

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

LINDA LEE SIPPLE,
Plaintiff,

Case No. 2:21-cv-00904-GMN-NJK

v.

ORDER

ZIONS BANCORPORATION, N.A., Defendant.

[Docket No. 8]

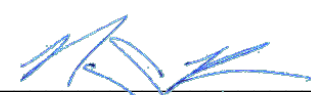

Pending before the Court is a stipulation for extension of time for Defendant to respond to Plaintiff’s complaint. Docket No. 8. The parties ask the Court to permit Defendant to file a response to Plaintiff’s complaint twenty-one days after the Court issues a ruling on a motion to remand that Plaintiff may or may not file. Id. at 2. The parties submit that granting the instant request will conserve party and judicial resources. Id.

Whether Plaintiff will file a motion to remand is uncertain, as the parties merely submit that Plaintiff “may seek to remand this matter.” Id. Further, the parties fail to explain how granting the instant stipulation, which would effectively stay discovery proceedings whether or not Plaintiff files a motion to remand, would conserve party resources. “[E]ven if the motion to remand is granted, ‘that will not render any discovery conducted moot or otherwise result in a waste of the parties’ resources.’” Anoruo v. Valley Health Sys., 2018 WL 1785866, at *3 (D. Nev. Apr. 13, 2018) (quoting Cooks-Putnam v. Trump Las Vegas Corp., 2015 U.S. Dist. Lexis 115606, at *3 (D. Nev. Aug. 31, 2015)); see also Turner Broad. Sys., Inc. v. Tracinda Corp., 175 F.R.D. 554, 556 (D. Nev. 1997) (stating discovery should proceed absent a “strong showing” to the contrary).

Accordingly, the parties’ stipulation, Docket No. 8, is hereby DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
