including temporary or contract staff, 8 or service vendors (including outside copying services, data-processing services, investigators, 9 and litigation support services) assisting in the conduct of this litigation; (d) deponents and fact 10 witnesses (and counsel for such witnesses) reasonably believed by counsel to be necessary in 11 connection with their testimony in this action or the preparation thereof, and provided that a 12 person identified solely in this subsection (d) shall not be permitted to retain copies of 13 Confidential discovery materials; (e) experts specifically retained as consultants or expert 14 witnesses in connection with this litigation, provided that any report created by such expert or 15 consultant relying on Confidential discovery material in whole or in part shall be designated as 16 “Confidential” by the party responsible for its creation; (f) professional court reporters, 17 stenographers, or video operators transcribing depositions or testimony in this action; (g) any 18 mediator engaged by the Parties in this action; and (h) any other person only upon order of the 19 Court or upon stipulation of the party that produced the Confidential discovery materials.

21 7. Confidential discovery materials produced pursuant to this Order shall not be 22 made available to any person designated in Subparagraph 6 (e) unless he or she shall have first 23 read this Order, agreed to be bound by its terms, and signed the attached Declaration of 24 Compliance.

25 8. Third parties who are the subject of discovery requests, subpoenas or depositions 26 in this case may take advantage of the provisions of this Protective Order by providing the 27 parties with written notice that they intend to comply with and be bound by the terms of this 28 Protective Order.

1 9. All persons receiving any or all discovery materials produced pursuant to this 2 Order shall be advised of their confidential nature. All persons to whom Confidential discovery 3 materials are disclosed are hereby enjoined from disclosing same to any person except as 4 provided herein, and are further enjoined from using same except in the preparation for and trial 5 of the above-captioned action between the named parties thereto. No person receiving or 6 reviewing such confidential discovery materials shall disseminate or disclose them to any person 7 other than those described above in Paragraph 6 and for the purposes specified, and in no event 8 shall such person make any other use of such document or transcript.

10 10. All trials are open to the public and, absent an order of the Court, there will be no 11 restrictions on the use of any discovery materials that may be introduced by any party at trial 12 simply because those materials have been designated “Confidential.”

13 11. This Order has been agreed to by the parties to facilitate discovery and the 14 production of relevant evidence in this action. Neither the entry of this Order, nor the 15 designation of any information, document, or the like as “Confidential,” nor the failure to make 16 such designation, shall constitute evidence with respect to any issue in this action.

17 12. The failure to designate any document, transcript, or other materials 18 “Confidential” will not constitute a waiver of an otherwise valid claim of confidentiality 19 pursuant to this Order, so long as a claim of confidentiality is promptly asserted after discovery 20 of the inadvertent failure. If a party designates discovery materials as “Confidential” after they 21 were initially produced, the receiving party, on notification of the designation, must make a 22 reasonable effort to assure that the document is treated in accordance with the provisions of this 23 Order, and upon request from the producing party certify that the designated discovery materials 24 have been maintained as confidential information.

25 13. If any party objects to any designation of any materials as Confidential, the parties 26 shall first attempt in good faith to resolve such objection by agreement. If the parties cannot 27 resolve their objections by agreement, any party shall be free to seek the assistance of the Court.
28 A party shall not be obligated to challenge the propriety of a Confidential designation at the time

1 made, and a failure to do so shall not preclude a subsequent challenge thereto. Until an objection
2 has been resolved by agreement of counsel or by order of the Court, the materials shall be treated 3 as Confidential and subject to this Order. The Court may find material to be improperly 4 designated if it: (a) is already public knowledge or otherwise in the public domain; (b) has 5 become public knowledge or enters the public domain other than as a result of a disclosure in 6 violation of this Order; (c) is acquired by the non-producing party from a non-party lawfully 7 possessing such documents or information; or (d) was lawfully possessed by the non-producing 8 party before discovery in this action.

10 14. The designating party shall have the burden of proving that any document
11 designated as CONFIDENTIAL is entitled to such protection. If the sole ground for a motion 12 to seal is that the opposing party (or non-party) has designated a document as subject to 13 protection pursuant to the stipulated protective order, the movant must notify the opposing party 14 (or non-party) at least two judicial days prior to filing the designated document. The designating 15 party must then make a good faith determination of whether the relevant standard for sealing is 16 met. To the extent the designating party does not believe the relevant standard for sealing can be 17 met, it shall indicate no later than on the next judicial day following the day on which notice of 18 the intended filing was received that the document may be filed publicly. To the extent the 19 designating party believes the relevant standard for sealing can be met, it shall provide a 20 declaration supporting that assertion no later than on the next judicial day following the day on 21 which notice of the intended filing was received. The filing party shall then attach that 22 declaration to its motion to seal the designated material. If the designating party fails to provide 23 such a declaration in support of the motion to seal, the filing party shall file a motion to seal so 24 indicating and the Court may order the document filed in the public record. In the event of an 25 emergency motion or response thereto, these procedures shall not apply.
26

27 15. All persons and parties in possession of Confidential discovery materials shall: 28 (1) implement and maintain a written information security program that includes commercially reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect the security and

1 confidentiality of such Confidential discovery materials; (2) use commercially reasonable efforts 2 to protect against any reasonably anticipated threats or hazards to the security of such 3 Confidential discovery materials; and (3) use commercially reasonable efforts to protect against 4 unauthorized access to or use of such Confidential discovery materials. To the extent a person or 5 party does not have an information security program, they may comply with this provision by 6 having the Confidential discovery materials managed by and/or stored with an eDiscovery 7 vendor(s) that maintains such an information security program. If the person or party receiving 8 Confidential discovery materials discovers a breach of security, including any actual or 9 suspected unauthorized access, relating to another party's Confidential discovery materials, the 10 receiving person or party shall promptly: (1) provide written notice of the breach to the person 11 or party who designated the discovery materials as Confidential; (2) investigate and make 12 commercially reasonable efforts to remediate the effects of the breach and ensure that a breach 13 shall not recur; and (3) provide the person or party who designated the discovery materials as 14 Confidential sufficient information about the breach to reasonably ascertain the size and scope of 15 the breach.

17 16. Within sixty (60) days after the final termination of this litigation, all discovery 18 materials afforded confidential treatment pursuant to this Order, including any extracts, 19 summaries or compilations taken therefrom shall be returned to the producing party. In lieu of 20 return, the parties may agree to destroy the documents, to the extent practicable. As to those 21 materials containing Confidential discovery material that (i) in the good faith judgment of 22 counsel are work product materials, and/or (ii) were filed with the Court and/or marked as trial 23 exhibits, counsel may retain these documents if such counsel comply with this Order with 24 respect to the retained materials.

25 17. Nothing herein shall affect or restrict the rights of any party with respect to its 26 own documents or to the information obtained or developed independently of documents, 27 transcripts and materials afforded confidential treatment pursuant to this Order.

28 18. The Court retains the right to allow disclosure of any subject covered by this 1 stipulation or to modify this stipulation at any time in the interest of justice.
