Case No. 3:10-CV-00677

[PROPOSED]:

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER
 AGAINST DEFENDANTS LEE A. BOSCH
 AND HERBERT L. BOSCH, JR.

Chief Judge Robert C. Jones

1 The Application of Plaintiff, ALLY FINANCIAL INC. ("Ally"), for an order for writ of 2 attachment and for writ of garnishment or alternatively for a temporary restraining order against
3 Defendants Lee A. Bosch and Herbert L. Bosch, Jr. came on by an emergency motion
4 (application) before the Chief Judge Robert C. Jones, United States District Court Judge for the 5 District of Nevada.

6 The Court, having reviewed Ally's application, the supporting affidavit of Robert
7 Halcovich, the Affidavit of Eleanor M. Roman, the Memorandum of Points and Authorities, and 8 the Request for Judicial Notice finds that Ally has established that it is entitled to the issuance of 9 temporary restraining order, and GOOD CAUSE APPEARING THEREFORE ^{ONLY AS IT PERTAINS TO T.R.O.} as follows: RJ

10 1. Grounds for issuance of a temporary restraining order pursuant to N.R.S. 33.010
11 (2) and (3) against Defendants Lee A. Bosch and Herbert L. Bosch, Jr., exist based upon the facts
12 attested to in the Affidavit of Robert Halcovich and the judicially noticeable documents attached 13 thereto.

14 2. Defendants are liquidating their assets in order to avoid the effects of Ally's
15 impending judgment.

16 3. After this action was filed and while Ally's Motion for Summary Judgment was 17 under consideration by the Court, Defendants subdivided some of their real property and sold six 18 of the parcels resulting from the subdivision (Parcel No. 8-9 and 11-4) to third parties for 19 $501,450. Defendants also granted an option to a third party to purchase a seventh parcel (Parcel
20 No. 15). Defendants did so after admitting in their Opposition to Ally's Motion for Summary
21 Judgment liability to Ally, leaving only the amount of Defendants indebtedness to Ally in dispute.
22 [Dkt. No. 57, see Dkt. No. 66]. Defendants have by their actions cause great or irreparable injury
23 to Ally, and continue to transfer their property in violation of Ally's rights respecting the subject
24 action, and tending to render the judgment ineffectual.

25 4. Ally has alleged a meritorious claim for relief as stated in the Court's Order
26 partially granting Ally's Motion for Summary Judgment [Dkt. No. 66].

27 5. Defendants, their agents, employees, and all persons acting for them or on their 28 behalf, are hereby immediately restrained and enjoined from transferring any interest in the

1 property described below by lease, sale, pledge, gift, or grant of security interest or otherwise
2 disposing of, encumbering, secreting or transferring possession of the below listed property, in any
3 manner which would prevent, hinder, or delay the levying officer from attaching such property:
