DISTRICT OF NEVADA

EUGENE A. MAUWEE, SR.,

Plaintiff,

v.

GREG COX, et. al.,

Defendants.

3:12-cv-00580-RCJ-WGC

ORDER

(2) That Olivas destroyed the antlers with malice, and he states that this will be proven by testimony of the chaplain. (Id.)

(3) That defendant Olivas and Warden Robert LeGrand violated the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) Administrative Regulation (AR) 339 which is a code of ethics for employees by making false or misleading statements. (Id. at 3.)

Judicial notice is only appropriate where the to-be-noticed facts are either "generally known" or "capable of accurate and ready determination by resort to sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned." Fed. R. Evid. 201. The facts proposed by Plaintiff do not fall into either of these categories. Instead, these are Plaintiff's arguments or theories that are similar to those asserted in his opposition to defendant Olivas' motion for summary judgment. Therefore, Plaintiff has not provided evidence for which judicial notice is appropriate and his motion (Doc. # 24) is DENIED.
