CASE NO.: 2:23-cv-00864-ART-BNW

STIPULATED
PROTECTIVE ORDER

21 Pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, IT IS HEREBY 22 ORDERED:

23 1. All documents, materials, items, and/or information which are designated as 24 confidential under the terms of this Protective Order, and contain or comprise confidential and 25 sensitive proprietary information produced either by a party or by a non-party shall be governed 26 by this Protective Order.

27 2. Any information produced by any party or non-party as part of discovery in this 28

1 action may be designated by any party or the producing non-party as (1) "Confidential" or (2)
2 "Confidential-Attorneys' Eyes Only." As a general guideline, materials designated "Confidential" 3 shall be those confidential and sensitive things that may be disclosed to the parties for the purpose 4 of the litigation and no other purpose, but which must be protected against disclosure to third 5 parties. As a general guideline, materials designated "Confidential-Attorney's Eyes Only" shall be 6 those confidential and sensitive things of a financial, commercial, proprietary or technical nature 7 which might be of value to others, and which must be protected from disclosure to such party 8 and/or third parties. Names and identities of children, along with contact information, may be 9 designated Confidential to protect the privacy interests of minors. Absent a specific order by this 10 Court, or written permission from the designating party, information once designated as 11 "Confidential" or "Confidential-Attorney's Eyes Only" shall be used by parties solely in 12 connection with this litigation, and not for any other purpose, including, but not limited to, 13 business, competitive, or governmental purpose or function, and such information shall not be 14 disclosed to anyone except as provided herein.

15 3. Any party or non-party wishing to come within the provisions of this Protective 16 Order shall designate, in writing, the documents, information, or portions thereof which he, she or 17 it considers confidential at the time such documents are produced or such information is 18 disclosed, or as soon thereafter as the person or entity seeking protection becomes aware of the 19 nature of the information or materials disclosed and sought to be protected hereunder. In the 20 instance of documents, the items produced must be marked "Confidential" or "Confidential-21 Attorneys' Eyes Only" by the producing party or non-party. In the instance of depositions, 22 counsel may, in the record of the deposition, designate the transcript or portion thereof as 23 "Confidential" or "Confidential-Attorneys' Eyes Only," and only the parties identified in 24 paragraphs 4 and 5 may then be present in the depositions. The witness under deposition or his 25 counsel may invoke the provisions of this Protective Order in a timely manner, giving adequate 26 warning to counsel for the party or non-party that testimony about to be given is deemed 27 "Confidential" or "Confidential-Attorneys' Eyes Only." The designations should be made on the 28

1 record whenever possible, but a party may designate portions of a deposition either 2 "Confidential" or "Confidential-Attorney's Eyes Only" provided written notice of such 3 designation is given to each party no later than (10) ten days following receipt of the deposition 4 transcript by the designating party.

5 4. Documents, deposition testimony, or answers to interrogatories stamped 6 "Confidential," or copies or extracts therefrom, and compilations and summaries thereof, and the 7 information therein, may be given, shown, made available to, or communicated in any way only 8 to the Court (including, but not limited to, the presiding judge, clerks, and court staff), to the 9 parties, the parties' attorneys (and their staff who are working on the matter), and to anyone 10 employed by the parties as consultants in this case who have executed Attachment A hereto. No 11 use of such documents may be made other than in connection with this litigation.

12 5. Documents, deposition testimony, or answers to interrogatories stamped 13 "Confidential-Attorneys' Eyes Only" or copies or extracts therefrom, and summaries and 14 compilations thereof, and the information therein, may be given, shown, made available to, or 15 communicated in any way only to (a) the Court (including, but not limited to, the presiding judge, 16 clerks, and court staff) as provided in Paragraphs 9 and 13; (b) the counsel designated on the 17 pleadings (and other attorneys who may be working on the case) from the law firms of Wilson, 18 Elser, Moskowitz, Edelman & Dicker LLP and their full time staff to whom it is necessary that 19 the materials be shown for the purposes of this litigation who are have also consented to be 20 subject to this Protective Order ; and Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, LLP and their full time 21 staff to whom it is necessary that the materials be shown for the purposes of this litigation who 22 are have also consented to be subject to this Protective Order; (c) Mr. John Springgate of 23 Silverman Kattelman Springgate, Chtd. and its full time staff to whom it is necessary that the 24 materials be shown for the purposes of this litigation who are have also consented to be subject to 25 this Protective Order; and (d) consultants as defined in Paragraph 6 hereof and pursuant to the 26 provisions on Paragraph 7 hereof and their full time staff to whom it is necessary that the 27 materials be shown for the purposes of this litigation who have also consented to be subject to this 28

1 Protective Order. No use of such documents may be made other than in connection with this 2 litigation.

3 6. For purposes of Paragraph 5(c) hereof, a consultant shall be defined as a person 4 who is not an employee of a party nor anticipated to become an employee in the near future, and 5 who is retained or employed as a bona fide consultant or expert for purposes of this litigation, 6 whether full or part-time, by or at the direction of counsel for a party.

