On December 21, 2022, I granted petitioner Interbill, Inc.’s motion to confirm its arbitration award against respondent Atlantic-Pacific Processing Systems NV Corp., formerly known as Atlantic-Pacific Proceedings Systems, LLC.¹ Judgment was entered “against Atlantic-Pacific Processing Systems, LLC.”² Interbill now moves to amend the judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(a) to reflect both “Atlantic-Pacific Processing Systems NV Corp” and “Atlantic-Pacific Processing Systems LLC,” noting that the respondent “has referred to itself as the legal entity formerly known as Atlantic-Pacific Processing Systems, LLC.”³ The deadline for Atlantic-Pacific Processing to oppose this motion has passed, and no response was filed. Respondent’s failure to respond to the motion constitutes a consent to granting it under Local Rule 7-2(d), and I find good cause to correct this clerical mistake in the judgment.
