UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Nicholas Gulli,)	Case No. 2:20-cv-01231-ART-NJK Plaintiff,)
v.)	ORDER GRANTING
United States of America,)	Stipulation to Extend Deadline to File
Defendant.)	Status Report
)	(First Request)

The parties, by and through their respective counsel of record, stipulate and request that the Court extend the filing of a new status report by thirty (30) days, until May 31, 2024. This is the first request to extend this deadline. Additional time is sought based on the following:

1. On July 1, 2020, Plaintiff filed his Complaint (ECF No. 1).
2. On November 12, 2020, Plaintiff filed his First Amended Complaint (ECF No. 12).
3. On November 19, 2020, the United States filed its Answer (ECF No. 13).
4. On October 18, 2021, the United States moved to dismiss under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(1) arguing that the Court lacked subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff’s Federal Tort Claims Act (“FTCA”) lawsuit (ECF No. 24). The United States also moved to stay further discovery (ECF No. 25).
5. The Court heard arguments on the United States’ motion to dismiss on September 30, 2022. See ECF Nos. 33–35.

1 6. After hearing arguments, the Court denied the United States’ motion without
2 prejudice, but directed Plaintiff to file his claim under the Federal Employees’
3 Compensation Act (“FECA”). The Court further ordered Plaintiff to file a status report
4 within 30 days of receiving disposition of his FECA claim. The Court also provided that if
5 the FECA claim was not resolved within six months, the parties were to provide a status
6 update. The Court continued the stay of discovery until further notice (ECF No. 35).

7 7. On March 30, 2023, the parties provided a joint status report outlining where
8 things stood with Plaintiff’s FECA claim (ECF No. 36). At that time, the FECA claim 9 remained pending with the United States Department of Labor (“DOL”).

10 8. The parties provided a second joint status report on July 3, 2023 (ECF No.
11 37). At that time, the FECA claim remained pending with DOL.

12 9. On April 1, 2024, the Court ordered the parties to file a new status report by 13 May 1, 2024 (ECF No. 38).

14 10. After receipt of the April 1, 2024 Order, counsel for the United States sent an 15 email to Plaintiff’s counsel of record to discuss providing a joint status report in accordance 16 with the Court’s order.

17 11. The email bounced back as the attorney who represented Plaintiff earlier in 18 the litigation is no longer with the GGRM law firm.

19 12. Counsel for the United States called the firm to get in touch with an attorney
20 at GGRM who was handling this case. Counsel for the United States was put in touch with 21 Mr. King who has taken over the file.

22 13. Mr. King and GGRM was unaware of the Court’s April 1, 2024 Order prior
23 to counsel for the United States’ communications.

24 14. Due to circumstances beyond his control, including taking on the workload of 25 several attorneys who have left the GGRM law firm, Mr. King has not yet had sufficient
26 time to review the file for this case.

27 ///

28 ///

1 Accordingly, the parties request a 30-day extension, until May 31, 2024, to allow
2 Plaintiff's counsel to review the file, get up to speed with the case, and work with counsel
3 for the United States to file a joint status report that will assist the Court.
