UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

* * *

NITHYA VINAYAGAM, Plaintiff, v. US DEPARTMENT OF LABOR, ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW BOARD, et al., Defendants.	Case No. 2:18-cv-01206-RFB-DJA ORDER
---	---

Before the Court is Plaintiff's Motion to Vacate. (ECF No. 17.) Defendant seeks to vacate the Judgment in this case based upon not being able to receive the Court's orders due to the suspension of mail to Plaintiff's address in India.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 60)b) permits relief from final judgments, order, or proceedings. Such relief, if based upon a motion filed within one year of the challenged judgment, may be justified by any "reason that justifies relief."

The Court finds that Plaintiff has presented a reasonable excuse for not responding to the Court's orders. However, the Plaintiff has not demonstrated that she can overcome the deficiencies in her early pleadings. She will therefore be given an opportunity to file a motion for reconsideration which attaches her proposed third amended complaint for the Court's consideration.

For the reasons stated,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiff's Motion to Vacate (ECF No. 17) is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Plaintiff must file a motion for reconsideration of this Court's judgment which attaches her third amended complaint and further explains why this Court should vacate judgment in this case. Plaintiff must file her motion by May 29, 2021. Upon the filing of her motion, the Court will consider whether or not to reopen this case.

DATED: March 31, 2021.

RICHARD F. BOULWARE, II
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
