10	Plaintiff, v.	PROPOSED JOINT PRETRIAL ORDER
11
12	WAL-MART STORES, INC.;
13	Defendants.
14	The Parties, by and through their undersigned	counsel, hereby submit this Joint Pretrial Order
15	pursuant to LR 16-3. Following pretrial proceedings	•
16		THE ACTION
17	This is an action for personal injuries arising	from an alleged slip and fall which occurred on
18	July 29, 2018, at Walmart in Las Vegas, Nevada.	Plaintiff Bonnie Baker contends that Wal-Mart
19	breached its duty of care by failing to keep its premis	ses in a reasonably safe condition for use. Wal-
20	Mart disputes this and instead contends that it dischar	ged its duty of care by maintaining the premises
21	in a reasonably safe condition for use.
22	II. STATEMENT O	F JURISDICTION
23	The court has jurisdiction over this civil action	on pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1441(b) on the
24	basis that this is a civil action between citizens of diff	erent states and the amount in controversy being
25	potentially in excess of $75,000, exclusive of interest	es and costs.

1	III. ADMITTED FACTS
2	The following facts are admitted by the party and require no proof:
3	1. Bonnie Baker was at a Walmart store on July 29, 2018.
4	2. Video surveillance footage on July 29, 2018, shows a customer spill a container of
5	blueberries on the floor at 2:35:46 p.m.
6	3. Walmart Associate, Jason Harvey, responded to the scene with a broom and dustpan
7	at 2:36:07 p.m.
8	4. At 2:58:12 p.m., Plaintiff falls.
9	IV. UNCONTESTED FACTS
10	The following facts, though not admitted, will not be contested at trial by evidence to the
11	contrary: None.
12	V. ISSUES TO BE TRIED
13	The following are issues of fact to be tried and determined upon trial:
14	1. All factual issues deemed relevant and admissible at trial.
15	VI. ISSUES OF LAW
16	The following are issues of law to be tried and determined upon trial:
17	1. Whether Walmart acted negligently.
18	2. Whether Walmart discharged its duty of care to maintain the premises in a reasonably
19	safe condition for use.
20	3. Whether Walmart breached its duty of care to keep its premises in a reasonably safe
21	condition for use.
22	4. Whether Walmart had notice, actual or constructive, of the foreign substance allegedly
23	involved in the incident.
24	5. If a breach of duty of care is found, whether that breach legally caused an injury to
25	Plaintiff, the extent of any such injury, and the extent of any and all damages.
26	6. Whether Plaintiff was comparatively negligent and/or contributed to her incident.

Defendant objects to the production of all listed medical records and billing on the basis of foundation, authenticity, relevance, and hearsay as Defendant maintains there are causation issues involved in the instant litigation. These medical records include hearsay statements meant to prove the truth of the matter asserted by the Plaintiff. Further, Defendant maintains no foundation has been laid regarding the injuries allegedly sustained as outlined in said medical records and subsequent injuries would not be relevant to the issues of the case at bar. As to authenticity, Plaintiff has not provided authenticated documentation in relation to Plaintiff's medical records and this will require testimony from the medical record creators. Defendant further objects to the production of its proprietary information and maintains the listed policies and procedures and floor plans are irrelevant and require authentication as well as any prior incidents which are irrelevant to the subject incident and reversible error should they be admitted.

Defendant further reserves the right to object to any exhibit being offered by Plaintiff which has not been previously produced during the normal course of discovery proceedings. Defendants also reserves any and all evidentiary objections for trial.

2. Defendant's Exhibits:

1.	Store Incident Report dated July 29, 2018 - Bates No. WM2019-022206-0001 to WM2019-022206-0002

9.	Photographs Pertaining to the Subject Incident - Bates No. WM2019-022206-0011 through Bates No. WM2019-022206-0016

10.	Video Surveillance Footage of Incident Scene captured July 29, 2018 - Bates No. WM2019-022206-0017
11.	Curriculum Vitae, Rate Sheet, and Trial Testimony List of Roger A. Fontes, M.D Bates No. WM2019-022206-1941 through WM2019-022206-1946
12.	Initial Expert Report of Roger A. Fontes, M.D. dated June 22, 2020 - Bates No. WM2019-022206-1947 through WM2019-022206-1966
13.	Addendum Report of Roger A. Fontes, M.D. dated August 16, 2020 - Bates No. WM2019-022206-1994 through WM2019-022206-2012

Plaintiff objects to the production of all listed statements on the basis of foundation, authenticity, relevance, and hearsay. These medical records include hearsay statements meant to prove the truth of the matter asserted by the Plaintiff. As to authenticity, Defendant has not provided authenticated documentation in relation to the statements and this will require testimony from the creator of the statements.

Plaintiff further reserves the right to object to any exhibit being offered by Defendant which has not been previously produced during the normal course of discovery proceedings. Plaintiff also reserves any and all evidentiary objections for trial

The parties reserve the right to use discovery responses, Rule 26(a) Disclosures and Supplements, and any document/items not identified herein for impeachment purposes.

The parties object to the proposed exhibits as follows: The parties reserve the right to utilize any exhibits from the parties' FRCP 26(a)(1) and/or FRCP 26(a)(3) disclosures and supplements thereto; from the parties' responses to written discovery requests and any supplements thereto; and from the parties' FRCP 26(a)(1) and/or FRCP 26(a)(3) disclosures and supplements thereto; and the parties' reserve the right to utilize any and all documents needed for rebuttal or purposes of impeachment not listed herein, including all documentation in accordance with admissible evidence.

C. Electronic evidence: The parties intend to present the video of the incident in electronic format to jurors for purposes of jury deliberations.

D. Depositions:

1. The parties do not anticipate offering any depositions at trial unless the witnesses become unavailable at the time of trial. Both Plaintiff and Defendant reserve the right to utilize any depositions offered by either party. In the event a party is notified that a witness is unavailable, the Parties agree to supplement this pretrial order and designate the portions of the deposition to be offered within 30-days of being notified that a party is unavailable for trial.

1 Ε. Objections to Depositions: The parties reserve the right to object to deposition testimony when such sections are 2 identified. 3 VIII. WITNESSES 4 The following witnesses may be called by the parties at trial: 5 6 1.
