In its Complaint, Schlumberger alleges that it contracted with the Defendant whereby Schlumberger would furnish equipment and materials to Defendant and to perform services to be used in connection with Defendant's oil and gas operations. Schlumberger performed all of its obligations under the contracts with Defendant and the Defendant accepted the equipment, materials, labor and services without rejection and became bound to pay Schlumberger the agreed upon and designated charges. Defendant failed and wrongfully refused to pay the amount due under the invoices for the equipment and materials furnished and labor and services performed by Schlumberger. The total amount due and owing from Defendant to Schlumberger is $269,936.68. Schlumberger alleges that Defendant has committed, inter alia, (1) breach of contract; and (2) quantum meruit.

18 This Court having found the allegations in the Complaint sufficient to support 19Schlumberger's claims for breach of contract and guantum meruit, concludes that 20Schlumberger is entitled to the relief requested in its pleadings. Accordingly, it is hereby: 22

ORDERED that Schlumberger's Motion for Default Judgment is GRANTED 23 $\mathbf{24}$ and final default judgment is entered in favor of Schlumberger against Defendant for 25the following amounts:

> $269,936.68 in actual damages; (a)

$600.00 costs of court; (b)
