Stipulated Protective Order

1 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between Plaintiff Israel Garcia, Jr.
2 (“Plaintiff”) and Defendant Credit One Bank, N.A. (“Credit One”), through their 3
4 respective attorneys of record, as follows:

5 WHEREAS, documents and information have been and may be sought, produced
6 or exhibited by and among the parties to this action relating to trade secrets, confidential
7
8 research, development, technology or other proprietary information belonging to the 9 defendant.

10 THEREFORE, an Order of this Court protecting such confidential information
11 shall be and hereby is made by this Court on the following terms:
12

13 1. This Order shall govern the use, handling and disclosures of all documents, 14 testimony or information produced or given in this action which are designated to be 15 subject to this Order in accordance with the terms hereof.
16

17 2. Any party or non-party producing or filing documents or other materials in 18 this action may designate such materials and the information contained therein subject to 19 this Order by typing or stamping on the front of the document, or on the portion(s) of the 20 document for which confidential treatment is designated, “Confidential.”
21

22 3. A party wishing to file any document designed as “Confidential” must 23 notify the designating party at least seven days prior to filing the designed document.
24 The designating party must then make a good faith determination if the relevant standard
25 for sealing is met. See Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1180
26 (9th Cir. 2006). To the extent the designating party does not believe the relevant standard
27
28

1 for sealing can be met, it shall indicate that the document may be filed publicly no later
2 than four days after receiving notice of the intended filing. To the extent the designating
3 party believes the relevant standard for sealing can be met, it shall provide a declaration
4 supporting that assertion no later than four days after receiving notice of the intended
5 filing. The filing party shall then attach that declaration to its motion to seal the 6 designated material. If the designating party fails to provide such a declaration in support
7 of the motion to seal, the filing party shall file a motion to seal so indicating and the 8 Court may order the document filed in the public record. Counsel shall comply with the 9 requirements of Local Rule 10-5(b) in connection with filing documents under seal. The 10 designating party shall have the burden of proof to establish that the information or 11 document deemed “Confidential” is entitled to such protection.
12
14

15
16 4. All documents, transcripts, or other materials subject to this Order, and all 17 information derived therefrom (including, but not limited to, all testimony given in a 18 deposition, declaration or otherwise, that refers, reflects or otherwise discusses any 19 information designated “Confidential,” shall not be used, directly or indirectly, by any 20 person, including the other defendants, for any business, commercial or competitive 21 purposes or for any purpose whatsoever other than solely for the preparation and trial of 22 this action in accordance with the provisions of this Order.
23

25 5. Except with the prior written consent of the individual or entity designating
26 a document or portions of a document as “Confidential,” or pursuant to prior Order after 27 notice, any document, transcript or pleading given “Confidential” treatment under this 28

1 Order, and any information contained in, or derived from any such materials (including
2 but not limited to, all deposition testimony that refers to, reflects or otherwise discusses
3 any information designated “Confidential” hereunder) may not be disclosed other than in 4 accordance with this Order and may not be disclosed to any person other than: (a) the 5 Court and its officers; (b) parties to this litigation; (c) counsel for the parties, whether 6 retained outside counsel or in-house counsel and employees of counsel assigned to assist 7 such counsel in the preparation of this litigation; (d) fact witnesses subject to a proffer to 8 the Court or a stipulation of the parties that such witnesses need to know such 9 information; (e) present or former employees of the Producing Party in connection with 10 their depositions in this action (provided that no former employees shall be shown 11 documents prepared after the date of his or her departure); and (f) experts specifically
12 retained as consultants or expert witnesses in connection with this litigation.
13
14
15
16

17 6. Documents produced pursuant to this Order shall not be made available to 18 any person designated in Subparagraph 5(f) unless he or she shall have first read this 19 Order, agreed to be bound by its terms, and signed the attached Declaration of 20 Compliance.
21

22 7. All persons receiving any or all documents produced pursuant to this Order
23 shall be advised of their confidential nature. All persons to whom confidential 24 information and/or documents are disclosed are hereby enjoined from disclosing same to 25 any person except as provided herein, and are further enjoined from using same except in 26 the preparation for and trial of the above-captioned action between the named parties
27
28

1 thereto. No person receiving or reviewing such confidential documents, information or 2 transcript shall disseminate or disclose them to any person other than those described
3 above in Paragraph 5 and for the purposes specified, and in no event shall such person
4 make any other use of such document or transcript.
5

6 8. Nothing in this Order shall prevent a party from using at trial any 7 information or materials designated “Confidential.”
8

9 9. This Order has been agreed to by the parties to facilitate discovery and the 10 production of relevant evidence in this action. Neither the entry of this Order, nor the 11 designation of any information, document, or the like as “Confidential,” nor the failure to 12 make such designation, shall constitute evidence with respect to any issue in this action.
13

14 10. Within sixty (60) days after the final termination of this litigation, all 15 documents; transcripts, or other materials afforded confidential treatment pursuant to this 16 Order, including any extracts, summaries or compilations taken therefrom, but excluding 17 any materials which in the good faith judgment of counsel are work product materials,
18 shall be returned to the Producing Party.
19

21 11. In the event that any party to this litigation disagrees at any point in these 22 proceedings with any designation made under this Protective Order, the parties shall first 23 try to resolve such dispute in good faith on an informal basis in accordance with Civil 24 Local Rule 26-7. If the dispute cannot be resolved, the party objecting to the designation
25 may seek appropriate relief from this Court. During the pendency of the challenge to the 26 designation of a document or information, the designated document or information shall 27
28

1 continue to be treated as “Confidential” subject to the provisions of this Protective Order.
2 The designating party shall have the burden of proof to establish that the information on
3 document deemed “Confidential” is entitled to such protection.
4

5 12. Nothing herein shall affect or restrict the rights of any party with respect to 6 its own documents or to the information obtained or developed independently of 7 documents, transcripts and materials afforded confidential treatment pursuant to this 8 Order.
9

10 13. The Court retains the right to allow disclosure of any subject covered by 11 this stipulation or to modify this stipulation at any time in the interest of justice.
