- 3. The parties and counsel are presently engaged in efforts to reach a resolution that would resolve both the present matter and other litigation.
- 4. In view of the parties' ongoing efforts to resolve this matter and the fact that the present matter is in its early stages, it appears more efficient for the parties to try now to resolve this case without incurring the costs of litigation, including discovery and motion work.
- 5. This stipulation is made in good faith and for the reasons referenced above, and not for purposes of delay or any other improper purpose.
- 6. In view of the foregoing, the parties jointly stipulate and request that the present proceeding be stayed for a period of ninety (90) days to facilitate the parties' continuing efforts to resolve this matter.

DATED this 21st day of August, 2018.
