BY: _____	DEPUTY

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

JOHN DOE, AS GUARDIAN AD LITEM FOR
J. DOE, a minor, and JOHN DOE and JANE
DOE, individually,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

LYON COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT, a political subdivision of the State of Nevada;
NOLAN GREENBERG, individually, LESLIE
PETERS, individually, and DOES 1-100,

Defendants.

Case No.: 3:12-cv-00583-MMD-VPC

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED, AGREED, AND UNDERSTOOD by Plaintiffs JOHN DOE, AS GUARDIAN AD LITEM FOR J. DOE, a minor, and JOHN DOE and JANE DOE, by and through their undersigned counsel of record, and Defendants LYON COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT, NOLAN GREENBERG, and LESLIE PETERS, by and through their respective undersigned counsel of record, that in the course of this litigation, a party may produce documents and information that is confidential, and that public disclosure of such information

1 could be detrimental to the producing party's and/or a non-producing party's interests.

2 Similarly, such confidential information may be disclosed by written discovery, deposition
3 testimony, or in other filings with the Court. The parties accordingly submit this Stipulated
4 Protective Order for the approval and enforcement of the Court and hereby stipulate as follows:

5 1. Any party or non-party may designate as "confidential" (by stamping the relevant
6 page or other otherwise set forth herein) any document or response to discovery which that party
7 or non-party considers in good faith to contain information involving, but not limited to, the 8 identity of the minor child involved in this matter or her family members, in addition to the 9 identities of any other minor children who are implicated in the allegations or defense of this
10 lawsuit. Where a document or response consists of more than one page, the first page and each 11 page on which confidential information appears shall be so designated.

12 2. A party or non-party may designate information disclosed during a deposition or 13 in response to written discovery as "confidential" by so indicating in said response or on the 14 record at the deposition and requesting the preparation of a separate transcript of such material.
15 Additionally a party or non-party may designate in writing, within twenty (20) days after receipt 16 of said responses or of the deposition transcript for which the designation is proposed, that 17 specific pages of the transcript and/or specific responses be treated as "confidential"
18 information. Any other party may object to such proposal, in writing or on the record. Upon 19 such objection, the parties shall follow the procedures described in paragraph 8 below. After any 20 designation made according to the procedure set forth in this paragraph, the designated 21 documents or information shall be treated according to the designation until the matter is 22 resolved according to the procedures described in paragraph 8 below, and counsel for all parties 23 shall be responsible for marking all previously unmarked copies of the designated material in 24 their possession or control with the specified designation.

25 3. All information produced or exchanged in the course of this case (other than 26 information that is publicly available) shall be used by the party or parties to whom the 27 information is produced solely for the purpose of this case.
28

1 4. Except with the prior written consent of other parties, or upon prior order of this
2 Court obtained upon notice to opposing counsel, Confidential Information shall not be disclosed
3 to any person other than:

4 (a) counsel for the respective parties to this litigation, including in-house
5 counsel and co-counsel retained for this litigation;

6 (b) employees of such counsel;

7 (c) the parties, including any officer or employee of a party, to the extent
8 deemed necessary by Counsel for the prosecution or defense of this litigation;

9 (d) consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of 10 this litigation, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the Certification
11 annexed to this Order as Exhibit "A" (which shall be retained by counsel to the party so 12 disclosing the Confidential Information and made available for inspection by opposing 13 counsel during the pendency or after the termination of the action only upon good cause
14 shown and upon order of the Court) before being shown or given any Confidential
15 Information;

16 (e) any authors or recipients of the Confidential Information;

17 (f) the Court, Court personnel, and court reporters; and

18 (g) witnesses (other than persons described in paragraph 4(e)). A witness
19 shall sign the Certification before being shown a confidential document. Confidential
20 Information may be disclosed to a witness who will not sign the Certification only in a
21 deposition at which the party who designated the Confidential Information is represented
22 or has been given notice that Confidential Information shall be designated
23 "Confidential" pursuant to paragraph 2 above. Witnesses shown Confidential
24 Information shall not be allowed to retain copies.

25 5. Any persons receiving Confidential Information shall not reveal or discuss such 26 information to or with any person who is not entitled to receive such information, except as set 27 forth herein.
28

1 6. Unless otherwise permitted by statute, rule or prior court order, papers filed with 2 the court under seal shall be accompanied by a contemporaneous motion for leave to file those
3 documents under seal, and shall be filed consistent with the court's electronic filing procedures
4 in accordance with Local Rule 10-5(b). Notwithstanding any agreement among the parties, the 5 party seeking to file a paper under seal bears the burden of overcoming the presumption in favor
6 of public access to papers filed in court. Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.2d
7 1172 (9th Cir. 2006).

8 7. A party may designate as "Confidential" documents or discovery materials
9 produced by a non-party by providing written notice to all parties of the relevant document 10 numbers or other identification within thirty (30) days after receiving such documents or 11 discovery materials. Any party or non-party may voluntarily disclose to others without 12 restriction any information designated by that party or non-party as confidential, although a 13 document may lose its confidential status if it is made public.

14 8. If a party contends that any material is not entitled to confidential treatment, such 15 party may at any time give written notice to the party or non-party who designated the material.
16 The party or non-party who designated the material shall have twenty-five (25) days from the 17 receipt of such written notice to apply to the Court for an order designating the material as 18 confidential. The party or non-party seeking the order has the burden of establishing that the 19 document is entitled to protection.

20 9. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of material as Confidential
21 Information, all documents shall be treated as such and shall be subject to the provisions hereof
22 unless and until one of the following occurs:
