1           On June 19, 2018, Roger Randolph filed, through counsel, an amended petition
2 for writ of habeas corpus.<sup>1</sup> This Court granted Randolph leave to file a second
3 amended petition.<sup>2</sup> Randolph, by counsel, moves this Court for an extension of time
4 to file a second amended petition by one week from April 17, 2019 to and including 5 April 24, 2019. Counsel emailed Senior Deputy Attorney General Heather D. Procter
6 to ask whether she objects to this request for an extension. Ms. Procter responded 7 that she does not object, though this non-objection is not a waiver of any procedural 8 defenses she wishes to raise.

9           Counsel received Randolph's I-file earlier today (April 17th). The I-file is 10 approximately 150 pages. One week should be sufficient time to review it. After that, 11 counsel will be able to complete drafting of the petition.

12           In addition, Counsel's schedule and circumstances beyond her control have 13 precluded her from meeting the current deadline of April 17, 2019. Counsel filed an 14 over-sized reply to answer in the U.S. District Court today. Counsel is preparing for 15 an evidentiary hearing on May 7th in the Eighth Judicial District Court. Counsel is 16 currently drafting time-sensitive (because of a new Supreme Court case) petitions in 17 state court.

18           For these reasons, counsel respectfully asks this Court to grant Randolph's
19 request to extend the time for filing an amended petition by one week until April 24, 20 2019.
