~~PROPOSED~~ PROTECTIVE ORDER

AS AMENDED

1           Upon consideration of the Monitor’s motion for a protective and confidentiality order, the 2 Court having found that the discovery of information that implicates third-party confidentiality 3 rights and/or that is confidential or proprietary has been requested in this action, and that the 4 disclosure and distribution of such information should be reasonably restricted, the Court finds 5 that good cause exists for the entry of this Order, and it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

6       I.   DEFINITIONS

- 7       A.   “Party” means any of the parties to this action, including the Monitor, and any of 8           their officers, directors, partners, members, principals or affiliates.
- 9       B.   “Counsel” means counsel of record in this action for any of the parties to this 10           action and those attorneys’ stenographic, clerical, and paralegal employees, or 11           outside support personnel and services whose duties and responsibilities in the 12           conduct of this action require access to Confidential Material.
- 13      C.   “Discovery Material” means:
- 14           (1) any information, document, tangible thing, or response to discovery 15           requests pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 33, 34, or 36;
- 16           (2) any deposition testimony or transcript revealed during depositions upon 17           oral or written examination pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30, or 31;
- 18           (3) any document, thing, or premises made available for inspection or 19           produced to the Receiving Party pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26, 33, or 34;
- 20           (4) any document, thing, or premises made available for inspection or 21           produced to the Receiving Party in response to a subpoena pursuant to 22           Fed. R. Civ. P. 45; and
- 23           (5) any other similar materials, or portions thereof.
- 24      D.   “Producing Party” means any party or non-party who produces Discovery 25           Material, including its directors, employees, and agents.
- 26      E.   “Receiving Party” means a party (including the Monitor) to this action, including 27           all employees, agents, and directors (other than Counsel) of the Party, who 28           receives Discovery Material from a Producing Party.

1 F. "CONFIDENTIAL" means any document, discovery response, testimony, or 2 information that the Producing Party reasonably believes embodies: (i) trade 3 secrets, proprietary, or other confidential business information; (ii) private 4 personal or personnel information; (iii) information received in confidence from 5 third parties; or (iv) information invasive of an individual's legitimate privacy 6 interests.

7 G. "Confidential Material" means any Discovery Material, and any copies, abstracts, 8 summaries, or information derived from such Discovery Material, and any notes 9 or other records embodying or disclosing the contents of such Discovery Material, 10 that is designated as CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with section II below.

11 II. DESIGNATION OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

12 Any document, any information produced on magnetic disk or other computer-related 13 media, and any portion of oral testimony produced or given in this action that is asserted by 14 Producing Party to contain or constitute CONFIDENTIAL information shall be so designated by 15 Producing Party. The first page of each document or the front of each disk that contains 16 CONFIDENTIAL information shall be marked on its face with the following legend:

17 "CONFIDENTIAL"

18 Transcript pages containing or constituting CONFIDENTIAL information shall be marked 19 CONFIDENTIAL on each such page, and the transcript shall be marked confidential on its cover 20 page.

21 III. ACCESS TO CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

22 A. Subject to section III(B) and III(C), in the absence of an order of the Court, any 23 CONFIDENTIAL information produced in accordance with the provisions of 24 section II above shall be used solely for purposes of the prosecution and defense 25 of this action, shall not be used by the receiving party for any business, 26 commercial, competitive, personal, public or other purpose, and shall not be 27 disclosed to or discussed with any person other than: (i) Counsel for the 28 Receiving Party; (ii) persons employed by, or who are independent contractors of,

1 the Receiving Party who are participating in the management of the litigation and 2 the preparation of this case for trial; (iii) outside experts or consultants who are 3 engaged for the purpose of this action by the Receiving Party and such experts' or 4 consultants' support personnel; (iv) a deponent, who may be shown or examined 5 on any information, document or thing designated CONFIDENTIAL if it appears 6 that the deponent authored, prepared, or received it; (v) certified court reporters 7 taking testimony involving such CONFIDENTIAL information and their support 8 personnel; and (vi) the Court (including any trier of fact) in connection with the 9 proceedings in this action.

10 B. Outside Experts and Consultants. Subject to the provisions of this Protective 11 Order, all Confidential Material may be disclosed to any outside expert or 12 consultant engaged by a Party for the purpose of this action who has agreed to be 13 bound by the terms of this Protective Order by signing an Acknowledgement form 14 attached as Exhibit A. Executed copies of the Acknowledgment form shall be 15 exchanged between counsel promptly upon request, and the absence of a signed 16 Acknowledgment justifies the Producing Party's refusal to provide documents 17 until a signed Acknowledgment is provided by the Receiving Party.

18 C. Acknowledgment of Protective Order. Before obtaining access to any 19 Confidential Material covered by this Protective Order, any person who is 20 authorized to have access to Confidential Material pursuant to this Protective 21 Order must have agreed in writing to be bound by the terms of this Protective 22 Order by signing an Acknowledgement form attached as Exhibit A, an executed 23 copy of which shall be provided to the opposing party. This provision does not 24 apply to Parties, employees of a Party, or Counsel for a Party (including all 25 employees, support staff, or those of Counsel's law firm or agency), all of whom 26 may access Confidential Information without separately signing Exhibit A.

27 D. Disclosure Pursuant to Consent. Confidential Material may be disclosed to 28 anyone so authorized by prior written consent of the Producing Party, and no

1 Party is restricted in any way by this Protective Order in disclosing its own 2 Confidential Material.

3 The limitations on disclosure contained in this Protective Order shall apply to documents 4 or information that were in the possession of the Receiving Party before commencement of the 5 action entitled, Federal Trade Commission v. AMG Services, Inc. et al., District of Nevada, Case 6 No. 2:12-cv-00536-GMN-VCF. However, the limitations on disclosure contained in this 7 Protective Order shall not apply to documents or information that are or become published or 8 available in a manner not in violation of this Protective Order.

