material that solely involves other parties, the disclosure of which is likely to prejudice the right of one or more parties or non-parties hereto, including information concerning proprietary research and development; business and marketing strategy; regulatory compliance and communication; financial results and projections; employee records; company policies and procedures; and similar documentation which is designated as "Confidential" by the Producing Party (or, in the case of medical records by the party securing the records), whether it be a Document, information contained in a Document, information revealed during a deposition, information revealed in an interrogatory answer, etc. In construing the scope of what constitutes "Confidential Information" as defined herein, reference is to be made to applicable case law regarding confidential or protected material.

- B. "Stamped Confidential Document" means any Document which bears the mark "CONFIDENTIAL"— or which shall otherwise have had the mark recorded on it in a way that brings its attention to a reasonable examiner to signify that it contains Confidential Information subject to protection under this Order.
- C. "Document" means all written, recorded, or graphic material, whether produced or created by a party or another person, and whether produced pursuant to subpoena, by agreement, or otherwise. Interrogatory answers, responses to requests for admission, deposition transcripts and exhibits, pleadings, motions, affidavits, and briefs that quote, summarize, or contain Confidential Information may be accorded status as a Stamped Confidential Document, but, to the extent feasible, shall be prepared in such a manner that the Confidential Information is bound separately from that not entitled to protection.
- D. "Producing Party" means the party that produced the Confidential Information.

- (3) Third-party contractors retained for the purpose of organizing, filing, coding, converting, storing, or retrieving data or designing database programs for handling Documents.
- E. Before disclosing Confidential Information or Stamped Confidential Documents to any person pursuant to paragraph D, the party proposing such disclosure shall show a copy of this Order to such person, and he/she shall sign the Undertaking attached as Exhibit 1.
 - Before disclosing Confidential Information or Stamped Confidential Documents pursuant to paragraph D to any person who is a competitor (or an employee of a competitor) of the Producing Party, the party proposing to make such disclosure shall give at least twenty-one (21) days advance notice in writing, which shall identify the person(s) to whom the disclosure will be made and a detailed explanation of why disclosure to such person(s) is necessary, to counsel for the Producing Party. If, within fourteen (14) days, after receiving advanced notice, the Producing Party objects in writing to the proposed disclosure, the disclosure shall not be made until the parties have resolved the matter or the court has ruled on it. The party seeking to disclose any Confidential Information without obtaining an Undertaking as provided for as Exhibit 1 of this Order shall have the obligation to go forward and obtain approval from the court prior to making to make such a disclosure. At any hearing regarding a dispute over the confidential nature of any information designated as Confidential Information, the Producing Party which has identified the information as Confidential Information shall have the burden to prove by a preponderance of evidence that the confidential nature of any such information.
- G. A recipient of Confidential Information and/or Stamped Confidential Documents shall exercise due care to restrict access to those persons described in II(C)(1). Any summary, copy of, or excerpt from a Stamped Confidential Document shall be subject to this Order to the same extent as the Stamped Confidential

Document itself, and must be labeled as Confidential. A recipient shall not duplicate any Stamped Confidential Document or excerpt therefrom except for use as working copies and for filing in court.

III. DECLASSIFICATION OF STAMPED CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENT

A party may challenge, by motion, the propriety of a confidential designation at any time within 90 days of the production of the Confidential Information and/or Stamped Confidential Document. If a Document is declassified either by agreement of the parties or by a court order, the terms of this Order will no longer apply to future handling or production or dissemination of declassified Documents.

IV. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION IN DEPOSITIONS

- A. A deponent, other than a current employee of the Producing Party, shall be shown a copy of this Order and shall be asked to sign the undertaking attached as Exhibit 1 before being shown or examined about Confidential Information and/or Stamped Confidential Documents, except that any deponent may be shown and examined about Stamped Confidential Documents or other Documents without being shown this Order and being asked to sign the undertaking if the Document reflects that the deponent was the author or recipient. Regardless of whether a deponent signs the undertaking, this Order shall apply to any deponent who is shown or examined about Confidential Information and/or Stamped Confidential Documents.
- B. Parties and deponents, may, within 45 days after receiving the deposition transcript from the court reporter, designate pages of the transcript (and exhibits thereto) as confidential by underlining or otherwise designating the portions of the pages that are confidential. The parties and the court reporter shall thereafter mark such pages in all copies of the transcript with the following legend, "CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT TO CONFIDENTIALITY ORDER." Upon expiration of the 45-day period, the entire deposition will be treated as subject to this Order. If the deposition transcript is filed and a timely designation made, the confidential portions and exhibits shall be filed under seal.

