GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

1
2 9. JACKPOT owns a restaurant/bar/gaming establishment located at 2381 E. Windmill
3 Lane, Las Vegas, NV 89123, doing business as Jackpot Joanie’s Gaming & Spirits 24Hrs (“Jackpot
4 Casino”).

5 10. Upon information and belief, beginning on or about June 3, 2020, MR. JENNINGS
6 began to regularly frequent Jackpot Casino where he established a routine of playing video poker
7 while enjoying a Coca-Cola.

8 11. Upon information and belief, during the period between June 3, 2020 and June 13,
9 2020, MR. JENNINGS gambled at Jackpot almost daily and during that time his identification
10 information (“ID”) was requested and confirmed as valid by various members of the Jackpot Casino
11 staff.

12 12. Upon information and belief, June 3, 2020 and June 13, 2020, when MR. JENNINGS
13 routinely frequented Jackpot Casino he was the only African-American that he observed inside the 14 premises.

15 13. On or about June 13, 2020 MR. JENNINGS returned to Jackpot Casino to play video
16 poker, and upon arriving he was greeted by employees of Jackpot Casino that he had become 17 familiar with and played video poker for approximately one (1) hour before leaving the casino.

18 14. Later in the day on June 13, 2020, MR. JENNINGS returned to Jackpot Casino and 19 began looking for an empty video poker machine to play.

20 15. MR. JENNINGS observed a Caucasian man get up and leave a video poker machine.
21 Believing that this man was no longer using the machine and seeing no apparent indication that this
22 man intended to return to this machine, MR. JENNINGS sat down at this machine and began 23 playing.

24 16. After a short time, the same Caucasian man returned to the video poker machine and 25 explained that he had not finished with that particular machine. MR. JENNINGS apologized for any 26 misunderstanding and relinquished said machine back to this man and moved onto a different
27 machine.

28 . . .

1 17. Upon information and belief, approximately ten (10) minutes later, as MR.
2 JENNINGS was playing video poker on a new machine, a JACKPOT employee who had interacted
3 with MR. JENNINGS on numerous previous occasions while he was gambling, approached him
4 and asked to see his ID.

5 18. Upon information and belief, despite his ID having been checked by JACKPOT
6 employees on multiple other previous occasions and confirmed as being valid, MR. JENNINGS
7 was informed that JACKPOT would no longer accept his ID and that he needed to leave the bar area
8 where he was playing video poker.

9 19. Confused as to why his ID was now being refused, despite its validity having been 10 confirmed on other occasions by JACKPOT employees, who allowed him to continue to gamble his 11 money in the casino, he contacted MS. DOLAS-AMADOR to notify her of the situation.

12 20. MS. DOLAS-AMADOR then joined MR. JENNINGS at Jackpot Casino and the 13 Plaintiffs, together, reentered Jackpot Casino in order to clarify the situation with JACKPOT's staff.

14 21. Upon information and belief MR. JENNINGS and MS. DOLAS-AMADOR
15 discussed MR. JENNINGS' ID with two (2) JACKPOT employees, including a manager, who 16 continued to insist that Plaintiffs were not allowed to gamble on the premises due to MR.
17 JENNINGS ID, while declining to indicate what specific law or Nevada Gaming Control Board
18 regulation authorized JACKPOT to refuse service to the Plaintiffs or disregard MR. JENNINGS'
19 ID.

20 22. Upon information and belief, neither of the JACKPOT employees offered any 21 justification for why MR. JENNINGS was previously allowed to use the same ID to gamble without 22 incident on several occasions in the days leading up to this incident.

23 23. During this conversation the JACKPOT employees began to become confrontational
24 and irate towards the Plaintiffs and threatened to call the police.

25 24. Not wanting to cause a disturbance, Plaintiffs exited Jackpot Casino.

26 25. Upon information and belief, after exiting Jackpot Casino Plaintiffs called the 27 Nevada Gaming Control Board and inquired whether JACKPOT employees could refuse to 28 recognize MR. JENNINGS' ID.

1 26. Upon information and belief, the Plaintiffs were told by the Gaming and Control
2 Board that JACKPOT employees could not refuse to recognize a valid ID unless there were signs
3 on the premises indicating that specific form of ID would not be accepted.

4 27. Upon information and belief, after concluding this call with the Nevada Gaming and
5 Control Board, Plaintiffs once again entered the Jackpot Casino where they asked another employee
6 whether the casino posted signs indicating that MR. JENNINGS' ID was invalid.

7 28. Upon information and belief, this employee indicated that no signage indicating that
8 Jackpot Casino would refuse to recognize MR. JENNINGS type of ID existed, and he recommended
9 that the Plaintiffs file a complaint with the Nevada Gaming Control Board.

10 29. The Plaintiffs once again exited Jackpot Casino and called the Gaming Control Board
11 who indicated that they would immediately send two (2) Gaming Control Investigators to the 12 Jackpot Casino to investigate the incident.

13 30. Upon information and belief, two (2) Gaming Control Investigators arrived at 14 Jackpot Casino, discussed the situation with JACKPOT's employees and reviewed the security
15 footage of the Plaintiffs' interactions with the JACKPOT employees who had repeatedly asked them
16 to leave the premises.