7 7. The procedure for having a consultant approved for access to information 8 designated by the adverse party as "Confidential-Attorneys' Eyes Only" shall be as follows:

9 (a) The party seeking to have a consultant, as defined in Paragraph 6 hereof, 10 approved shall provide the producing party with:

- 11 i) the name of the designated person;
- 12 ii) the present employer and title of said designated person;
- 13 iii) a resume or curriculum vitae of said designated person;
- 14 iv) a written acknowledgment, in the form of Attachment A hereto, 15 signed by the designated person for whom approval is sought, that the person has 16 read this Protective Order and agrees to be bound by its terms.

17 (b) Within five (5) calendar days after emailing the information (if to counsel 18 for Plaintiff AMATEUR ATHLETIC UNION OF THE UNITED STATES, INC. to all of 19 the following: Michael Lowry at Michael.Lowry@wilsonelser.com; if to counsel for 20 MATTHEW WILLIAMS; JAM ON IT BASKETBALL ACADEMY, INC., JAM ON IT, 21 LLC, JAM ON IT SPORTSPLEX, LLC, to all of the following: azorio@bhfs.com, 22 mfrancis@bhfs.com, and jtillison@bhfs.com; if to counsel for ENNIS WESLEY, 23 TATIANA WESLEY, and SPORTSPLEX LAS VEGAS, LLC, to all of the following:
24 mmee@defenselawyervegas.com; if to counsel for MICHAEL WILLIAMS and 25 BRENNAN SULLIVAN, to all of the following: judgestefany@benslaw.com; the 26 information and written acknowledgment described in subparagraph (a), along with a 27 notice quoting this Section 7 in the body of the email, the producing party may object to 28

1 the person proposed for approval if the producing party has genuine reason to believe that 2 there is a reasonable possibility that the designated person may use information designated 3 "Confidential-Attorneys' Eyes Only" for purposes other than the preparation or trial of this 4 case or that the person proposed is in a competitive position or works for a competitor of 5 the producing party such that they cannot avoid possible use of the protected information.
6 Objections must be based upon a legitimate good faith belief and shall not be made for 7 purposes of delaying approval of said designated person. If an objection is found not to be 8 made in good faith by the court, then the party designating the expert may seek an award 9 of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Failure to object within five (5) calendar days to a 10 person proposed shall be deemed approval, but shall not preclude a producing party from 11 objecting to continued access by that person where facts suggesting a basis for objection 12 are subsequently learned by the producing party or its counsel.

13 (c) If the producing party so objects, the producing and requesting party shall, 14 within five (5) calendar days from the date of emailing a notice of objection in the same 15 manner and to the adverse email addresses listed in Section (7)(b) above, demand that the 16 other party confer and attempt to resolve the dispute. At the conference, which must take 17 place as soon as possible after the demand therefore is served, the producing party shall 18 inform the requesting party of its reasons for objecting to the designated person. If the 19 parties cannot resolve the dispute, or if the conference does not take place, then the 20 producing party may move the Court for an order that access to information designated 21 "Confidential-Attorneys' Eyes Only" be denied to the designated person. The time periods 22 are not to restrict either party from moving for a court order earlier if the circumstances so 23 require.

24 (d) The parties agree that the information identified above in subparagraph 25 7(a) in most cases constitutes sufficient information from which to approve said 26 designated person, but a party may seek production of additional information if reasonably 27 necessary to determine whether to approve the designated person.
28

1 8. All “Confidential” and “Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information 2 covered by this order shall be kept in secure facilities at counsel's offices and in no event shall 3 any “Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” materials be taken to or stored on the premises of a 4 party without having first received written permission from the party designating the document 5 Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only, and access to those facilities shall be permitted only to 6 those designated persons set forth in Paragraphs 4, 5, and 6 of this Protective Order as persons 7 properly having access thereto under the appropriately designated degree of confidentiality. The 8 foregoing sentence does not restrict counsel from sending emails containing “Confidential” 9 information to their clients named in the above-entitled action or those designated persons set 10 forth in Paragraphs 4, 5, and 6 of this Protective Order. “Confidential” materials taken to the 11 premises of a party shall remain under the control of counsel and shall not be left at a Party’s 12 office. All counsel for the parties who have access to “Confidential” or “Confidential – 13 Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information and documentation under this Protective Order acknowledge 14 they are bound by this Order and submit to the jurisdiction of this Court solely for purposes of 15 enforcing this Order.

16 9. No party or non-party may file any document containing any information or 17 exhibits designated by another party or non-party as “Confidential” or “Confidential - Attorneys’ 18 Eyes Only” within the scope of this Order unless the filing party also files the same under seal 19 and files a motion for leave to file under seal pursuant to Local Rule IA 10-5. No party or non-20 party may file any document containing any information or exhibits designated by the filing party 21 as “Confidential” or “Confidential -- Attorneys’ Eyes Only” within the scope of this Order unless 22 the party concurrently or in advance of the filing seeks leave of Court pursuant to Local Rule IA 23 10-5. Notwithstanding any agreement among the parties, the party designating a 24 document/information as “Confidential” or “Confidential -- Attorneys’ Eyes Only” within the 25 scope of this Order bears the burden of overcoming the presumption in favor of public access to 26 papers filed in court.

