- b. Investigation Files of the Clark County Office of Diversity. Nev. Rev. Stat.
 613.075; Nevada Local Government Retention Schedule LRDA # 20071323.¹
- 3. Any party may designate and mark documents that the party believes to be within the scope of this Stipulation and Protective Order and that produced in response to discovery requests as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER." The party designating such documents shall be referred to as the Designating Party and any party in receipt of such documents shall be referred to as the Receiving Party. Documents so marked may be used only for purposes of this litigation.
- 4. Except as otherwise ordered by this Court, documents marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" and the contents of documents so marked may be disclosed only to employees or agents of Clark County, Nevada, and the following persons:
 - (a) counsel of record for Plaintiff and Plaintiff;
 - (b) counsel of record for Defendants;
 - (c) the non-technical and clerical staff employed by counsel of record;
- (d) interpreters and copying services employed by counsel of record's employer to the extent reasonably necessary to render professional services in this case;
 - (e) any private court reporter retained by counsel for depositions in this case;
- (f) subject to the terms of paragraph 5, persons retained by counsel to serve as expert witnesses or consultants in this case; and
- (g) personnel of the Court, including court reporters, officials and employees of the Clerk of Court, and staff of the presiding United States District Judge and United States Magistrate Judge, to the extent deemed necessary by the Court.
- 5. If counsel for a Receiving Party determines that it is necessary to disclose any document marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" to any persons other than the individuals included in paragraph 4, that counsel shall set forth the grounds for the disclosure and seek the written consent of counsel for the Designating Party, or if during a deposition, shall seek consent on the record. The Designating Party shall respond to the Receiving Party's request within seven calendar days unless the Receiving Party agrees to a longer period. If counsel for the Designating Party does not consent, counsel for the Receiving Party and counsel for the Designating Party shall within five court days of the Designating Party's response meet and confer in person or telephonically regarding the issue, during which meeting and conference counsel for the Receiving Party shall specify the reasons why disclosure is necessary. If any agreement is not reached, the Designating Party shall move the Court within the ten calendar days of the meeting and conference for a protective order preventing disclosure. The Receiving Party shall not disclose the document unless the Designating Party has failed to file a motion within the time allowed or the Court has denied the motion.

document marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" to an expert or consultants retained to render professional services in this case, that counsel shall notify counsel for the Designating Party in writing at least seven days before the proposed disclosure with the name of the expert or consultant. The Designating Party shall respond to the Receiving Party's notification within seven calendar days unless the Receiving Party agrees to a longer period. If counsel for the Designating Party objects, counsel for the Receiving Party and counsel for the Designating Party shall within five court days of the Designating Party's response meet and confer in person or telephonically regarding the issue. If an agreement is not reached, the Designating Party shall move the court within ten calendar days of the meeting and conference for a protective order preventing disclosure. The Receiving Party shall not disclose the document unless the Designating Party has failed to file a motion within the time allowed or the Court denies the motion.

7. Any party may object to the propriety of the designation of documents as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" by objecting and setting forth in writing the grounds for the objection. The Designating Party shall respond to the Receiving Party's objection within seven calendar days unless the Receiving Party agrees to a longer period. If an agreement is not reached, counsel for the Receiving Party and counsel 2 for the Designating Party shall within five court days of the Designating Party's response 3 meet and confer in person or telephonically, during which meeting and conference counsel 4 for the Receiving Party shall specify the grounds for objection with respect to each document 5 at issue. If the parties cannot agree, then the Designating Party will then have ten calendar days after the conference of counsel to file a motion to preserve the confidentiality 6 7 designation. The burden of proof to demonstrate confidential treatment of any information at 8 all times remain with the Designating Party. The parties shall treat the documents as the 9 subject to this Stipulation and Order unless the Designating Party has failed to file a motion 10 within the time allowed or the Court has denied the motion. 11 Before disclosing any document marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO 12 PROTECTIVE ORDER" to any person identified in subparagraph (c) of paragraph 4, 13 counsel of record for the Receiving Party shall advise that person of the terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order and that he or she is bound by those terms. In addition, before disclosing any document marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or "SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" to any person identified in subparagraphs (d) or (f) of paragraph 4, counsel for the Receiving Party shall ensure that the person (1) has read and agrees to the terms of this Protective Order and (2) has acknowledged his or her agreement by signing a copy of the attached Acknowledgment before any such document is disclosed to him or her:

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I have read the Stipulation and Protective Order Governing Documents Produced by the Parties in this case. I understand its terms and agree to be bound by the terms of the Protective Order. I understand that my duties under the Protective Order will survive the termination of this case and that failure to comply with its terms may result in the District Court imposing sanctions on me. I consent to personal jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the District of Nevada for the purpose of enforcing the Protective Order.
