present deadline is September 12, 2018. Hearing on this matter is set for October 15, 2018. This is the parties’ first request for an extension of time to respond to Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss.

Plaintiff’s counsel would like the additional time to thoroughly review and conduct the required research of Defendants’ position and case law in order to appropriately and completely respond to their arguments. Both of Plaintiff’s counsel have been extraordinarily busy including, but not limited to, attending a two-day DIR conference, drafting an opening brief to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, drafting a writ of certiorari to the United States Supreme Court, drafting an opening brief to the Supreme Court of Nevada, drafting complaints for which the Right To Sue (EEOC) deadlines were to expire, responding to discovery requests, drafting initial disclosures, drafting additional motions or replies including a motion to enforce, client meetings for deposition and ENE prep, court appearances, and the intervening Labor Day holiday.
