UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

NANETTE RANDOLPH,
Plaintiff(s),
v.
LINDA MCMAHON,
Defendant(s).

Case No.: 2:18-cv-00238-APG-NJK

ORDER
[Docket No. 35]

Pending before the Court is Plaintiff’s motion to extend the deadline to file a joint interim status report. Docket No. 35.¹ The motion indicates that discovery remains on-going and it would be more appropriate to file the joint interim status report after the close of discovery. Id. at 2. The status report at issue is an “interim” one, and is to be filed while discovery is on-going. See, e.g., Local Rule 26-3 (requiring that the “interim” status report be filed “[n]ot later than 60 days before the discovery cut-off” (emphasis added)). The Court fails to discern special circumstances in this case to depart from that established practice.

¹ The deadline at issue has already expired. See Docket No. 32. As such, the motion is actually seeking to revive that deadline and such relief requires an additional showing of excusable neglect. See, e.g., Local Rule 26-4. No explanation has been provided why the instant request was not filed before the deadline expired.

1 As such, the motion to extend is DENIED. A joint interim status report shall be filed by
2 December 28, 2018.

3 IT IS SO ORDERED.

4 Dated: December 20, 2018
