24 (h) “Highly Confidential” means any Information which belongs to a

1 (i) “Highly Confidential Materials” means any Documents, 2 Testimony, or Information designated as “Highly Confidential” pursuant to the 3 provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order.

11 2. This Order shall govern the use, handling and disclosure of all Documents, 12 Testimony or Information produced or given in this Proceeding which are designated to be 13 subject to this Order in accordance with the terms hereof.

14 3. Each Party or non-Party that designates Documents, Testimony, or Information 15 for protection under this Stipulated Protective Order must take care to limit any such designation 16 to the specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards.

17 (a) The Designating Party shall have the right to designate as “Confidential” 18 any Documents, Testimony, or Information that the Designating Party in good faith believes to 19 contain non-public information that is entitled to confidential treatment under applicable law 20 and/or the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order.

21 (b) The Designating Party shall have the right to designate as “Highly 22 Confidential” only the non-public Documents, Testimony, or Information that the Designating 23 Party in good faith believes would create a substantial risk of serious financial or other injury, if 24 Disclosed to another Party or non-Party, and that such risk cannot be avoided by less restrictive 25 means.

26 4. Any party or non-party producing or filing Documents, Testimony, or Information 27 in this Proceeding may designate such materials and the information contained therein subject to 28 this Order by typing or stamping on the front of the document, or on the portion(s) of the 1 document for which confidential treatment is designated, “Confidential” or notating the same in 2 a Disclosure of Witnesses and Documents made pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 16, and any 3 supplements thereto, clearly identifying the applicable Bate number ranges.

4 5. To the extent any motions, briefs, pleadings, deposition transcripts, or other 5 papers to be filed with the Court incorporate documents or information subject to this Order, the 6 party filing such papers shall designate such materials, or portions thereof, as “Confidential,” and 7 shall file them with the clerk under seal; provided, however, that a copy of such filing having the 8 confidential information deleted therefrom may be made part of the public record. Any party 9 filing any document under seal must comply with the requirements of Local Rules.

10 6. All Documents, Testimony, or Information subject to this Order, and all 11 information derived therefrom (including, but not limited to, all testimony, deposition, or 12 otherwise, that refers, reflects or otherwise discusses any information designated Confidential 13 hereunder), shall not be used, directly or indirectly, by any person, including Plaintiff, and 14 Seterus, for commercial or competitive purposes or for any purpose whatsoever other than solely 15 for the preparation and trial of this Proceeding in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

16 7. All depositions or portions of depositions taken in this Proceeding that contain 17 confidential information may be designated as “Confidential” and thereby obtain the protections 18 accorded other confidential information. The parties shall have twenty-one (21) days from the 19 date a deposition is taken, or fourteen (14) days from the date a deposition transcript is received, 20 whichever date is greater, to serve a notice to all parties designating portions as “Confidential.” 21 Until such time, all deposition testimony shall be treated as confidential information. To the 22 extent any designations are made on the record during the deposition, the designating party need 23 not serve a notice re-designating those portions of the transcript as confidential information.
24 Any party may challenge any such designation in accordance with Paragraph 14 of this Order.

25 8. Except with the prior written consent of the individual or entity designating a 26 document or portions of a document as “Confidential,” or pursuant to prior Order after notice, 27 any document, transcript or pleading given “Confidential” treatment under this Order, and any 28 information contained in, or derived from any such materials (including but not limited to, all deposition testimony that refers, reflects or otherwise discusses any information designated

1 confidential hereunder) may not be disclosed other than in accordance with this Order and may 2 not be disclosed to any person other than: (a) the Court and its officers; (b) parties to this 3 litigation; (c) counsel for the parties, whether retained counsel or in-house counsel and 4 employees of counsel assigned to assist such counsel in the preparation of this litigation; (d) fact 5 witnesses subject to a proffer to the Court or a stipulation of the parties that such witnesses need 6 to know such information; (e) present or former employees of the producing party in connection 7 with their depositions in this Proceeding (provided that no former employees shall be shown 8 documents prepared after the date of his or her departure); (f) court reporters in this Proceeding 9 (whether at depositions, hearings, or any other proceeding) provided that it is noted on the record 10 that the materials are Confidential Materials and subject to this Protective Order; and (g) experts 11 specifically retained as consultants or expert witnesses in connection with this litigation.

