 19 Pursuant to District of Nevada Local Rule LR IA 11-6(b) and Rule 1.16 of the Nevada
 20 Rules of Professional Conduct, I, Ryan Gile, hereby move the Court for entry of an order granting 21 leave for me to withdraw from representing Plaintiff Switch, Ltd. in this litigation.

22 STATEMENT OF FACTS

23 On March 29, 2018, the undersigned informed Weide & Miller, Ltd. of his resignation

1 LEGAL STANDARDS

2 District of Nevada Local Rule LR IA 11-6 governs attorney appearances, substitutions,
3 and withdrawals. It states the following:

5 LR IA 11-6. APPEARANCES, SUBSTITUTIONS, AND WITHDRAWALS

- 6 (a) A party who has appeared by attorney cannot while so represented appear or act in 7 the case. This means that once an attorney makes an appearance on behalf of a 8 party, that party may not personally file a document with the court; all filings must 9 thereafter be made by the attorney. An attorney who has appeared for a party must 10 be recognized by the court and all the parties as having control of the client's case, 11 however, the court may hear a party in open court even though the party is 12 represented by an attorney.
- 13 (b) No attorney may withdraw after appearing in a case except by leave of the court 14 after notice has been served on the affected client and opposing counsel.
- 15 (c) A stipulation to substitute attorneys must be signed by the attorneys and the 16 represented client and be approved by the court. Except where accompanied by a 17 request for relief under subsection (e) of this rule, the attorney's signature on a
18 stipulation to substitute the attorney into a case constitutes an express acceptance
19 of all dates then set for pretrial proceedings, trial, or hearings, by the discovery
20 plan or any court order.
- 21 (d) Discharge, withdrawal, or substitution of an attorney will not alone be reason for 22 delay of pretrial proceedings, discovery, the trial, or any hearing in the case.
- 23 (e) Except for good cause shown, no withdrawal or substitution will be approved if it
24 will result in delay of discovery, the trial, or any hearing in the case. Where delay 25 would result, the papers seeking leave of the court for the withdrawal or 26 substitution must request specific relief from the scheduled discovery, trial, or 27 hearing. If a trial setting has been made, an additional copy of the moving papers 28 must be provided to the clerk for immediate delivery to the assigned district judge, bankruptcy judge, or magistrate judge.

29 In addition, Rule 1.16 of the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct governs the 30 termination of representation. It states the following:

- 31 (a) Except as stated in paragraph (c), a lawyer shall not represent a client or, where 32 representation has commenced, shall withdraw from the representation of a client 33 if:
- 34 (1) The representation will result in violation of the Rules of Professional 35 Conduct or other law;

(2) The lawyer’s physical or mental condition materially impairs the lawyer’s ability to represent the client; or

(3) The lawyer is discharged.

(b) Except as stated in paragraph (c), a lawyer may withdraw from representing a client if:

(1) Withdrawal can be accomplished without material adverse effect on the interests of the client;

(2) The client persists in a course of action involving the lawyer’s services that the lawyer reasonably believes is criminal or fraudulent;

(3) The client has used the lawyer’s services to perpetrate a crime or fraud;

(4) A client insists upon taking action that the lawyer considers repugnant or with which the lawyer has fundamental disagreement;

(5) The client fails substantially to fulfill an obligation to the lawyer regarding the lawyer’s services and has been given reasonable warning that the lawyer will withdraw unless the obligation is fulfilled;

(6) The representation will result in an unreasonable financial burden on the lawyer or has been rendered unreasonably difficult by the client; or

(7) Other good cause for withdrawal exists.

(c) A lawyer must comply with applicable law requiring notice to or permission of a tribunal when terminating representation. When ordered to do so by a tribunal, a lawyer shall continue representation notwithstanding good cause for terminating the representation.

(d) Upon termination of representation, a lawyer shall take steps to the extent reasonably practicable to protect a client’s interests, such as giving reasonable notice to the client, allowing time for employment of other counsel, surrendering papers and property to which the client is entitled and refunding any advance payment of fee or expense that has not been earned or incurred. The lawyer may retain papers relating to the client to the extent permitted by other law.

ARGUMENT

The Court should grant leave to withdraw because the legal standards for withdrawal are easily satisfied in this instance. First, with respect to LR IA 11-6(b), I have informed Switch, Ltd. (“Switch”) of my resignation from Weide & Miller, Ltd. and my intent to withdraw as attorney

1 of record in this matter. In addition, this motion has been served on all parties of record. Second,
2 with respect to LR 11-6(e), no delay of discovery, trial, or any hearing in the case will result since
3 Switch's other attorneys-of-record in this case, F. Christopher Austin and Samuel Castor, will 4 continue on as Switch's counsel in this matter. Third, with respect to Nevada Rule of Professional
5 Conduct 1.16(b)(1), adequate grounds for withdrawal exist because withdrawal can be 6 accomplished without material adverse effect since Mr. Austin, the law firm of Weide & Miller,
7 Ltd., and Mr. Castor will continue to represent Switch in this case. Fourth, Rule 1.16(c) is satisfied
8 because, through this motion, I am complying with the Court's rules and procedures for 9 withdrawal. Fifth, Rule 1.16(d) is satisfied because, again, Switch's current counsel, Mr. Austin
10 and Mr. Castor, will continue to represent Switch in this case.
