

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

* * * * *

KEVIN FERNANDEZ,)
)	3:12-cv-00401-LRH-WGC
Plaintiff,)
)	ORDER
v.)
DR. CENTRIC, et al.,)
)
Defendants.)

Before the Court is Plaintiff Kevin Fernandez’s (“Fernandez”) Objection to the Magistrate Judge’s Order (Doc. #157 ¹) pursuant to Local Rule IB 3-1. Doc. #174. The Magistrate Judge’s Order operates as final determinations of pretrial matters under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A) and Local Rule IB 1-3. Accordingly, a district judge may reconsider the Magistrate Judge’s Order only if it is “clearly erroneous or contrary to law.” 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a); LR IB 3-1(a). Having considered the parties’ briefing and the relevant filings on record, the Court concludes that the Magistrate Judge’s Order is neither clearly erroneous nor contrary to law.

I. Fernandez’s Motion for Appointment of Expert Witness (Doc. #95)

Fernandez’s first objection concerns the Magistrate Judge’s denial of his Motion for Appointment of Expert Witness (Doc. #95). Contrary to Fernandez’s assertions, the Magistrate Judge did not base his ruling on the absence of authority to appoint an expert on Fernandez’s behalf or on Fernandez’s failure to designate a specific expert for the Court to appoint. Rather,

¹ Refers to the Court’s docket entry number.

1 the Magistrate Judge properly determined that an expert witness will not assist the trier of fact or
2 the Court in determining whether Defendants were deliberately indifferent to his serious medical
3 need. Fernandez is mistaken as to the appropriate standard under which his Eighth Amendment
4 claim is to be evaluated. He cites this Court’s Screening Order in which the Court supposedly 5 recognized that the case concerned Defendants’ deliberate indifference to “the substantial risk of 6 harm he faced when he was admitted to the MHU even though he was not mentally ill.” Doc. #3, 7 p. 10. First, Fernandez quotes a portion of the Court’s Screening Order which merely 8 summarizes his own allegations, not the Court’s own findings. Second, the distinction is 9 immaterial as the standards to which he refers are one and the same. See Gibson v. Cnty. of 10 Washoe, Nev., 290 F.3d 1175, 1188 (9th Cir. 2002) (explaining that “if a person is aware of a
11 substantial risk of serious harm, a person may be liable for neglecting a prisoner’s serious
12 medical needs on the basis of either his action or his inaction”) (citing Farmer v. Brennan, 511
13 U.S. 825, 842 (1994)). Accordingly, the Court finds that the Magistrate Judge’s ruling was not
14 contrary to law or clearly erroneous in this regard.

15 Additionally, the Court rejects Fernandez’s contention that the Magistrate Judge’s
16 determination that an expert witness would not assist the trier of fact or the Court in determining
17 whether Defendants were deliberately indifferent to his serious medical need was contrary to law
18 and clearly erroneous. Indeed, an expert witness may testify to help the trier of fact determine the 19 evidence or a fact at issue. Fed. R. Evid. 702. Federal Rule of Evidence 706 allows the district
20 court on its own motion or on the motion of any party to enter an order to show cause why an 21 expert witness should not be appointed. Fed. R. Evid. 706(a). Appointment of an expert witness 22 may generally be appropriate when “scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge will 23 help the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue[.]” Fed. R. Evid.
24 702(a) (emphasis added). However, “[e]xpert witnesses should not be appointed where they are
25 not necessary or not significantly useful for the trier of fact to comprehend a material issue in a
26 case.” Johnson v. Dunnahoe, No. 1:08–cv–00640–LJO–DLB PC, 2013 WL 396009, at *2 (E.D.
27 Cal. Jan. 31, 2013) (citing Gorton v. Todd, 793 F. Supp. 2d 1171, 1181 (E.D. Cal. 2011)). The 28 appointment of an unbiased expert is only appropriate if the expert’s opinion would “promote

1 accurate fact finding.” Gorton, 793 F. Supp. 2d at 1179. Finally, the determination to appoint an
2 expert rests solely in the court’s discretion and is to be informed by such factors as the
3 complexity of the matters to be determined and the court’s need for a neutral, expert review. See
4 Ledford v. Sullivan, 105 F.3d 354, 358-59 (7th Cir. 1997).

5 Here, the Court finds that the Magistrate Judge’s determination that this is not a complex
6 case requiring the assistance of an expert was not contrary to law or clearly erroneous. With 7 regard to the serious medical need prong of the inquiry, the Court agrees that an expert would not
8 be helpful in assessing whether Fernandez faced a risk of serious harm. Specifically, the jury
9 would not have to consider complex questions regarding Fernandez’s medical condition because 10 he claims that he was not in fact suffering from one at the time of the incident. As to the 11 deliberate indifference component of the inquiry, the Court also agrees that “[e]xpert testimony is 12 not required to adequately evaluate evidence of Defendants’ state of mind at the time of the 13 incident.” Ledford, 105 F.3d at 359. The inquiry is subjective and does not involved “probing,
14 complex questions concerning medical diagnosis and judgment.” Id. Accordingly, the Court
15 concludes that the Magistrate Judge’s ruling was not contrary to law or clearly erroneous in this 16 regard.