12 9. Documents produced pursuant to this Order shall not be made available to any 13 person designated in Subparagraph 8 (g) unless he or she shall have first read this Order, agreed 14 to be bound by its terms, and signed the attached Declaration of Compliance.

15 10. Third parties who are the subject of discovery requests, subpoenas or 16 depositions in this case may take advantage of the provisions of this Protective Order by 17 providing the parties with written notice that they intend to comply with and be bound by the 18 terms of this Protective Order.

19 11. All persons receiving any or all documents produced pursuant to this Order shall 20 be advised of their confidential nature. All persons to whom confidential information and/or 21 documents are disclosed are hereby enjoined from disclosing same to any person except as 22 provided herein, and are further enjoined from using same except in the preparation for and trial 23 of the above-captioned Proceeding between the named parties thereto. No person receiving or 24 reviewing such confidential documents, information or transcript shall disseminate or disclose 25 them to any person other than those described above in Paragraph 6 and for the purposes 26 specified, and in no event, shall such person make any other use of such document or transcript.

27 12. Nothing in this Order shall prevent a party from using at trial any information or 28 materials designated "Confidential."

13. This Order has been agreed to by the parties to facilitate discovery and the 1 production of relevant evidence in this Proceeding. Neither the entry of this Order, nor the 2 designation of any information, document, or the like as “Confidential,” nor the failure to make 3 such designation, shall constitute evidence with respect to any issue in this Proceeding.

4 14. Inadvertent failure to designate any document, transcript, or other materials
5 “Confidential” will not constitute a waiver of an otherwise valid claim of confidentiality 6 pursuant to this Order, so long as a claim of confidentiality is promptly asserted after discovery 7 of the inadvertent failure. If a party designates a document as “Confidential” after it was initially 8 produced, the receiving party, on notification of the designation, must make a reasonable effort 9 to assure that the document is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order, and upon 10 request from the producing party certify that the designated documents have been maintained as 11 confidential information. The designating party shall have the burden of proving that any 12 document designated as CONFIDENTIAL is entitled to such protection.

13 15. The inadvertent production by any of the undersigned Parties or non-Parties to 14 the Proceeding of any Document, Testimony, or Information during discovery in this Proceeding 15 without a “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” designation shall be without prejudice to any 16 claim that such item is “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential,” and such Party shall not be held 17 to have waived any rights by such inadvertent production. In the event that any Document, 18 Testimony, or Information that is subject to a “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” 19 designation is inadvertently produced without such designation, the Party that inadvertently 20 produced the Document, Testimony, or Information shall give written notice of such inadvertent 21 production within twenty (20) days of discovery of the inadvertent production, together with a 22 further copy of the subject Document, Testimony, or Information designated as “Confidential” or 23 “Highly Confidential” (the “Inadvertent Production Notice”). Upon receipt of such Inadvertent 24 Production Notice, the Party that received the inadvertently produced Document, Testimony, or 25 Information shall promptly destroy the inadvertently produced Document, Testimony, or 26 Information and all copies thereof, or, at the expense of the producing Party, return such together 27 with all copies of such Document, Testimony or Information to counsel for the producing Party 28 and shall retain only the “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” materials. Should the Receiving Party choose to destroy such inadvertently produced Document, Testimony, or

1 Information, the Receiving Party shall notify the producing Party in writing of such destruction 2 within ten (10) days of receipt of written notice of the inadvertent production. This provision is 3 not intended to apply to any inadvertent production of any Document, Testimony, or Information 4 protected by attorney-client or work product privileges. In the event that this provision conflicts 5 with any applicable law regarding waiver of confidentiality through the inadvertent production of 6 Documents, Testimony or Information, such law shall govern.

