UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

LESTER L. TELLIS,
Petitioner

vs.

BILL DONAT, et al.,
Respondents.

Case No. 3:10-CV-00387-ECR-VPC

MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE

COMES NOW Petitioner, LESTER L. TELLIS, pro-per and hereby files with the Court his Motion to Show Cause, as directed by this honorable Court, to do so (#3).

I. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On June 28, 2010, this Court issued its Order (#3), granting Petitioner leave to proceed in forma pauperis within this action, and directing him to show cause in writing why the petition should not be dismissed without prejudice for lack of exhaustion within thirty (30) days.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

On June 25, 2010, Petitioners, Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254, challenging a prison disciplinary hearing which violated his right to due process of law as guaranteed by the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, was filed. Prior to filing said petition, Petitioner sought exhaustion in the State Courts on his due process violations.

On September 5, 2008, Petitioner filed in State District Court a State Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, challenging the prison disciplinary actions taken against him for rule infractions allegedly occurring in January of 2008. See Exhibit # I attached.

In that Petition, Petitioner alleged that he was found guilty of MJ-19- Sexual Assault; MJ-25- Threats; and, MJ-30- Sexually Stimulating, and was sanctioned to 18 months disciplinary segregation, loss of canteen for 60 days, Loss of phone for 30 days, and "Stat referral (see Exhibit # 1-b)". SEE, Exhibit # 1, at p 5, see also, Exhibit # 2 (formerly Exhibit 1-b) attached.

On May 19, 2009, the State District Court issued an Order Dismissing Petitioner's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, based upon Petitioner allegedly having failed to "provide evidence that as a result of the disciplinary hearing he suffered a loss of good time." See, (#4) at p. 18. That court then went on to note that even though Petitioner had filed various motions, he did not provide the requested information. Id. Which is false.

On March 23, 2009, Petitioner filed his "Opposition to Motion to Dismiss. See Exhibit #3, attached, where he stated:

Comes Now, Your Mute Lester Tellis, in Propria Personarum Requests the Honorable Courts, of the loss of Petitioner's Statutory Credits, Stat. time (See Exhibit #1-b), in the Petitioner Writ of Habeas Corpus All Writ for Petitioner.

Id. at p. 1 of Exhibit #3, attached. Exhibit #1-b of the Writ, is a form used by the NDOC designated as a "Statutory forfeiture, Restoration Referral Report." That exhibit under the bold print of "NDOC Action:" indicates that, "Credit forfeiture: 450" was a forfeiture of 450 days, which was deducted on 3-28-08. Id.

III. ARGUMENT

As shown above, Petitioner, did present to the State Courts the "evidence" that he had been subjected to a loss of statutory credits as a result of a prison disciplinary hearing in the amount of 450 days.

The State, by refusing to acknowledge that Petitioner had presented evidence of the loss of Statutory Credits, has denied Petitioner a full and fair hearing on his Petition in State Court. See, Allen v. McCurry, 101 S.Ct. 411, 449 U.S. 90 (1980) (concept of collateral estoppel cannot apply when, the party against whom the earlier decision is asserted did not have a full, and fair opportunity to litigate that issue in the earlier case). Id. 101 S.Ct. at 415, n.5. In fact, federal courts can step in where state courts are unable or unwilling to protect federal rights. Id. Allen, 101 S.Ct., at 418, n.12.

As noted by the Ninth Circuit,

"redetermination of issues is warranted if there is reason to doubt the quality, extensiveness, or fairness of procedures followed in prior litigation." Maciel v. C.I.R., 489 F.3d 1018 (9th Cir. 2007), citing Montana v. United States, 440 U.S. 147, 164, n. 11, 99 S.Ct. 910. at p. 1023, n. 6.

Since the State Courts clearly refused to read and accept the Petitioner's Opposition to Motion to Dismiss, and accept his assertion and documentation that he had lost 450 days of Statutory Credits, as a result of the prison disciplinary guilty finding, then this Court should not be bound by those courts' decision.

CONCLUSION

Wherefore, all of the above stated reasons, Petitioner requests that this Court find he has exhausted State Court remedies in this action.

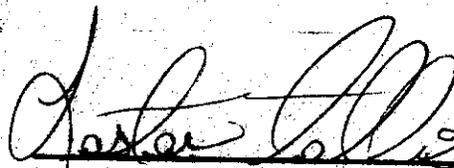

DATED THIS 7/26/2010 day of July, 2010.

Motion to Dismiss

Date of Hearing:
Time of Hearing:

Comes Now, Your mute Lester Tellis, in propria Person,
Hereby Requests the Honorable Courts, of the loss of Petitioner Statutory Credits, Stat time (See Exhibit # 1-b), in the Petitioner Writ of habeas Corpus all Writ for Petitioner Present
Unconstitutional, Prior restraint of liberty, NRS 34.185 NRS 34.320
NRS 34.360

The hearing Officers branharn Stacy, when a Prison disciplinary hearing may result in the Loss of statutory Credits the inmate must receive: (1) advance written notice of the disciplinary charges: (2) an opportunity, when consistent, with institutional safety and correctional goals, to call witnesses and present documentary evidence in his defense: and (3) a written statement by the fact finder of the evidence relied on and the reasons for the disciplinary action, [3] Prisons § 13 (7,1.)
[1] [2] Respondent Concedes that depriving Petitioner

1 Lester Tellis of 4.50 days of Statutory Credits, that is Stat time.
2 (See Exhibit # 1-b), and also see the Stat Ref, by Officers
3 Branham Stacy Disciplinary hearing date of Service January
4 28-2008 (Exhibit # 1-A) as discipline for alleging Petitioner
5 Violating Prison rule, and breaking the Law, implicates a liberty
6 interest that is protected by the due Process Clause See Wolff v.
7 McDonnell, 418 U.S. 539, 555-58, 94 S. Ct 2963, 41 L. Ed 2d 935 (1974)
8 however, the Process Constitutionally due to inmates takes into 9 account "the structure and content of the Prison disciplinary 10 hearing" Id at 561, 94 S. Ct, 2963, in general, when a Prison discipl-
11 inary hearing may result in the loss of Statutory Credits,
12 That is the Stat time, (See Exhibit # 1-b).
