Case No. 2:20-cv-00674-APG-EJY

ORDER

17 Before the Court is Plaintiff's Motion for Extension of Discovery (First Request). ECF No.
18 40. The Court has considered Plaintiff's Motion, Defendants' Opposition and Response to Plaintiff's 19 Motion (ECF No. 44), and Plaintiff's Reply (ECF No. 46).

I. Background

20 The essence of the instant dispute presented by Plaintiff's Motion and Defendants' 21 Opposition is whether the Court should grant a six month or nine month extension of the period in 22 which the parties may conduct discovery. Plaintiff argues that COVID-19 (which is surging once 23 again) impedes its ability to conduct in-person depositions of key witnesses who live on the east
24 coast. Plaintiff states that depositions taken through virtual platforms are inappropriate in this case 25 and will hamper Plaintiff's ability to present exhibits. Plaintiff states that in-person depositions are 26 required in this case because the Zoom platform is inadequate. Plaintiff states it has met the good 27 cause requirement for the extension it seeks.

28 Defendants argue Plaintiff has not acted reasonably because Plaintiff is demanding
29 Defendants agree that in-person depositions are necessary. Defendants state Plaintiff will not agree
30 to any discovery extension proposed by Defendants in the absence of such an agreement. Defendants

1 contend in-person depositions are not absolutely necessary, and that remote depositions by Zoom
2 are common practice during the current pandemic. Defendants argue Plaintiff has not stated 3 sufficient facts to overcome the presumption that remote depositions are likely to be appropriate for 4 the foreseeable future. Defendants do not oppose the issuance of a scheduling order, but seek to 5 limit the discovery period to six months.

6 II. Discussion

7 The Court's review of the record in this case shows that no discovery plan and scheduling
8 order was issued. To the extent this is the Court's responsibility, and delay of consideration of the 9 instant motion delayed the submission of a discovery plan and scheduling order by the parties, the 10 Court issues the plan and order below.

11 The Court further finds that, while it is sympathetic to Plaintiff's desire to take depositions 12 in-person, the current pandemic cannot place litigation on hold indefinitely. Plaintiff may have to 13 proceed with depositions through Zoom or another video platform if the pandemic does not recede
14 sufficiently to allow air travel and in-person deposition. Swenson v. GEICO Casualty Co., Case No.
15 2:19-cv-01639-JCM-NJK, 2020 WL 4815035, *3 (D. Nev. Aug. 19, 2020) (internal citations 16 omitted).

17 III. Order

18 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiff's Motion for Extension of Discovery
19 (First Request), ECF No. 40, is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part.

20 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the following discovery plan and scheduling order shall 21 apply in this case:
