18
 19 Defendant Andrew Saul, Commissioner of Social Security (“Defendant”), respectfully
 20 requests that the Court extend the time for Defendant to file a response to the Magistrate Judge’s 21 Report and Recommendation by seven (7) days, through and until October 7, 2019. This is 22 Defendant’s third request for an extension of time. The Court granted Defendant’s first 23 requested extension to respond to Plaintiff’s Complaint (Dkt. 11) and second requested extension 24 to allow additional time for the parties to discuss voluntary remand (Dkt. 56).

25 Defendant moved to voluntarily remand this case for further proceedings (Dkt. 57). At 26 issue in the parties’ merits briefs were the terms of that remand. Defendant requests additional

1 time to respond to the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation (Dkt. 68) due to 2 workload conflicts. The undersigned counsel drafted and filed three merits briefs, one 3 stipulation to remand, and an answer during the 14-day period for response to the Report and 4 Recommendation. In addition, the Commissioner's response must be reviewed by supervisory 5 personnel who require additional time due to tasks associated with the fiscal year end.

6 The undersigned contacted Plaintiff on September 26, 2019, and Plaintiff indicated that 7 he consents to this extension.

8
9 Respectfully submitted this 30th day of September 2019.
