23 STIPULATION AND ORDER
 24 EXTENDING DISCOVERY
 25 DEADLINES

26 (Third Request)

27 Plaintiffs JAMES FURTADO LUM AND DOROTHY LEWIS and Defendant HOME
 28 DEPOT U.S.A., INC. (“HomeDepot”) (collectively hereinafter the “Parties”) by and through their attorneys of record hereby jointly stipulate and respectfully request this Honorable Court order a continuance of the discovery deadlines for 90 days pursuant to FRCP 26. The basis is that Plaintiff

1 Lum is incarcerated and, due to unforeseen circumstances, Plaintiff Lum's deposition was continued.
2 Additionally, Home Depot is working with the prison to perform an independent medical
3 examination of the Plaintiff. Finally, Home Depot is in the process of reviewing its voluminous files
4 and records to ensure the accuracy of its responses.

6 1. Discovery complete: The Parties have been diligently engaging in discovery. To date,
7 Plaintiffs have served Home Depot with their responses to written discovery. Home Depot has 8 deposed Plaintiff Lewis. Plaintiffs have served written discovery requests on Home Depot. The 9 Parties are actively engaging in informal settlement negotiations and, if unable to resolve, are 10 considering a formal mediation to resolve this matter.

12 2. Discovery remaining: The Parties intend to conduct further discovery, including the 13 deposition of Plaintiff Lum, the independent medical examination of Plaintiff Lum, the depositions of 14 Home Depot employees, additional written discovery requests, and expert discovery.

16 3. Describe of why remaining discovery has not been completed within the time limits
17 previously set by the Court: The Parties respectfully submit they have good cause for the 90-day
18 extension of the discovery deadlines. The deposition and the independent medical examination have 19 not been completed because Plaintiff Lum is in prison and the prison provides the available dates.
20 Additionally, Home Depot's discovery responses are outstanding because its files and records are 21 voluminous and corporate research is required to ensure the accuracy of its responses.

24 4. Proposed schedule for completing all remaining discovery: Based on the foregoing, the 25 Parties respectfully request that the Court grant their request to extend the discovery deadlines as 26 follows:
27
