6	UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
7	DISTRICT OF NEVADA
8	* * *
9	CHARLES JUAN PROCTOR,	Case No. 3:12-cv-00328-MMD-WGC
10	Plaintiff, v.	ORDER ADOPTING AND ACCEPTING REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION OF
11		MAGISTRATE JUDGE
12	VAN HORN, et al., Defendants.	WILLIAM G. COBB
14	I. SUMMARY

Before the Court is the Report and Recommendation of United States Magistrate Judge William G. Cobb (dkt. no. 116) ("R&R") relating to plaintiff's Dispositive Motion (dkt. no. 75) and defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment ("Motion") (dkt.no. 89). No objection to the R&R has been filed. Also before the Court is Defendants' motion for leave to file confidential documents in support of their Motion under seal. (Dkt. no. 88.)

20 II.

DISCUSSION

This Court "may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or 21 recommendations made by the magistrate judge." 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Where a party 22 timely objects to a magistrate judge's report and recommendation, then the court is 23 required to "make a de novo determination of those portions of the [report and 24 25 recommendation] to which objection is made." 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Where a party fails to object, however, the court is not required to conduct "any review at all . . . of any issue 26 that is not the subject of an objection." Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 149 (1985). 27 Indeed, the Ninth Circuit has recognized that a district court is not required to review a 28 magistrate judge's report and recommendation where no objections have been filed. See 1 2 United States v. Reyna-Tapia, 328 F.3d 1114 (9th Cir. 2003) (disregarding the standard 3 of review employed by the district court when reviewing a report and recommendation to which no objections were made); see also Schmidt v. Johnstone, 263 F. Supp. 2d 1219, 4 5 1226 (D. Ariz. 2003) (reading the Ninth Circuit's decision in Reyna-Tapia as adopting the view that district courts are not required to review "any issue that is not the subject of an 6 7 objection."). Thus, if there is no objection to a magistrate judge's recommendation, then 8 the court may accept the recommendation without review. See, e.g., Johnstone, 263 F. 9 Supp. 2d at 1226 (accepting, without review, a magistrate judge's recommendation to 10 which no objection was filed).

Nevertheless, this Court finds it appropriate to engage in a de novo review to determine whether to adopt Magistrate Judge Cobb's R&R. Upon reviewing the R&R and underlying briefs, this Court finds good cause to adopt the Magistrate Judge's R&R in full.

Defendants' motion to file confidential documents requests leave to file Plaintiff's medical documents under seal. The Court finds that Defendants have demonstrated good cause to support their request and grants the motion.

18 III. CONCLUSION

19 It is therefore ordered that Defendants' motion for leave to file confidential20 documents under seal (dkt. no. 88) is granted.

It is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the Report and Recommendation of Magistrate Judge William G. Cobb (dkt. no. 116) is accepted and adopted in its entirety.

23

It is further ordered that Plaintiff's Dispositive Motion (dkt. no. 75) is denied.

It is further ordered that Defendants' Motion (dkt. no. 89) is granted in part and denied in part as follows:

26 (1) The Motion is granted as to Plaintiff's claim against defendant Lois
27 Elliott;

28 ///

(2) The Motion is granted as to Plaintiff's claim against defendant Sonja
 Missy Gleason ("Gleason") related to her responses to Plaintiff's June and July 2011 kites, and related to his claims regarding the cancellation of his appointments in August and early September 2011;

5 (3) The Motion is denied as to Plaintiff's claim against defendant 6 Gleason related to her responses to Plaintiff's kites in October, November and 7 December 2011, and the delay in Plaintiff being seen regarding his complaints of pain 8 during that time;

9 (4) The Motion is denied as to Plaintiff's claim against Dr. Van Horn 10 related to Plaintiff's kites in October, November and December 2011 and the delay in 11 Plaintiff being seen regarding his complaints of pain during that time; the Motion is 12 otherwise granted as to Dr. Van Horn;

13

(5)

- 14

(6) The Motion is granted as to defendant Terri Jacobs;

The Motion is granted as to Dr. Karen Gedney;

15 (7) The Motion is granted insofar as Plaintiff seeks to recover money
16 damages against Defendants in their official capacities.

In sum, the following claims remain for trial: Plaintiff's claim against defendant Gleason related to her responses to Plaintiff's kites in October, November and December 2011, and the delay in Plaintiff being seen regarding his complaints of pain during that time; and Plaintiff's claim against Dr. Van Horn related to Plaintiff's kites in October, November and December 2011 and the delay in Plaintiff being seen regarding his complaints of pain during that time.