1 10. If any document or information designated to be "Confidential" or "Confidential-
2 Attorneys' Eyes Only" pursuant to this Protective Order is used during the course of a deposition 3 herein, that portion of the deposition record reflecting such confidential information shall be 4 sealed and stamped with the designated degree of confidentiality, and access thereto shall be 5 limited pursuant to the other terms of this Protective Order.

6 11. A party should designate as “Confidential” or “Confidential-Attorneys’ Eyes 7 Only” only such information or documents as the party reasonably and in good faith believes 8 require and justify protection under this Protective Order. If, at any time during the pendency or 9 trial of this action, counsel for any party claims that counsel for any other party is unreasonably 10 claiming certain information produced herein to be confidential, objecting counsel may make an 11 appropriate application to this Court, with confidential portions thereof to be kept under seal, 12 requesting that specifically identified documents, information, and/or deposition testimony be 13 excluded from the provisions of this Protective Order or downgraded in terms of the degree of 14 protection provided. Before filing any such application, the party seeking relief shall confer with 15 the other party to determine whether the matter can be resolved by agreement. The prevailing 16 party in such a dispute may seek reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Federal Rules of 17 Civil Procedure 37(a)(5).

18 12. The pretrial order submitted by the parties in this action shall address the treatment 19 at trial of documents, information or testimony designated "Confidential" or "Confidential-20 Attorneys' Eyes Only" pursuant to this Protective Order unless the confidentiality of such 21 information has been removed by agreement of counsel or by this Court in accordance with the 22 provisions of Paragraph 11 of this Protective Order.

23 13. At any hearing relating to this litigation prior to trial before any judicial officer, 24 subject to the rules of evidence and order of the Court, a party may use any “Confidential” or 25 “Confidential-Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information or documents for any purpose, provided that 26 adequate prior notice of such use is given to counsel for the opposing party to permit the opposing 27 party the opportunity to obtain appropriate protection from the Court, including a request to the 28

1 Court that the courtroom be cleared and that the court employees be advised as to the terms of 2 this Protective Order. If any party reasonably anticipates that “Confidential” or “Confidential-3 Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information or documents will be presented in any hearing in this 4 litigation, it may request that the Court close the courtroom during such presentation. If the Court
5 denies any such request, the use of the “Confidential” or “Confidential-Attorneys’ Eyes Only” 6 information or documents in Court shall not affect its coverage by this Protective Order or 7 constitute a waiver of confidentiality with respect thereto.

8 14. The terms of this Protective Order shall apply to all manner and means of 9 discovery, including entry onto land or premises and inspection of books, records, documents, 10 and tangible things.

11 15. Unless otherwise permitted by statute, rule or prior court order, papers filed with 12 the Court under seal shall be accompanied by a contemporaneous motion for leave to file those 13 documents under seal, and shall be filed consistent with the court’s electronic filing procedures in 14 accordance with Local Rule 10-5(b). Motions to seal shall comply with LR IA 10-5 and the 15 requirements of Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172 (9th Cir. 2006). See 16 also, Center for Auto Safety v. Chrysler Group, LLC, 809 F.3d 1092, 1097 (9th Cir. 2016).
17 Notwithstanding the foregoing, a party seeking a designation of “Confidential” or “Confidential-18 Attorneys Eyes Only” retains the obligation to defend such designation whether the designating 19 party is the party seeking to file a document with the court or is not the party seeking to file the 20 document with the court.

21 16. The terms of this Protective Order do not preclude, limit, restrict, or otherwise 22 apply to the use of documents at trial. Should these documents be desired to be used at trial, the 23 Parties will discuss the protocol with the Court to protect the nature of the documents to fullest 24 extent allowed under the law.

25 17. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege or work product 26 protection, or to affect the ability of a party to seek relief for an inadvertent disclosure of material 27 protected by privilege or work product protection.

1 18. Any witness or other person, firm or entity from which discovery is sought may be 2 informed of and may obtain the protection of this Protective Order by written advice to the 3 parties' respective counsel or by oral advice at the time of any deposition or similar proceeding.

4 19. This Protective Order shall be effective on the date entered by the Court.

5 20. All provisions of this Protective Order restricting the communication or use of 6 "Confidential" and "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" information and documentation shall 7 continue to be binding after the conclusion of this action, unless otherwise agreed or ordered.
8 Upon conclusion of the litigation, a party in the possession of "Confidential" and/or "Confidential 9 – Attorneys' Eyes Only" information and documentation other than that which is contained in 10 pleadings, correspondence, and deposition transcripts, shall either (a) return such documents no 11 later than thirty (30) days after conclusion of this action to counsel for the party or nonparty who 12 provided such information, or (b) destroy such documents within the time period upon consent of 13 the party who provided the information and certify in writing within thirty (30) days that the 14 documents have been destroyed. Retention of documents by a law firm in accord with its 15 document retention policies, if they exceed the time periods stated above, do not violate the terms
