DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Aquatech Corporation,

Plaintiff

Custom Home Solutions, LLC and Rachelle Miller,

Defendants

Case No.: 2:24-cv-01180-JAD-NJK

Order Granting Motion to Stay and Denying Motions to Amend and for Attorneys' Fees Without Prejudice

[ECF Nos. 13, 15, 18]

In January 2025, default judgment was entered against defendants Custom Home

10 Solutions, LLC and Rachelle Miller in this contract-dispute case.¹ Plaintiff Aquatech 11 Corporation moves to add attorneys' fees to that judgment.² It also asks that the court amend the 12 judgment's caption to clearly reflect the names of both defendants because the judgment 13 currently identifies "Custom Home Solutions, LLC et al."³ Aquatech is concerned that the 14 judgment's failure to name both defendants "may cause confusion when [it] attempts to enforce 15 its rights arising from" the judgment.⁴

16 After those motions were filed, however, Aquatech informed the court that Miller has 17 initiated bankruptcy proceedings, and it moves to stay the case against Miller under 18 11 U.S.C. § 362.⁵ Because filing for bankruptcy automatically stays the continuation of any

1 judicial action against the debtor,⁶ Aquatech’s motion is granted. And because this stay may 2 substantively affect the relief Aquatech seeks in its other pending motions, I deny those without 3 prejudice to Aquatech’s ability to refile them in this altered legal landscape. If Aquatech does 4 refile, it must address whether and how the stay as to Miller affects the court’s ability to issue its 5 requested relief. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that Aquatech's motion to stay this case as to Rachelle Miller [ECF

7 | No. 18] is GRANTED. This action against Miller is STAYED. The action continues against
8 | Custom Home Solutions, LLC only.

9 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Aquatech's motions for attorneys' fees and to amend
10 judgment [ECF Nos. 13 and 15] are DENIED without prejudice to Aquatech's ability to refile 11 them.