17 31. Upon information and belief, the Gaming Control Investigators informed Plaintiffs 18 that their conduct had been correct and that they had done nothing wrong. Furthermore, the 19 Investigators recommended that Plaintiffs retain counsel to further investigate the matter.

20 32. Upon information and belief, Plaintiffs believe that the JACKPOT employees'
21 motivations for removing them from the property were based on MR. JENNINGS race and ethnicity
22 and MS. DOLAS-AMADOR's association with MR. JENNINGS.

23 33. As a result of JACKPOT's conduct the Plaintiffs have suffered significant personal 24 injuries including, but not limited to, severe mental pain and anguish, the full extent and nature of 25 which are still not fully known.

26 34. Due to JACKPOT acting in a manner consistent with intentional malice, outside all
27 bounds tolerated by a reasonable society, the Plaintiffs are entitled to an award of punitive damages
28 in addition to their actual damages.

1 35. As a result of JACKPOT’s conduct, the Plaintiffs have been forced to retain the law
2 offices of ZAMAN & TRIPPIEDI, PLLC, to prosecute this action, and are therefore, entitled to 3 recover attorneys’ fees, case costs and expenses, as well as prejudgment interest.

4 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

5 Violation of N.R.S. 651.070

6 (Equal Enjoyment of Places of Public Accommodation)

7 36. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference each of the allegations set forth in the preceding
8 paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

12 national origin, disability, sexual orientation, sex, gender identity or expression, as defined in N.R.S.
13 651.070.

14 38. JACKPOT breached this duty when JACKPOT’s employees subjected MR.
15 JENNINGS to discrimination by attempting to remove him from the casino on the basis of his race
16 and ethnicity and further breached this duty when JACKPOT’s employees subjected MS. DOLAS-
17 AMADOR to the same discrimination based on her association with MR. JENNINGS.

18 39. The Plaintiffs belong to the class of persons NRS 651.070 were designed to protect.

19 40. Pursuant to NRS 651.090 the Plaintiffs are entitled to relief in the form of an
20 injunction against JACKPOT to prevent a repeat of this discriminatory behavior, actual damages,
21 and an award of attorneys’ fees and costs.

22 41. As a direct of JACKPOT’s violation of N.R.S. 651.070, Plaintiffs have suffered 23 damages including but not limited to mental anguish, emotional distress, inconvenience, and loss of 24 enjoyment of life in a sum to be determined at the time of trial.

25 42. As a result of JACKPOT’s conduct, the Plaintiffs have been forced to retain counsel

27 ...

28 ...

1 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

2 INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

3 43. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference each of the allegations set forth in the preceding
4 paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

5 44. JACKPOT's employee's conduct in seeking to remove the Plaintiffs from the 6 premises of Jackpot Casino solely based on MR. JENNINGS' race and ethnicity was intentional,
7 extreme and outrageous, and designed to purposefully cause the Plaintiffs severe emotional distress.

8 45. As a direct and proximate result of the conduct of JACKPOT's employees, the 9 Plaintiffs have suffered extreme emotional distress including mental pain and anguish.

10 46. As a result of JACKPOT's actions, the Plaintiffs have suffered damages including 11 but necessarily limited to severe mental pain and anguish, the full extent and nature of which are 12 still not fully known.

13 47. JACKPOT's actions in this matter were intentional and undertaken with such malice
14 as to support the Plaintiffs' request for punitive damages in this matter.

15 48. As a result of JACKPOT's conduct, the Plaintiffs have been forced to retain counsel
16 to pursue their interests in this matter, and they are entitled to reasonable costs and attorneys' fees.

17 THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

18 NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, AND SUPERVISION

19 49. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference each of the allegations set forth in the preceding
20 paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

21 50. JACKPOT was negligent in its hiring, training, supervision, and/or retention of DOE
22 employees, at all times relevant herein.

23 51. JACKPOT knew or reasonably should have known that DOE employees were 24 engaging in intentional wrongful conduct when they sought to evict the Plaintiffs from Jackpot
25 Casino with no legal basis and on account of MR. JENNINGS' race and ethnicity.

26 52. JACKPOT should not have allowed DOE employees to be placed in such positions
27 of authority that empowered them to racially discriminate against the Plaintiffs.

28 . . .

1 53. At all relevant times, JACKPOT knew or should have known that the discriminatory
2 conduct of its employees was wrong and should not have been allowed to continue.

3 54. At all relevant times JACKPOT knew or reasonably should have known that the
4 discriminatory conduct of DOE employees would and did cause the Plaintiffs to suffer injuries
5 including but not necessarily limited to severe mental anguish and distress.

6 55. At all relevant times JACKPOT knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care, should 7 have known and foreseen that its failure to adequately supervise, control, regulate, train, or 8 discipline, the intentional bad conduct of its employees, would result in the Plaintiffs being subjected 9 to injuries.

10 56. Upon information and belief, at all times JACKPOT had the power, ability, authority,
11 and duty to intervene, supervise, train, prohibit, control, discipline, or penalize the discriminatory
12 conduct of DOE employees.

13 57. JACKPOT willfully, recklessly, and/or negligently retained DOE employees despite 14 their being unfit for such employment.
