

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

BEVERLY JEAN MOORE,

Plaintiff,

V.

SMITH'S FOOD & DRUG CENTERS, INC.,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:23-cv-01901-GMN-NJK

Order

SMITH'S FOOD & DRUG CENTERS, INC.,
Defendant.

10 During today's court-ordered settlement conference, attorney Ty Maynarich made a
11 completely offensive, unacceptable, and inappropriate comment that violated the governing rules
12 and ethical obligations. See Local Rule IA 11-1(a)(2)(C) (for admission to the bar of this court, 13 an attorney must take an oath to conduct himself uprightly); see also 2016 Supreme Court of 14 Nevada Rules Regulating Admission to the Practice of Law ("I will conduct myself in a civil and 15 professional manner"). An attorney who violates the standards of conduct prescribed by the Model
16 Rules of Professional Conduct as adopted and amended by the Supreme Court of Nevada, except 17 as modified by this Court, "may be disbarred, suspended from practice before this court for a 18 definite time, reprimanded, or subjected to other discipline as the court deems proper." LR IA 11-
19 7(a).

20 The Court will not tolerate such unprofessional behavior. While the Court would be fully 21 justified in sanctioning and/or disciplining Mr. Maynarich for his conduct, the Court instead
22 ADMONISHES Mr. Maynarich to give him the opportunity to correct his behavior. Mr.
23 Maynarich can expect sanctions and/or discipline if he ever exhibits any sort of unprofessionalism
24 in this Court again.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