V. SUBPOENA FOR STAMPED CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS

If Stamped Confidential Documents or other Documents containing Confidential Information are subpoenaed by any person, court, administrative or legislative body, the party to whom the subpoena is directed shall not, to the extent permitted by applicable law, provide or otherwise disclose such Documents or information until twenty-one (21) days after giving counsel for the Producing Party notice in writing of the subpoena, accompanied by a copy of the subpoena. If the Producing Party objects to the subpoena, the party to whom the subpoena is directed agrees not to produce Documents in response to it until the resolution of the objection by the appropriate court.

VI. FILING AND USE OF STAMPED CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS FOR PRETRIAL PURPOSES

- A. Stamped Confidential Documents shall be filed under seal and shall remain sealed in the Clerk's office so long as they retain their status as Stamped Confidential Documents.
- B. To the extent that any party wishes to use Stamped Confidential Documents during a hearing in this action, such party agrees to notify the Producing Party and the court at least fourteen (14) days in advance of the hearing so that the hearing can be conducted in camera, and agrees to submit any Stamped Confidential Documents to the court for its in camera inspection. In the event that, during any hearing in which a party submits Stamped Confidential Documents, the court cannot ensure the continued confidentiality of such information, or any party or person objects to the procedures set forth in this paragraph, the parties agree to the entry of a temporary sealing order until a motion to seal court records permanently is filed and ruled upon. Any transcript of an in camera hearing shall be treated as confidential pursuant to this Order

VII. USE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AT TRIAL

Use of Confidential Information and/or Stamped Confidential Documents at trial shall be determined by subsequent agreement of the parties or an order of court.

VIII. PROPER USE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Persons obtaining access to Confidential Information and/or Stamped Confidential Documents pursuant to this Order shall use the information for preparation and trial of this litigation only – including appeals and retrials – and shall not use such information for any other purpose, including business, governmental, commercial, or administrative or judicial proceedings. Should any Person wish to attach a Stamped Confidential Document to a Pleading or any like document to be filed of record or served in this case, it must first be brought to the attention of the court that the documents must be filed under seal.

IX. NON-TERMINATION

The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this action. Within 120 days after final conclusion of all aspects of this litigation, all Documents, including Stamped Confidential Documents, and all copies of same (other than exhibits of record), shall be returned to the party or person which produced such documents or, at the option of the Producing Party, destroyed. All counsel of record shall make certification of compliance herewith and shall deliver the same to counsel for the Producing party not more than 150 days after final termination of this litigation.

X. MODIFICATION PERMITTED

Nothing in this Order shall prevent any party or other person from objecting to discovery that it believes to be otherwise improper or from seeking modification of this Order, including further provisions for categories of Documents requiring heightened protection.

XI. INADVERTENT DISCLOSURE

- A. Any inadvertent disclosure of confidential, proprietary, or privileged material will not be construed as a waiver, in whole or in part, of (1) the Producing Party's claims of confidentiality or privilege either as to the specific information inadvertently or unintentionally disclosed or more generally as to the subject matter of the information disclosed, or (2) the party's right to designate the material as confidential pursuant to this Order. A written representation by counsel for the Producing Party that the disclosure was inadvertent shall be deemed prima facie evidence of that fact.
- B. The Producing Party shall promptly notify the other party of an inadvertent disclosure following discovery of the inadvertent production, and that other party (i) shall in the case of a privileged Document, return the inadvertently disclosed Document forthwith, as well as any and all copies; or (ii) in the case of a confidential, proprietary Document, shall mark it and all copies, "CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT TO CONFIDENTIALITY ORDER." In the event that the other party cannot comply with these requirements because, for example, the inadvertently produced Document has been given to a third party the other party shall provide the Producing Party with the name, address, and telephone number of such person(s) as well as the date of and reason for the transmission of the Document.
- C. Notice of inadvertent disclosure shall apply to all copies of the Document inadvertently disclosed including Documents inadvertently produced in cases other than Case No: 2:19-cv-00656-RFB-EJY (such that inadvertent disclosure of a confidential or privileged Document in another jurisdiction shall not constitute a waiver of privilege under this Order.)