17 II. Defendants’ Motion for Enlargement of Time to Oppose Fernandez’s Objections to 18 the Magistrate Judge’s Report and Recommendation (Doc. #134)

19 Second, Fernandez objects to the Magistrate Judge’s Order granting Defendants’ Motion
20 for Enlargement of Time to Oppose Fernandez’s Objections to the Magistrate Judge’s Report and 21 Recommendation. The Court finds that Fernandez’s objection in this regard is without merit.
22 First, Fernandez argues that the Magistrate Judge was without authority to issue the ruling
23 because Defendants’ Motion was dispositive in nature and, as such, was out of a magistrate
24 judge’s purview. In this regard, the Court finds that Fernandez’s arguments are entirely without 25 merit. First, this action was properly referred to the Magistrate Judge pursuant to LR IB 1-3, 26 which provides that “a magistrate judge may hear and finally determine any pretrial matter not 27 specifically enumerated as an exception in 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A).” Because Defendants’
28 Motion for Enlargement of Time to Oppose Fernandez’s Objections is not an enumerated

1 exception under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), the Magistrate Judge had authority to decide the
2 Motion and issue an appropriate Order. Second, motions for extensions of time are not
3 dispositive motions because they seek only to extend the period of time in which a party may add
4 additional information to the record for the Court’s consideration.

5 Fernandez also contends that, even if the Magistrate Judge did have authority to rule on
6 Defendants’ Motion, the decision was still contrary to law and clearly erroneous. More
7 specifically, Fernandez asserts that Defendants’ Motion was untimely and the Court made no
8 finding of good cause or excusable neglect to justify Defendants’ tardiness. Contrary to 9 Fernandez’s assertion, there is no indication in the record that he “served” his Objection on 10 Defendants on March 4, 2013. Rather, his Objection was filed and served electronically on 11 March 8, 2013. Doc. #126. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(c), Local Rule IB 3-2, and 12 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, Defendants had 14 days to file a Response. Additionally,
13 pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6(d), Defendants were entitled to an additional three
14 (3) days to file a Response. Because Defendants had until March 25, 2013 to file a Response,
15 and their Motion was filed on March 25, 2013, the Court finds that it was not untimely.
16 Accordingly, the Court shall affirm the Magistrate Judge’s Order in this regard.

17 III. Deadline for Defendants to Respond to Fernandez’s Discovery Motions (Docs. #121, 18 #122, #123, #124, and #133)

19 Fernandez’s third objection challenges the Magistrate Judge’s Order setting a deadline by 20 which Defendants must respond to Fernandez’s various discovery motions. In this regard, the 21 Court concludes that Fernandez’s objection is not entirely unfounded. Nevertheless, the Court
22 concludes that the Magistrate Judge’s Order was not clearly erroneous or contrary to law. It
23 appears to the Court that there was some confusion amongst Defense Counsel and the Magistrate
24 Judge as to the appropriate docket numbers assigned to each of Fernandez’s requests, in part
25 because Fernandez filed an identical document as three separate discovery motions. See Doc.
26 #121, #122, #123. In requesting an extension of time to respond, Defendants specifically
27 reference Fernandez’s Motions to Compel Production of Documents (Doc. #124) and his Motion
28 to Compel Interrogatory Responses, etc. (Docs. #121, 122, 123). However, Defendants only cite

1 docket entry numbers 121 and 122 in their Motion. As a result, in granting Defendants' Motion
2 (Doc. #129), the Magistrate Judge only did so as to docket entry numbers 121 and 122. Thus, it
3 appears to the Court that Counsel and the Magistrate Judge's omission as to docket entry
4 numbers 123 and 124 was a mere oversight. Accordingly, the Court amends the Magistrate
5 Judge's March 20, 2013 Order (Doc. #130) and grants Defendants a 14-day extension nunc pro
6 tunc, up to and including April 1, 2013, within which to file responses to all four of Fernandez's
7 discovery Motions (Doc. #121, #122, #123, and #124). In light of the aforementioned
8 amendment, Fernandez's objection in this regard is overruled.

9
10 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Fernandez's Objection (Doc. #174) is 11 OVERRULED.

12 IT IS SO ORDERED.

13 DATED this 7th day of February, 2014.

14
15
16 LARRY R. HICKS
17 UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28