1 Due to the upcoming holiday season and an increase in workload for experts, Defendant's 2 experts requested additional time to complete rebuttal reports. Additionally, Defense counsel
3 merged firms during the end of July and the beginning of August of this year. At this time,
4 Defense counsel lost access to their previous email accounts. Inadvertently, and by innocent
5 mistake, Plaintiff's legal assistant, served the prior initial expert disclosures to Defense counsel's 6 previous email accounts. Said legal assistant has since provided the prior disclosures to Defense
7 counsel's current email accounts. This mistake caused confusion on the part of Defense counsel, 8 also necessitating additional time to organize experts. All parties agree upon and request the