9 IV. COURT PROCEDURES

10 ~~If a document containing CONFIDENTIAL information is filed with the Court, it shall be~~ 11 ~~filed with one of the following notations:~~

See order issued concurrently herewith

~~Filed Under Seal - Contains CONFIDENTIAL Information~~

~~Subject to Protective Order~~

14 ~~Any papers containing Confidential Material shall indicate clearly what portions are~~ 15 ~~designated as CONFIDENTIAL.~~

16 V. HANDLING OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

17 A. Nothing herein shall restrict a person authorized to have access pursuant to 18 paragraph III(A) from making working copies, abstracts, digests, and/or analyses 19 of Confidential Material for use in connection with this action. Such working 20 copies, abstracts, digests, and analyses shall be deemed to have the same level of 21 protection as the original Confidential Material under the terms of this Protective 22 Order. Further, nothing herein shall restrict an authorized recipient from 23 converting or translating such information into machine-readable form for 24 incorporation in a data retrieval system used in connection with this action, 25 provided that access to such information, in whatever form stored or reproduced, 26 shall be limited to authorized recipients.

27 B. If the Producing Party through inadvertence produces any CONFIDENTIAL 28 document or thing without labeling, marking, or otherwise designating it as such

1 in accordance with the provisions of this Protective Order, the Producing Party 2 may give written notice to the Receiving Party that the document or thing 3 produced is deemed CONFIDENTIAL and should be treated as such in 4 accordance with the provisions of this Protective Order. The Receiving Party 5 must treat such document or thing with the noticed level of protection from the 6 date such notice is received. Promptly upon providing such notice to the 7 Receiving Party, the Producing Party shall provide the Receiving Party with 8 another copy of the document or thing that bears the new confidentiality 9 designation under this Protective Order.

10 C. Non-parties may be examined and may testify concerning any document 11 containing CONFIDENTIAL information of a Producing Party that clearly 12 appears on its face or from other documents or testimony to have been prepared 13 by, received by, known by, or communicated to the non-party.

14 D. If no confidentiality designation of deposition testimony is made at the time of the 15 deposition, any transcript containing CONFIDENTIAL information shall be 16 designated as containing such information by no later than thirty (30) calendar 17 days after receipt of the transcript of the deposition. Otherwise, such transcript 18 shall not be deemed Confidential Material.

19 E. This Protective Order shall not prevent any Party from moving the Court for an 20 order that a non-party witness may be examined and may testify concerning any 21 document containing CONFIDENTIAL information. Prior to so moving, the 22 moving Party seeking to examine the non-party witness or have the non-party 23 witness testify may (but is not required to) instead seek the other Party's 24 agreement by requesting, in writing, to examine the non-party witness or have the 25 non-party witness testify and shall identify the documents designated as about 26 which it seeks to examine the non-party witness or about which it seeks to have 27 the non-party witness testify. In any motion, the moving Party shall have the 28

1                   burden of establishing before the Court the need for the non-party witness to be 2                   examined about or testify about the CONFIDENTIAL document or information.

3       VI. PROCEDURE TO CHALLENGE DESIGNATIONS

4                   This Protective Order shall not prevent any Party from moving the Court for an order that 5 information designated as CONFIDENTIAL by Producing Party is not, in fact, 6 CONFIDENTIAL information. Prior to so moving, the Party seeking to reclassify the 7 information shall seek the Producing Party's agreement by objecting, in writing, to the designations by specifying to information at issue and the grounds for questioning the designations. The Producing Party shall have ten (10) court days to respond to such request. In any motion, the Producing Party shall have the burden of establishing before the Court the need for classification as CONFIDENTIAL. In connection with any such motion, the Producing Party's designation shall be given NO WEIGHT.

13       VII. INADVERTENTLY PRODUCED MATERIAL

14                   The inadvertent disclosure or production of any Discovery Material that is subject to an 15 objection on the basis of attorney-client privilege or work-product protection, or that 16 inadvertently lacks a CONFIDENTIAL designation under this Protective Order, will not be 17 deemed to waive a Producing Party's claim to its privileged or protected nature or estop the 18 Producing Party or the privilege holder from designating the Discovery Material as attorney-19 client privileged, subject to the work product doctrine, or designated as CONFIDENTIAL at a 20 later date.

21                   Any Receiving Party who becomes aware of any produced Discovery material that is 22 privileged or subject to work product protections shall immediately notify the Producing Party of 23 that fact in writing.

24                   Disclosure of the Discovery Material prior to an assertion of privilege, work product 25 protection or a CONFIDENTIAL designation shall not be deemed a violation of the provisions 26 of this Order. This Order and clawback provision are guided but not limited by Federal Rule of 27 Evidence 502(d) and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B).

28       ///

No motion shall be filed without first conducting a proper meet-and-confer. See Local Rule 26-7(c).

1 VIII. RIGHT TO FURTHER RELIEF

2 Nothing in this Protective Order shall abridge the right of any Party to seek judicial 3 modification or amendment of this Protective Order.

4 IX. RIGHT TO ASSERT OTHER OBJECTIONS

5 This Protective Order shall not be construed as waiving any right to assert a claim of 6 privilege, relevance, or other grounds for not producing Discovery Material.

7 X. SURVIVAL OF OBLIGATIONS

8 The obligations created by this Protective Order shall survive the termination of this 9 action unless otherwise modified by the Court. The Court shall retain jurisdiction, even after 10 termination of this action, to enforce this Protective Order and to make such amendments and 11 modifications to this Protective Order as may be appropriate.
