 16 STIPULATION AND ORDER TO EXTEND STAY
 17 (Ninth Request)

18 Plaintiff, Juaniita Darlynn (hereafter, "Plaintiff"), and Defendant, Department of the Air
 19 Force, et al. (hereafter, "Defendant"), by and through their respective counsel, stipulate and 20 agree as follows:

- 21 1. Plaintiff has an open workers compensation case and in connection therewith
 22 requested an Independent Medical Examination (IME) on August 20, 2020. The 23 insurer never responded to Plaintiff's request for an IME and on September 25,
 24 2020, Plaintiff filed an appeal of the defacto denial of the request for an IME.
 25 That appeal was set for a hearing on February 23, 2021, and at the hearing, the 26 Hearing Officer ordered the workers compensation insurer to approve and 27 schedule the IME. The Order relating to that hearing was dated March 10, 2021.

2. On May 18, 2021, Plaintiff sent the insurer another request for an IME with Dr. Thomas Shang. The insurer never responded to Plaintiff's request for that IME and on June 22, 2021, Plaintiff filed an appeal of the defacto denial of the request for an IME. That appeal was originally set to be heard by a Hearing Officer on September 28, 2021, but the parties stipulated to waive the hearing before the Hearing Officer level and proceed directly to the Appeals Officer level. The Appeals Officer hearing was originally set for November 8, 2021 but was reset to March 29, 2022. The parties agreed to resolve that matter by having the employer's counsel stipulate to Plaintiff undergoing a Permanent Partial Disability evaluation (hereafter "PPD") during which she would be evaluated, and her injuries apportioned. On August 23, 2022, Jess L. Askeroth, D.C. performed that impairment rating and issued his report. A copy of that report was provided to Troy K. Flake, Esq, counsel for the United States, on August 29, 2022. Mr. Flake reviewed the report and settlement negotiations are ongoing. As Plaintiff's worker's compensation claim just recently concluded, Plaintiff's counsel is working to obtain subrogation information from the worker's compensation carrier to evaluate settlement.

3. To allow the parties to continue negotiations and to determine whether the matter will be resolved without future litigation, the parties hereto have agreed to extend the stay regarding this matter an additional 180 days (until June 6, 2023).