7 16. Within sixty (60) days after the final termination of this litigation, all Document, 8 Testimony, or Information afforded confidential treatment pursuant to this Order, including any 9 extracts, summaries or compilations taken therefrom, but excluding any materials which in the 10 good faith judgment of counsel are work product materials, shall be returned to the Producing 11 Party. In lieu of return, the parties may agree to destroy the documents, to the extent practicable.
12 In the event that any party to this litigation disagrees at any point in these Proceedings with any 13 designation made under this Protective Order, the parties shall first try to resolve such dispute in 14 good faith on an informal basis. If the dispute cannot be resolved, the party objecting to the 15 designation may seek appropriate relief from this Court. During the pendency of any challenge 16 to the designation of a document or information, the designated document or information shall continue to be treated as “Confidential” subject to the provisions of this Protective Order.

17 17. Any Party may challenge a “Confidential” or Highly Confidential” designation 18 at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party’s designation is necessary to 19 avoid foreseeable and substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant 20 disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a 21 confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original 22 designation is disclosed. In the event that counsel for a Party receiving Documents, Testimony, 23 or Information in discovery designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” objects to 24 such designation with respect to any or all of such items, said counsel shall advise counsel for 25 the Designating Party, in writing, of such objections, the specific Documents, Testimony or 26 Information to which each objection pertains, and the reasons for such objections (the 27 “Designation Objections”). Counsel for the Designating Party shall have thirty (30) days from 28

1 receipt of the written Designation Objections to either (a) agree in writing to de-designate 2 Documents, Testimony, or Information pursuant to any or all of the Designation Objections 3 and/or (b) file a motion with the Court seeking to uphold any or all designations on 4 Documents, Testimony, or Information addressed by the Designation Objections (the 5 “Designation Motion”). Pending a resolution of the Designation Motion by the Court, any and 6 all existing designations on the Documents, Testimony, or Information at issue in such Motion 7 shall remain in place. The Designating Party shall have the burden on any Designation Motion 8 of establishing the applicability of its “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” designation. In 9 the event that the Designation Objections are neither timely agreed to nor timely addressed in a 10 Designation Motion, then such Documents, Testimony, or Information shall be de-designated 11 in accordance with the Designation Objection applicable to such material.

12 18. Nothing herein shall affect or restrict the rights of any party with respect to its 13 own documents or to the information obtained or developed independently of documents, 14 transcripts and materials afforded confidential treatment pursuant to this Order.

15 19. The Court retains the right to allow disclosure of any subject covered by this 16 Order or to modify this stipulation at any time in the interest of justice.

17 20. Entering into, agreeing to and/or producing or receiving Confidential materials, or 18 otherwise complying with the terms of this Order shall not:

19 (a) operate as an admission by any party that any particular Confidential material 20 contains or reflects any type of confidential information;

21 (b) prejudice in any way the rights of the parties to object to the production of documents 22 they consider not subject to discovery, or operate as an admission by any party that the 23 restrictions and procedures set forth herein constitute adequate protection for any particular 24 information deemed by any party to be Confidential material;

25 (c) prejudice in any way the rights of any party to object to the authenticity or 26 admissibility into evidence of any document, testimony or other evidence subject to this Order;

27 (d) prejudice in any way the rights of a party to seek a determination by the Court 28 whether any document or information requested or produced in this Proceeding during the

1 course of discovery or otherwise, or Confidential material should be subject to the terms of this 2 Order;

3 (e) prejudice in any way the rights of a party to petition the Court for a further protective 4 order relating to any purportedly confidential information; or

5 (f) prevent the parties to this Stipulation and Order from agreeing to alter or waive the 6 provisions or protections provided for herein with respect to any particular information or 7 documents requested or produced in the course of discovery or otherwise.
